Lemery's Freshmen Take On Fort Bragg In Road Battle

Coach Art Lemery's freshman soccer team will try for its third win of the season today when it travels to Fort Bragg to take on the tough G.I. team. The Braggmen defeated the UNC varsity by 3-2 in a pre-season practice game. The Tar Babies, who defeated Virginia by 4-1 here Tuesday, now have a 3-2 record on the season. Coach Lemery expressed satisfaction over his team's ability to hold on to their 2-0 half time lead in the win, because they had lost two games in the late minutes.

Kepner Kicks Goal To Win For Heels

By CURRY KIRKPATRICK
The North Carolina soccer team, displaying a sharp defense while capitalizing on its only scoring opportunities, eked out its fourth straight victory yesterday by downing the University of Virginia in a 2-1 thriller at Charlottesville.

Kingman Brown, the Tar Heels' swift outside right, opened the scoring for Carolina with 7 minutes left in the first half. Just 2 minutes later, Jamie Irvine, who was a thorn in the side of the Tar Heels all day with his tricky line play, countered with Virginia's only score of the game.

With one minute remaining in the third period and the score knotted at one apiece, Bob Kepner, climaxing his best effort of the season, sewed it up for the Tar Heels with a drive from 12 yards out.

Coach Marvin Allen's booters, relying mainly on their fine backfield crew of Dick Bordogna, John Kenrick and Bill Snyder, played strictly defense in the final quarter to protect their slim lead.

Larry Steele, playing with a painfully bruised thigh, was again outstanding in the Carolina nets, turning back 25 Cavalier shots. His counterpart from Virginia, Harry Benham, was credited with 20 saves.

League's Harriers Runt At University Of Va. Monday

By ED DUPREE
UNC, Duke, and Maryland—the ACC's "Big Three" in cross country—will dominate the field of runners in the conference championship meet next Monday at the University of Virginia.

The top ten finishers in the finals could all come from the powerful trio which has romped over the other five ACC members at will during the regular season. The Tar Heels, Blue Devils, and Terps each lost only one conference dual meet this fall and the outcome in the championship race could well be the closest the ACC has ever had.

The harriers who figure to place in or near the top ten are Carolina's Rett Everett, Gerry Stuver, and Carmine Lunetta; Duke's Jerry Nourse, Dave Blumfeldt, Lloyd Brinson, and Frank Campbell; and Maryland's John Garten, Guy Harper, and Marty Wells. Others to watch for are Carolina's sophomore Charlie Little, Ed Ledford of Wake Forest, and Jim Moorhead of Clemson, the number eight man in the 1960 meet.

UNC coach Dale Ranson rates Duke's Nourse the odds-on favorite on the basis of his two first place wins in meets against Carolina plus a victory in Duke's easy win over Maryland early in the season. "However", Ranson adds, "team-wise and individually we plan to be at our peak and have our top performance of the season."

"I'm sure that our team is in real good shape and I'm confident that we're ready for our best performance yet. If we get the caliber of performance that the boys are capable of turning in, we should successfully defend our ACC title."

In addition to his top four, the baron of ACC cross-country coaches has seven men from which to determine his eight entrants in the race. These seven are Mike Folk, number four in the conference last year as a sophomore, Bob Bennett, Scott Brent, Jim Hodges, Lou Sullivan, Dave Brunson, and Charlie Tromba.

Only Frank Colavita and Dick Creditor of Maryland are missing from last year's top ten. The top six finishers—Everett, Stuver, Garten, Folk, Wells, and Lunetta along with Moorhead and Campbell are back for the 1961 race. In addition, Nourse, the co-champion in 1959 with teammate Cary Weisiger, is back to strengthen the field. Nourse missed the 1960 season because of military duty. The unbeaten Duke senior has rolled through the present season in superb fashion and seems ready to stake his claim for the top spot he shared two years ago.

The battle for team honors will steal the show at Charlottesville. Each of the "Big Three" will be seeking revenge for a loss to another member of the elite group. Carolina's lone loss was 35-34 to Maryland on a rainy day fit for only umbrellas and ducks. This soggy meet was a good example of the conference's improvement since last year's finals. Carmine Lunetta, the sixth man in the finals last year, finished only seventh in the dual meet with the always potent Terps. All six of the men who finished ahead of Lunetta at Maryland several weeks ago bettered his sixth place time in the 1960 finals on the same course—in the rain yet!

The Marylanders will be hoping to avenge their loss to Duke—in a meet that wasn't even close and the Blue Devils would like nothing better than to take the measure of Carolina's blue-clad harriers.

Alexander Grabs Dorm Title

By John Montague

The Alexander Playboys wrapped up the 1961 Dormitory Tag Football Championship Wednesday afternoon by soundly whipping Joyner, 20-0.

Bobby Cornwell scored a touchdown in each half to pace the Playboys potent offense. Pete McKinnell went over for the other TD and Irvin Williamson and Cornwell made the extra points.

The Playboys thus completed successfully their march through the dorm playoffs, which included wins over Old East, Aycock and Grimes. The Alexander team chalked up a 3-0 record during the regular season play, giving the champions an overall 7-0 mark.

Wednesday was a big day for the Phi Delt. The White team won its division's championship, ripping the Delta Sig Rogue 18-8. Meanwhile, the Phi Delt's Blue team was scoring touchdowns right and left, in the process of a 50-6 shellacking of Sigma Nu in the Blue Division semi-finals.

The Phi Delt White team pulled out of an 8-6 deficit on Calvin Smith's TD to win the White championship. Dick Hendrickson scored the first touchdown with Dick Jones adding the insurance tally.

John Frye was responsible for all of the Rogues' eight points. He scored a touchdown and received credit for a safety, both coming in the first half.
