FAIR, POSSIBLY WARMER

STUDENT VOTE TODAY CLIMAXES MONTH'S CAMP

UP Chairman Cites 'Positive' Campaign SP Standing On 'New Ideas, Imagination'

Chairman Requests 'No Lull' Next Year

Swag Grimsley, chairman of the Student Party, yesterday pleaded with students not to "let Student Government lull through next vear.'

Grimsley said that a vote for the SP would be a vote for "new ideas, new projects, imagination, active leadership, and a responsible liberalism.'

His full statement follows: We in the Student Party feel it is time for a change of administration. There are many programs which are coming to an end in the near future; new programs will be needed to replace them. The opposition party has not come up with a new Student Government project during the campaign.

Lull Next Year Are we going to let Student Government lull through next year with the projects which are now in progress and nearly at an

The Student Party has explained during the campaign several new programs to increase the communications between students and improve the culture programs on campus. The student body has grown beyond the limits where the Daily Tar Heel can handle all the available news. Student Party Presidentia ised a plan whereby a Carrier extremely close races expected. at 2:30 p.m. in 211 Gardner. will be operating by May 1, and comprising the three town Current campus radio system will reach immediately 4200 students. A vote for the Student Party will make this a reality, otherwise the opposition may

Vice-Presidential candidate for contenders for the seats. the Student Party, has continuously campaigned for a Fine endorsed by the Bi-Partisan Arts Forum. This is more than Selections Board. a campaign promise, for we have already looked into its

The Student Party has been endorsement. row's progress in Student Gov- the Bi-Partisan Board. ernment; the Student Party is Mike Lawler is unopposed for Women Orientation Counselors this Thursday. the symbol of progress in Stu- Honor Council from MJD V.

dent Government. The Student Party is grateful for the votes promised by DTH In Women's Honor Council Editor Yardley, Davis Young, races, Harriet Cox, Jane Shaw and Bob Silliman. The Student and Charla Duncan are running Party has not compiled a list in District I. Miss Duncan is an of every office holder who likes independent candidate, while to endorse people for their sup- the other hopefuls have received posed "influence," but has aimed Bi-Partisan Selections Board its campaign at the student who endorsement. comprises the bulk of the elec-

on our own qualifications and the Council, and Prissy Wyrick candidate for Head Cheerplatform, not on those of others. (Bi-Partisan endorsed) is un-leader in today's election. SP has a printed platform which opposed in District III. SP has a printed platform which students can hold it responsible for; can this be done by MJD III, while Eddie Pleasants late Sunday after candidate the platform. We are running as a team, working as a team, working as a team, and campaigning as a team. The dorsement. party will be a team when in office, because the Student Party ticket is committed to its platform being carried out.

The Student Party takes this opportunity to thank the many students who will be voting today for its candidates.

ideas and issues have been dis- dences Thursday, March 23, at A Morehead Scholar and cussed more widely than before. 11 p.m.

In answer to a frequent question, the Student Party offers | Models are needed for art the cheerleading squad this tively sudden decision, I have candidate." projects, imagination, active Building on Tuesdays and major. leadership, and a responsible Thursdays from 2-6 p.m. Any "I had declined to run earlier port at the polls today.

BILL HARRISS ... SP Candidate

Six Men's Seats On Honor Council Decided Today

today's election, with several eral Government on Thursday Men's Judicial District IV, men's voting precincts, has been the scene of heavy campaigning for the two available seats. Bass, Dellinger Incumbent All except Fawsett have been erine's monastery at Mt. Sinai."

Lower Quad Battle

a Student Party Administration seeking the position, both having received Bi-Partisan Board the two semester basis.

likely be buried under tomor- Council seat from MJD. The floor, YMCA. row's progress. We are tomor- four have all been endorsed by

Women's Council

Sandra Hoke (Bi-Partisan endorsed) is opposed by Jane R. We have been content to run Allen for the District II seat on been declared a write-in

SP legislators can be held to and John Kerbaugh are vying George Ricks has been official-matically barred from holding campus office. We thank also our opponents The YWCA will entertain who have, by and large, con-nominations from the floor for achieving the greatest number ducted a fine campaign. Many all executive positions in Ger- of votes today will be declared ideas have been swapped, bor- rard Hall today at 4:30. Elec- the winner," Barber announced. rowed or stolen, but at least tions will be held in all resi-

On The Campus

World News In Brief

By United Press International

KENNEDY ASKS AID PLAN APPROVAL

WASHINGTON - President Kennedy will ask Congress today to approve a new multi-billion-dollar foreign aid programs providing bonuses to nations that spend the money for social reform instead of palaces, limousines and graft.

