

GENERALLY FAIR

Somewhat warmer.

The Daily Tar Heel

Wagman And
The Alumni
See Editorials, Page Two.

VOLUME LXIX, No. 152

Complete (UPI) Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 1961

Offices in Graham Memorial

Four Pages This Issue

MEMBER OF PEACE CORPS COUNCIL

Yale Man Speaks On Corps

Rev. William Sloane Coffin

Chaplain of Yale University

The Rev. William Sloane Coffin, Chaplain of Yale University and a member of the National Advisory Council of the Peace Corps will speak tomorrow night at 8 in Howell Hall.

During World War II the Rev. Coffin served under Gen. Eisenhower as an infantry officer and later as a liaison officer with the French Army. After the war he served for two years as liaison officer with the Russian Army.

During the Korean War he served abroad with the Central Intelligence Agency.

Recently he was director of Operation Crossroads Africa in Guinea. This operation has a purpose similar to that of the Peace Corps. It was used as the basis for a recent nationwide television feature to acquaint the American public with the potentialities of the Peace Corps.

The Rev. Coffin received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Yale in 1949 and his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Yale Divinity School in 1956.

While a divinity student at Yale he was Assistant Chaplain and also served as minister to Presbyterian students. In 1956-57 he was chaplain of Phillips Academy (Andover, Mass.), and in 1957-58 was chaplain at Williams College.

"American Failures and Peace Corps Opportunities in Africa," will be the topic of the Rev. Coffin's speech.

It is the first of two speeches. The second will be by Mrs. Frances Humphrey Howard, sister of Senator Hubert Humphrey, on Wednesday, May 10.

Musical Programs Slated Here Today

Band To Present Lawn Concert; Senior Set For Violin Recital

Two musical programs will be staged at Carolina this afternoon, when a junior presents a violin recital and the UNC Concert Band gives its annual Lawn Concert.

William Martin of Charlotte, a student of Dr. Edgar Alden in the Department of Music, will present his recital at 3 p.m. today in Hill Hall.

Before coming to UNC, he studied for one year at Indiana University. Currently, Martin serves as choir director of the University Baptist Church and plays viola in the UNC Symphony.

'Dinner At Eight' Tonight

The UNC-Chapel Hill Film Society will present the film "Dinner at Eight" tonight in Carroll Hall at 8.

Admission to the showing will be available to people who wish to join the Society at the door. Adapted from the popular George S. Kaufman-Edna Ferber play by Ogden Stewart and Herman Mankiewicz, the film features such stars as Lionel Barrymore, Jean Harlow, Lee Tracy, Billie Burke, Jean Hersholt, and Marie Dressler.

"Dinner at Eight" was one of the most successful box office attractions of the 1930's.

Membership in the Film Society is also available at the YW-YMCA office at $2.

The Society's schedule of upcoming attractions includes: "Father Panchali," "The Seven Samurai," and a Chaplin program.

Harriss Corrects Speech Statement At SP Meeting

On Thursday, April 27, the DTH carried a story on the first page under the heading "Harriss Tells SP Students Own Govt."

In the story I was misquoted, and I would like to submit the corrections. The article stated that I said "The University Party in the past two terms has let the efficiency and the effectiveness of student government slip." I did not make this statement.

I said that it was time for students to re-evaluate their student government and to take action accordingly. Before positive action should be taken each student in the student government should make it his duty to find out all facts concerning the problem, so as to make intelligent decisions which will lead to a proper progressive course of action.

We are now in the process of evaluating each executive committee to see that it is accomplishing its function, taking an inventory of all student government property, and investigating the finances of all organizations receiving student government funds.

Bill Harriss, Student Body President

Infirmary

Those in the Infirmary yesterday included: John Hammett, Bobby Cox, Robert Haskell, Robert White, Harold Wilson, Christopher Jones, John O'Bannon, Max Drake, John DeVogt, Michel Wahva, James Ward.

CRANES, TRUCKS and workmen provide entertainment for lethargic students. The construction of the new foreign language building has become a continuous 9 to 5 floor show for cowardly Chem majors and lazy Econ boys. In the background is the Library, exuding unspoken intellectual remonstrance at students who waste their time watching such activity.

