

Respass Hits 26, Neary 24 As Tar Babies Rip Deaclets

By CURRY KIRKPATRICK
DTH Asst. Sports Editor

UNC's freshman basketball team snapped a two-game losing streak yesterday afternoon in forging to their eleventh win of the season—an 83-70 verdict over the Wake Forest yearlings.

For Coach Ken Rosemond's frosh cakers, the win was the first since star performer Billy Cunningham's freshman eligibility terminated.

The Wake Deaclets, who were soundly trounced 79-58 by Carolina earlier in the season at Winston-Salem, took the early lead in this one and when 6-5 Al Lozier hit a jumper with 12:20 to go in the half, the Tar Babies found themselves down by seven, 19-12. Rosemond called time out and when play resumed, Carolina seemed to find the shooting range. Ray Respass, Jay Neary and Pud Hassell hit consecutive jump shots to cut the Wake lead to one and from then on it was nip and tuck to the end of the period.

Neary, the 6-2 speedster from Cambria Heights, N. Y., put on a one-man show in the first half to keep the Tar Babies in the game. The jump-shooting ace, who leads the frosh season scoring, netted 18 of his 24 points in the opening period to pace Carolina to a 42-39 halftime lead.

Herring Begins To Click

At the outset of the second half, Richard Herring, Wake's 6-5 center who had been held to just eight points in the first half, and 6-1 guard John Anderson began to click from the outside. The two matched Carolina basket for basket until the count reached 55 apiece with 19:32 remaining in the game. At that point, Respass, who led all scorers with his 26 markers, canned a layup. Fouled on the play, Ray made the free throw, and gave Carolina three-point lead it never relinquished.

The Tar Babies had a little breathing room when with seven minutes left, Respass and Bill Brown combined for 8 straight points, interrupted only by Herring's long one-hander. At 16:30 of the final period, 5-11 guard Bill Taylor stole the ball at mid-court, and recede in for the easy layup. This made it 75-64 and a minute later, when the Deaclets' Herring committed his fifth and disqualifying foul, it was all over for Wake.

The Winston-Salem cagers, who also lost Anderson and their top rebounder Lozier on fouls in the second half, shot a very commendable 42.9% from the floor and netted 16 of 19 free throws for 84%. Herring, who finished with 23 points, was 9 for 20 from the field and Anderson 5 for 11. Wayne Burroughs, the Deaclets' other guard, had a hot hand in the second half. He meshed 6 of 9 field goal attempts and added a foul shot for 13 points.

Carolina Shoots 50%
Carolina returned to pre-semester break shooting form as the Tar Babies hit 28 of 56 field goal tries for an even 50%. Inaccuracy at the foul line cost the Chapel Hillians an even bigger victory. The blue and white could only manage 27 of 41 free throws—a paltry mark of only 65%.

Respass led the Tar Babies in accuracy with 10 for 15 from the floor while Neary was 9 for 18. Brown tied Wake's Lozier for the rebound high with 10. 5-10 Stu Ellington, sent into the game when starter Pud Hassell picked up his fourth personal with 8:51 to go in the first half, played a fine floor game and contributed 6 rebounds.

The UNC frosh, with only losses to Duke and Davidson marring their 11 victories, return to action this Wednesday night at 6:15 when they face North Carolina State in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum.

TAR HEEL Freshman Jay Neary fires a jump shot in Saturday's UNC-Wake Forest frosh contest. Neary missed the shot, but finished with 24 points, second only to Ray Respass who watches the action in the background. Respass tallied 26. —Photo by Jim Wallace

Wake 87, UNC 80

(Continued from Page 1)
sizzling 66.7 percentage, the Deacs hit on 37 of 66 shots from the floor for a 56.1 mark—one of their best shooting exhibitions of the season.

The gold and black-clad Deacons soared ahead early in the first half and held a 13-5 lead with 15:50 remaining. The Tar Heels caught McKinney's invaders at the 9:07 mark on a three-point play by Jim Hudock and seconds later Larry Brown scored on a lay-up to give the Chapel Hillians their first lead of the game at 26-24.