MAYOR WAGNER O.K. AFTER OPERATION NEW YORK-Surgeons removed a non-cancerous tumor from beneath the right ear of Mayor Robert F. Wagner Mon-

Doctors reported after the one hour and five minute operation that the mayor was "in excellent condition."

SUPREME COURT TO EXAMINE LAW WASHINGTON - The Supreme Court agreed Monday to examine a Virginia law which the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People claims may destroy it

The court will hear arguments some time next fall on the NAACP appeal from a Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals ruling that the law is valid.

On The Campus

H. Z. McConnell of the U. S. should sign up for interviews Civil Service Commission will at the GM Woodhouse Room be- of this week end's GM Sound Six seats on the Men's Honor talk to all students interested in fore Friday. Interviews will be Fury production, has been spotexisting problems and the best Council will be determined in career opportunities in the Fed- 4-6 p.m.

reopen Wednesday. Professor Kenneth W. Clark

Anyone who has not been notified of selection for Phi Eta Two candidates are fighting it, should come by 376 Phillips history and future promise on the Carolina campus. These are some of the new projects which a Student Party Administration will carry out if elected today.

Two candidates are fighting for the one available seat from Men's Judicial District I. Henry Mayer and Bill Whisnant are seeking the position, both having the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bulleting the second floor of GM. Girls are to check dorm bullet charged with a liberal label; John Mitchener and Bill Dieter Mahncke will lead a Cheerleader Al Roper has

Roper, a junior from Nor-

Ricks Removed

nounced that the Board will remove Ricks' name from all ballots because he failed to have a

C average and was thus auto-

"The write - in candidate

Current Cheerleaders

Spokesman Leon Barber an-

it is liberal in action, for a Stu- Phillips are candidates in MJD current affairs discussion for the The deadline for applications 6:30 in connection with the "Y" dent Government which depends II. and Whitney Durand and YM-YWCA UN Education Com- for Men's Orientation Counsel- Dorothea Dix Hospital Commiton yesterday's projects will Mields Devere are seeking the mittee at 4:30 p.m. today, 2nd ors is this Wednesday. Applicate service project. His subject dent Government has given ment Service for Wednesday trains young girls in the art of Committee grew out of an idea Ackland Art Museum will be are Medical Proceurement love in addition to her many by David Grigg and Sevier. closed for repairs today, but will Branch of Third Army Head- other tasks, made brief stops in quarters; Rural Electrification Y-Court and the Library before sistently worked hard at his Agency; General Mills and appearing in front of GM with various positions in Student Aetna Life Insurance. For Silent Sam. Walter Dellinger are seeking re- of Duke Divinity School will Thursday they are U.S. Dept. Legislature committee.

Revitalizing the Carolina Forum is another innovation in the campaign. Hank Patterson,

Revitalizing the Carolina Forum is another innovation in the campaign. Hank Patterson,

Revitalizing the Carolina Inn at population in the campaign. Hank Patterson, in the campaign. Hank Patterson, in the campaign of Duke Divinity School will of Agriculture, Commodity Stabilization Service; Travelers Induction, slated for Memorial bilization Service; Reuben H. Donnelly; Hall at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, are available for $1 at the campaign. Hank Patterson, and Civil Service Commission. ploring Manuscripts in St. Cath- and Civil Service Commission. urday, are available for $1 at new General are ample proofs

> Today is the first day of interviews for Women Orientation door. Counselors. The interviews will be conducted from 2-6 p.m. on the second floor of GM. Girls have the leads in the musical experience in Student Governtheir times. Interviews will continue until Thursday.

Roper Announces Write-In

Campaign For Cheerleader

ROPER ... Write-In

Cites Experience

tensive campaign."

stated, "but have decided to run this year, I feel that I have the Phillips Hall district.

