An Addition Begins Rising

A MEMBER OF THE SMALLER SET takes a peek through the fence at initial construction on the foreign languages building. This diminutive sidewalk superintendent was later joined by about half the U.N.C. campus.

Work Gets Started On New Building

Y-Court and the library have steadily been losing their popularity recently to two huge, yellow bulldozers grubbing out dirt for the $750,000 William M. Dey Foreign Languages building.

The new three-story, L-shaped building will house the Romance and the Germanic language departments. An air-conditioned, electronic language lab will tentatively have facilities for 125 students at one time.

Provisions for a motion picture room, closed-circuit television, a micro-film room and special rooms for advanced graduate work have also been made.

Located between Memorial

Library and Venable Hall, the building will match the "cotton-factory Georgian architecture" (as one history professor calls it) of other campus buildings.

Faculty Elevator

A faculty elevator will be included in the building which will face Bingham Hall. The leg of the L will be toward Gardner Hall.

The building is to be named for the late Dr. William M. Dey, the first chairman of the Department of Romance Languages at Carolina. He was on the University staff from 1903 to 1950.

Contract for construction was awarded to the Rea Construction Company of Charlotte, low bidder for the job.

Rumors Say Soviets Have First Spaceman; Kremlin Is Mum On 'Unofficial' Report

WOULD MEAN RUSSIAN VICTORY

Moscow Radio News Ignores Statement

MOSCOW (UPI) — Usually reliable but unofficial sources said Monday night Russia may have launched a man into space for the first time and brought him back alive.

A manned Russian space flight would give the Soviet Union a victory in the space race with the United States and would be a major breakthrough in space exploration.

Radio and TV personnel were ordered on 24-hour alert for an important announcement, and scientists told friends to stand by for earth-shaking news. But there was no official confirmation or denial of the man in space report.

The main Moscow radio news bulletin Monday night made no mention of the report. It was believed any announcement might be delayed until at least Tuesday.

As the report spread, more and more Russians believed it. These signs tended to lend substance to it.

—Spaceship IV, weighing five tons, was orbited and brought back safely with the dog "Blackie" aboard alive and well last March 9.

—Spaceship V, also weighing five tons, orbited the earth once with the dog "Starlet" aboard on March 25 and was brought safely back to a pre-designated target in Russia.

—Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev said last month "the time is not far off" when the first Russian will be sent into space.

One report, without any confirmation, was that a Russian astronaut had been brought back from space and now was undergoing examination by physicians.

All of the dogs brought back alive showed no ill effects, scientists have stated.

Moscow newsmen began what amounted to a Cape Canaveral-style "birdwatch." Russian camera and TV crews arrived at the central telegraph office where foreign correspondents file their dispatches. There was speculation the crews were there to record reaction as a major story broke.

The camera and TV men left an hour later as abruptly as they came. But reports persisted that the Soviets had, indeed, achieved a manned flight into space and brought their astronaut back to earth.

Khrushchev was not in Moscow. He last was reported on vacation at the Black Sea resort of Pitsunde, near Sochi, in the Caucasus.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

LEICESTER, England (UPI) —Horace Harris pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly and the judge fined him 10 shillings $1.40. "But I haven't 10 shillings," said Harris, "and in any case, I was celebrating my birthday."

"In that case," said the judge, "fine five shillings 70 cents. Happy Birthday."

SG APPLICANTS

President Bill Harris asked today that applicants for committee positions apply for at least three committees to prevent crowding and allow all positions to be filled.

WORLD NEWS BRIEFS

Fidel Castro

By United Press International

ANTI-CASTRO TROOPS GAIN

HAVANA — Anti-Castro rebels in the Escambray Mountains were reported Monday to have inflicted numerous casualties on government forces in a raid on a militia rest camp.

The attack was carried out in the Sancti Spiritus region where government leaders last month claimed to have smashed the anti-Castro opposition. Meager reports which could not be confirmed officially because of government censorship on military operations said the guerilla forces were led by Maj. Osvaldo Ramirez.

According to the reports, Ramirez raiders smashed into the civilian militia rest camp with guns blazing and retired quickly and quietly as they had arrived.

HOLMES MEETS TROUBLE IN SENATE

WASHINGTON — Veteran diplomat Julius C. Holmes, President Kennedy's choice for ambassador to Iran, ran into stiff Senate questioning Monday about his quick profits in surplus tanker deals more than a decade ago.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., who led the interrogation at a Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearing, said a tanker obtained by a firm in which Holmes was a partner later turned up hauling high-octane gas to Russia and Red China just before the Korean War.

Holmes denied any responsibility for the company, to which his firm sold the tanker and two others for an indicated 450 per cent profit. He insisted he never had done anything illegal in the tanker deals and replied repeatedly that he could not recall details.