WORLD NEWS BRIEFS

By United Press International

Gen. De Gaulle

Red Rebels Declare Laotian Victory

LUANG PRABANG, Laos—Communist Pathet Lao rebels Saturday declared themselves victors in the Laotian war and demanded that the pro-Western government come to them "within 48 hours" to sue for a cease fire.

The Western Allies in urgent conferences were considering military intervention to save the Indochinese kingdom from total Red conquest. U.S. Roving Ambassador W. Averell Harriman arrived in Vientiane, Laos, for an on-the-spot assessment.

The Pathet Lao, continuing artillery barrages in defiance of international appeals for a cease fire, spurned a government effort to hold a cease fire parley on the jungle battlefield.

Tass Says Ceasefire Hopes 'Dashed'

MOSCOW—The official Soviet Tass news agency said Saturday that hopes for an early cease fire in Laos "have been dashed."

Tass said that Laotian neutralist leader Prince Souvanna Phouma had set a 48-hour time limit for representatives of the pro-Western Vientiane government to go to Xieng Khouang in Red-held territory for cease fire talks.

Nazi May Not Die This Year, If Guilty

JERUSALEM—Israeli legal sources predicted Saturday that Adolf Eichmann will not hang this year—even if he is convicted of murdering 6 million Jews.

Whatever the verdict of the Israeli court, the sources said, it probably will not be carried out before at least nine months.

Cooper's Condition Unchanged

LOS ANGELES—Veteran actor Gary Cooper's condition was unchanged today, the star's doctors reported.

The star, reported to be critically ill with cancer, has received thousands of "get-well-soon" messages in recent days at his Bel-Air home in the western part of the city.

Among his well wishers have been President Kennedy and Queen Elizabeth II.

De Gaulle Returns To Peace-Making

PARIS—President Charles de Gaulle, convinced he has broken the back of a far-flung military plot against his regime, turned Saturday to the task of making peace with the Moslem rebels of Algeria.

The military plot against De Gaulle was far greater than had been suspected. More than 2,000 persons have been arrested in France in the army, the police and the civil service and another 650 in Algeria with more arrests expected.

Coach Gives Last Of 1961 Lectures

Frank McGuire, UNC's controversial head basketball coach, will speak to the University community Monday night at 8 in Memorial Hall. McGuire's speech will be the final address of this year's Last Lecture Series.

The title and exact content of McGuire's lecture have not been disclosed. His address probably will follow the general theme of the Lecture Series. Each speaker, usually a faculty member, is expected to say those things he according to Al Cronenberg, UNC would like most to leave with American college students if he knew he were going to die the next day.

McGuire came to the University as head basketball coach in 1952. He had coached 15 years previously at St. John's University and at Xavier High School, both in New York City.

McGuire immediately proceeded to put UNC on the basketball map. In 1957 the North Carolina team was undefeated in 32 games, and won the NCAA Championship. For such an outstanding season McGuire was named "Coach of the Year" by many organizations.

In McGuire's nine seasons at UNC the Tar Heels have a total of 164 victories against only 58 losses.

Nation-Wide Fame

McGuire has received nationwide recognition for his efforts to improve crowd sportsmanship at games.

McGuire is famed as a speaker and basketball lecturer, and recently he has distinguished himself as an author. His two books on coaching, "Offensive Basketball" and "Defensive Basketball," have been widely acclaimed.

McGuire has a newly-built home in Chapel Hill where he lives with his wife, a son and two daughters.

Star Still Not Located Moe's Failure To Report Infraction Of Honor Code Becomes Official Charge

If Schedule Continues O.K.
1st U.S. Astronaut Launched Tuesday

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—An astronaut has been chosen to make America's first manned rocket flight into space next week, it was learned Saturday.

Scientists in the nation's $500-million Project Mercury man-into-space picked their man from a "select list" of three astronauts who have undergone special training for the last three months.

Identity of the No. 1 astronaut remained a secret. But reliable sources reported it was either Navy Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard or Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. and that Shepard was considered more likely.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said only that "no announcement has been made as to selection."

