Fraternities, Dorms Split Almost Equal

Following the current national trend - complete change-the Student Party swept into the top three student government positions Tuesday night.

In the most important contest of the evening, Bill Harriss of the SP took a 136-vote victory over UP's Bob Sevier for the Presidency. Harriss got his margin of victory in Cobb dorm, where he captured 226 votes, against 60 for Sevier. The remainder of the duel was

Brother Gardner Here This Evening

By Bob McCall

Tonight is the night, "dear hearts." All may "rejoice," for "Brother" Dave Gardnerarmed with his songs, antics, and Dixieland humor-is scheduled to appear in Woollen Gym at 7:30.

The smooth-talking Southern comedian will appear with the Carolina Gentlemen in a two-hour program to be given tonight under the sponsorship of the senior class, the sophomore cabinet and the Campus

All proceeds will go to the latter and for the senior class school gift.

"Brother" Gardner, who "beats about the bush or casually shoots the breeze about the great ethical problems of man," is the type of comedian who "flashes a huge smile, opens his big blue eyes, looks at you with this impossibly funny face, and says 'I stir up snakes.'"

'Brother' Dave Gardner