Candidates Waging Energetic Campaign

BOB SEVIER ... UP Candidate

'Celestina' Seen Around Campus

"Celestina," the lusty Spanish tavern-keeper and heroine Party. An example of Sevier's ted in various campus settings, methods to effect their solution it was reported yesterday.

Job interviews at the Place- The gypsy matchmaker, who Campus - wide Entertainment the GM Information Desk. They that the claims to his lack of may also be purchased at the work are invalid.

Ticket Sales

Susie Cordon, Lyla-Gaye Van Valkenburg and Stark Sutton

Dr. David Abse, psychiatrist

at North Carolina Memorial Hospital, will speak tonight at tions are to be turned in to the will be "Social Change and them invaluable insight into in his general discussion of iminformation desk at GM. Inter- Mental Health" and will be feasible and practical solutions portant campus issues, stated Applicants for Freshmen views for the positions start presented in the upstairs dining of existing problems. Their that in his opinion, "the IFC has room of Lenoir Hall.

eral other hopefuls.

circles, "Rocket" has not commented upon the drive to make him UNC's number one yellboy.

However, a concentrated poster drive has pushed the math

Manager Speaks

wizard into contention.

University Party Chair-treasurer. man Dennis Rash yesterday called attention to the UP's "positive" campaign.

belittled their opponents in p.m. today. unnecessary mud-slinging attempts," said Rash. Student Party accusations that men, who vote in Winston. imagination and experience.

Full Statement

They have crossed the campus Housing Office. door-to-door believing that a personal campaign is the best method to insure the voters a to present identification before letic Association (WAA) fair appraisal of the candidates. being allowed to vote, election "The University Party candidates have consistently taken the positive approach in their campaign promises. They have ander announced that tabula- fair, took on added interest durnot belittled their opponents in tions will begin shortly after ing the waning days of the cammud-slinging attempts. Imagination Question

"Bob Sevier, the current Vice-President of the Student Body, does not lack imagination as has been implied by the Student is the fact that the origin of the of the famed American

"Tony Harrington has con-Government regardless of his shortly.

Not Lacking

"Lynda Richert does not lack Chest demonstrate her interest and experience.

"These candidates have not promised unreasonable projects. Their experience in Stuand worthwhile proposals.

Endorsement Cited

"The soundness and feasinered the support of numerous rush anyone for a year. student leaders from all areas of the campus. An example of this support is the endorsed petition experience needed for the po- IDC, IFC, Student Government, put on social, not rush, probasition and would greatly appre- and publications officers. The ciate any support which might petition seems indicative of supbe given me," Roper concluded. port not only for the individual members to drop below a C Roper's candidacy appears to but for the type of program ad- average." be the only serious bid for the vocated by Sevier.

position, although campus jokesters have been promoting sevprogram can best be implein the hands of the Interfraterin the ha mented by a smooth-working and unified group of officers. With this distribution would be better for Student point he concurred with present Editor Jonathan Yardley. "Rocket" Ralph Reid, junior physics major from Charlotte, has been booosted for the position by the control of the control tion by a number of prominent is your best assurance of a forceful and experienced Stu-dent and experienced Stu-dent Government.

On the controversial integra-junior class) has proven, said that he was king.

King.

King differed somewhat from dent Government. A newcomer to athletic dent Government.

Infirmary

Campaign Manager Jim Stevenson, Barbara Ellen Bag- the Student Government should amendment did." Adams declared that "Ralph's gett, Louise Katherine Ingram, be put on a straight ticket, so The unopposed candidate statinterest in athletics and his Craig Porter Moore, John Lee that students would have to ed that academic standards at member of the Freshman Hon-|due to the absence of other can-|demonstrated ability for arous-|Fossaman, Milton Lee Garrison, vote for both or neither. ors Program, Roper served on didates. Because of this rela- ing a crowd make him a prime Douglas Cole Reed, Joseph "Too many problems can put quality above growth as a the students new ideas, new studio courses in Ackland Art year. He is a pre-med English not been able to conduct an ex- Running on a platform of "A Clarke William Charles Good- ality or party line clash in the will come necessarily, quality megaphone in every hand; song man, Mary Louise Wideman, top two student government must be stressed now. sheets on every seat," Reid is Sara Louise Reese, Teddy Ray posts . . ." liberalism. We ask your sup- interested students are asked to in favor of George Ricks," Roper "Having worked on the squad expected to run well in the Spivey and Donald Walton King, a junior from Hickory, ments is a much needed Crawley.