PHOUMA INVITED TO U. S.

WASHINGTON — Laotian neutralist leader Prince Souvanna Phouma has been invited to visit Washington about April 18, the State Department announced today. He is expected to meet personally with President Kennedy.

A spokesman said the exact date of Souvanna's trip has not been set, nor has there been any official confirmation here that the prince has accepted.

Press officer Lincoln White said the invitation was extended through U. S. Ambassador James Gavin in Paris. Souvanna has been on a tour of European capitals.

STORMS CHILL NORTHEAST

The latest in a series of bitter spring storms chilled the Northeast Monday with tree-topping winds and snows up to 15 inches deep.

A storm system which had plastered the midlands with weekend snow and sleet was dying in western Pennsylvania, where 10 inches of snow was measured at Bedford. Another storm was gaining strength off the New Jersey coast.

Boonville, located in the New York Adirondacks, reported 15 inches of new snow. Seven to eight inches of snow were common in mountain valley regions. The two inches of fresh snow at Worcester, Mass., brought the season's total to a record of nearly 100 inches.

MACMILLAN IN CANADA

OTTAWA — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan opened two days of informal talks with Prime Minister John Diefenbaker Monday with a report on his Washington meeting with President Kennedy.

The two commonwealth leaders began closed-door discussions in Diefenbaker's Parliament Hill office. A small group of officials, but no other ministers, were on hand.

WILL ASSUME U.N.C. REIGN

'King' Coming To Carolina

"Bishop" Homer A. Tomlinson has informed U.N.C. that he will appear here next Friday, April 14, to crown himself "King of the University of North Carolina." Tomlinson did not disclose the source of his right to this title.

Although the Daily Tar Heel has not yet contacted President Friday or Chancellor Aycock on the matter, informed sources say that the new "King" is not expected to assume any administrative duties at this time.

Tomlinson will bring the same portable throne, robe, crown, and 4' by 6' banner of peace which he has used in his service of self-coronation at over 30 universities.

World Constituity

A news release sent to the DTH by King Tomlinson himself said that his Church of God now has a world constituency of 150 million. The Church of God was founded by his late father, Bishop A. J. Tomlinson, one June 13, 1903 in North Carolina.

Although the Church's World Headquarters are now located in Queens Village, N. Y., Tomlinson has not forsaken North Carolina. In 1940 he returned to Murphey, the original site of the church company, and erected the Ten Commandments in 7-foot letters.

Favorites of Youth

In addition to crowning himself king of many colleges, Tomlinson has appealed to youth in other manners. His news release states that in his disappointment at his recent stunning defeat for the U.S. presidency at the hands of those over twenty who could vote, "he has turned to the Youth of America, in the pattern of Moses. All twenty and over in Moses' day refused to go to the Promised Land, and he turned to those under twenty."

Would Be King

The Bishop did not mention a Promised Land of his own, but it is assumed that such a place would include himself as king.

King of World

Bishop Homer A. Tomlinson arrives at World King at Quito, Ecuador. 3,000 University of Quito students formed a parade from the airport; 20,000 were assembled for the "coronation" in Public Square. 600 attended his "Coronation" in Red Square, Moscow, as he preached to them in Russian.

An article in the "Church of God," periodical of his church, stated April 1 that "Bishop Tomlinson conducted a vigorous campaign to be elected U.S. President in 1960, with extended speaking trips reaching all fifty states, and saying that his election would be a miracle, such as brought Daniel to the Presidency in Babylon.

He had said, a year before the election day, that the miracle might be that the candidates of the two parties should be so close as to make him eligible for election by the House of Representatives." Tomlinson is editor of the periodical in which this unfulfilled statement appeared.

In the same issue of this "Church of God" periodical, Tomlinson proclaimed Peace on Earth. He is expected to proclaim Peace on the University of North Carolina.

SHE'S WOMAN ENOUGH
HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Harold Rawlings, 45, got into an argument with Catherine R. Nichols, 38, at her home early Saturday.

They argued about whether she stayed up too late at night. One thing led to another, and she threatened to stab Nichols. "You're not man enough," he said.

"No, but I'm woman enough," she retorted. Rawlings was taken to a hospital a short time later with a paring knife wound in the stomach.

HEAVY HAUL
MARION, Ind. (UPI)—Police at Marion and Jasper, Ind., have started an investigation into the baffling case of the missing manhole covers. Twenty-two of them have disappeared in recent weeks.

Bryan, who received his Ph.D. degree from Yale, has done post-graduate work at Princeton University. The author of several articles on Africa, he has participated in the European Human Relations Seminar. In 1959, he engaged in a three-month study tour of Africa under the U.S.-African Leadership Exchange Program. The same year he was selected by the Rockefeller Fund to teach under its sponsorship at Trinity College in Nigeria.