Two men were chosen from the trio of candidates—one as the "prime" astronaut and the other as his "back-up," to step in at the last minute in case of a change in plans.

First Step
At stake was America's first step toward manned conquest of space. This will be a 16-minute ride inside a 1½-ton Mercury capsule aboard a Redstone rocket. It is scheduled to be launched from Cape Canaveral Tuesday morning.

For the U.S. spacemen, this will be only a peek through the doorway of space. He will soar to an altitude of about 115 miles, high enough to view the Gulf of Mexico, the Florida peninsula, Caribbean islands and perhaps as far north as the Carolinas.

Not Orbital Trip
It will not be and was not intended to be a sweeping orbital trip like the global swing

$2,000 Bribe Refused

When Doug Moe faces the Men's Honor Council, the charge against him will be "failure to report an infraction of the honor code," according to Al Cronenberg, UNC attorney general.

Moe still had not been located by the attorney general's staff late yesterday afternoon. He is reportedly in Chicago to talk contract with officials of the Chicago Majors.

George Campbell, chairman of the men's honor council, declined to comment on the nature of the charges against Moe.

"Good Friends"
Moe, a senior from Brooklyn, N. Y., is a "good friend" of Lou Brown, who was implicated as a contact man in the college basketball scandals.

"The University's concern is that no one in authority received reports from Moe of any fix attempt," said Chancellor William Aycock.

Brown, former Carolina student and basketball player, was named this week as a co-conspirator in attempts to bribe college basketball players, in an investigation by New York authorities.

Brown is said to have contacted and was "most successful at St. Joseph's and LaSalle in setting up players" for Aaron Wagman, the prime mover in the latest eruption of the fix scandal.

Reliable sources have indicated that Moe was offered up to $2,000 to "shave points" (hold down his scoring) for a game. The particular game or games were not identified.

"Wagman gave $75 to Moe as a softening-up gift and Moe never reported this," said New York District Attorney Frank Hogan according to a recent Charlotte Observer article.

Code Violation
The failure to report the $75 gift would not be an honor council violation, according to Student Government sources. However, if Moe had knowledge that Brown was, as alleged, a middle-man for Wagman, it would be a violation.

Neither Moe nor Brown has been accused of accepting bribes to influence the outcome of any UNC game.

District Attorney Hogan said that Brown had attempted to lure some of his teammates into the conspiracy but was apparently completely unsuccessful.

MIKE HALL examines his work of "art" which has been entered in the Westminster Festival of Art today through Wednesday at the Presbyterian Student Center. The public can view this and other works in the fields of painting, sculpture and photography every day of the Festival from 2 to 5 p.m.

Lawyer To Speak On Campus Monday

State Senator Robert L. Humber, international lawyer and founder of the Movement for World Federation, will deliver an address in observance of the nationally celebrated Law Day, on Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the courtroom of Manning Hall.

Humber, a native of Greenville, attended Wake Forest, where he received the B.A., LL.B., and LL.D. degrees in 1918, 1921, and 1949 respectively. He received the M.A. degree from Harvard University in 1926.

World Federation
He is internationally recognized as the founder of the Movement for World Federation, founded at Davis Island in December, 1940.

Humber was vice president of the United World Federalists from 1947-1950. He was awarded the World Government News medal for the most outstanding service by an individual to World Federation in 1948.

In the same year, he was awarded the American War Dads Prize for the greatest single contribution toward world peace.

Humber's talk is being sponsored by the University's Law Students Association.

Summer Positions Are Open

Interviews for summer school positions will begin Monday in the Student Government offices on second floor Graham Memorial.

Student Body President Bill Harriss also announced the top two summer school Student Government appointments: Hank Patterson (regular Vice-President) as Acting President; and Pete Thompson (regular Treasurer) as Acting Secretary-Treasurer.

There is no vice-president during the summer.

Summer positions open include:
Summer school government board—the top legislative body. (7 members)

Women's and Men's Councils. (Chairmen and six members per council)

Chairman of Summer School Activities Council, which handles social activity for the summer with a budget of approximately $800.

Interested students may sign up on lists placed on the bulletin board outside the student government office.