Harriss, Sevier Vie For No. One

By HENRY MAYER

The student body votes today for its 1961-62 student government officers, climaxing a month of campaigning described by most observers as "lethargic."

Bill Harriss (SP) and Bob Sevier (UP) will square off against each other in the presidential race, while Tony Harrington (UP) and Hank Patterson (SP) are vying for the vice-presidential position.

Lynda Richert (UP) and Mary Townsend (SP) are running for secretary, with Pete Thompson having the endorsement of both parties for Ballot From 10-5 P. M. Balloting for the "Big 4" of- the following afternoon.

fices as well as the usual raft

District I will cast ballots at editors. Rash's full statement follows: either the Naval Armory or the Bob Bilbro is unopposed for "Throughout the past few Carolina Inn; Town Men's II, Carolina Athletic Council chairweeks, the University Party Scuttlebutt; Town Men's III, man, and Ray Farris is the candidates have waged a vigor- Gerrard Hall; Town Men's IV, double-endorsed candidate for ous and energetic campaign. Gerrard Hall or the Victory senior class president.

ID Cards Needed

Each student will be required president of the Women's Ath-the polls close. This is a depar- paign when unopposed canditure from last year's procedure, date George Ricks was declared under which ballots were sorted ineligible.

Concert Postponed The Byron Janis concert, scheduled for this evening in Memorial Hall, has been postponed due to the illness

Chapel Hill Concert Series officials have announced that Janis' appearance here will be rescheduled for late April, with details to be announced on Election Night, although actual counting did not begin until Unopposed Candidates oositive" campaign.

One distinguishing feature of the election campaign has been to seats will take place from 10-5 the unusually large number of Dormitory residents will vote unchallenged candidates. The in their respective dorms, ex- leadership of both campus pub-Rash then stated facts which cept for Kenan women, who lications has been uncontested: purportedly refuted supposed will vote in McIver, and Connor Wayne King being the sole aspirant for DTH editor, and UP candidates did not have Town women will vote at Jerry Tognoli and Dick Repucci, Gerrard Hall. Men in Town unopposed co-picks for Yack

Millie Blanton (SP) and Kay Mixon (UP) are candidates for Cheerleader Contest The race for head cheerleader. Board Chairman Dave Alex- originally an open-and-shut af-

> Campus humorists presented a raft of candidates, and posters began appearing about for several write-in selections. Cheerleader Al Roper, however, became a serious contender for the position late Sunday night after Ricks' withdrawal had been confirmed "Rocket" Ralph Reid, newcomer to political circles, is also being touted for the cheerleading spot. Members of the Junior Class are conducting an extensive "get out the vote campaign" in an effort to establish record participation in student government activity.

DTH Hopeful Talks On Campus Issues

Compulsory deferred rush levied by the administration is "not in line with the concepts of self-government," said unopposed Daily Tar Heel editor candidate Wayne King in an interview yesterday.

The independent candidate, ideas are not utopian but sound not fulfilled its responsibility." KiKng talked about the "80 per cent rule," whereby any fraternity which fails to have 80 per cent of its members with bility of the University Party C averages, is put on rush procandidates' programs have gar- bation — the fraternity can't "Rush probation for violators of the '80 per cent rule' is too of Bob Sevier by prominent strict. Fraternities should be tion, because it is too great a social emphasis which causes slow approach. For practical Editor Yardley's stand on the reasons integration cannot be honor system. pushed along too fast."

which he will exploit further in King proposed "streamlining" The following students were the next year. "The posts of the student judiciary system, in the infirmary Monday Diane President and Vice-President of "as the recent constitutional

Herman Walden, Charles ensue from having a person-goal of the University. "Growth now serving as DTH Associate change," he concluded.

WAYNE KING

Deferred rush should be left Editor, also said that the stuin the hands of the Interfrater- dent body Secretary should be

"Students can function under King had several suggestions the honor system, provided sevin the field of campus elections, eral modifications are made."

"Raising entrance require-