UNC's Last Lead
Chappell tied the score with a lay-up, but Cooke countered with a jumper to give Carolina its last lead of the game. Minutes later Chappell scored again and was fouled by Donohue—the foul was Donohue's third and Smith pulled him from the game. Chapel added the one-pointer and Wake led 32-29. The Deacs outscored UNC 15-8 in the final six minutes to take a 47-37 halftime lead, which they never lost.

The victory enabled Wake to move into a tie for first place in the ACC with Duke, but the Blue Devils met Virginia Saturday night. Both teams had 7-2 records prior to the Duke-UVA affair.

Maryland Swimmers Edge Carolina For ACC Title

By CURRY KIRKPATRICK

For the second consecutive year, the University of Maryland swimming team has crushed the championship hopes of the Carolina swimmers.

The Terps, undefeated in six conference dual meets, won the 1962 championship Friday afternoon by edging the Tar Heels, 49-46. Last year, Maryland handed Coach Pat Earey's mermen their only loss in league competition with a 50-45 victory at Chapel Hill. The win gave the College Park tankers a share of the 1961 title with Carolina and North Carolina State. This year, Maryland has the crown all to itself.

Mike Schaeberle gave the Terrapins their clinching points when he nipped Carolina Co-Captain Bob Briggs in the 200-yard breaststroke. That gave the Champions a 49-39 lead with only the 400-yard freestyle relay to go. Carolina took that race but it was too late to do any good.

Earey's strategic move of holding ace backstroke Thompson Mann out of his 200-yard specialty in order to pile up points in the relays, backfired when Dave Fleming, swimming the butterfly leg of the medley relay, paced Maryland to a win in that first event with a 54.4 clocking for his distance.

A bright note of consolation for the Tar Heels lay in the fact that they had the meet's only double winners in Jim Huffman and Willie Bloom. Huffman, a junior from Moylan, Pa., won the 50-yard freestyle and 200-yard backstroke events while Bloom, a product of Baltimore and brother of last year's Tar Heel star merman Harry Bloom, posted victories in the 220 and 440 yard freestyle distance races.

The Summary
400-yard medley relay—(1) Maryland (Dahl, Schaeberle, Fleming, Gilson) 3:49.9.
220-yard freestyle—(1) Bloom, UNC; (2) Reddin, Md.; (3) Merrill, UNC; 2:08.5.
50-yard freestyle—(1) Huffman, UNC; (2) Williams, UNC; (3) Duke, Md.; 23.6.
200-yard medley relay—(1) T. Lupien, Md.; (2) King, UNC; (3) H. Lupien, Md.; 2:12.1.
Diving—(1) Squires, Md.; (2) Quesada, Md.; (3) Fambrough, UNC; 209.4 pts.
200-yard butterfly—(1) Fleming, Md.; (2) H. Lupien, Md.; (3) King, UNC; 2:10.5.
100-yard freestyle—(1) Gilson, Md.; (2) Bilbro, UNC; (3) Mann, UNC; 51.0.
200-yard backstroke—(1) Huffman, UNC; (2) Dahl, Md.; (3) Rodin, Md.; 2:16.1.
400-yard freestyle—(1) Bloom, UNC; (2) Lea, UNC; (3) Greenberg, Md.; 4:47.2.
200-yard breaststroke—(1) Schaeberle, Md.; (2) Briggs, UNC; (3) T. Lupien, Md.; 2:26.3.
400-yard freestyle relay—(1) Carolina (Bilbro, Murray, Williams, Mann); 3:28.3.

Page 4

Sunday, February 11, 1962

CAROLINA'S Donnie Walsh, a little man among giants despite his 6-0 height, grabs a rebound in yesterday's UNC-Wake Forest basketball game. The Deacons defeated Dean Smith's Tar Heels in a hard-fought contest, 87-80. —Photo by Jim Wallace

Dean Smith Commends Chappell's Play

By MARTY KRUMING

For All-American candidate Lennie Chappell it was another successful day in his quest for the ACC individual scoring title. The massive 6-8 center and co-captain of the Deacons was sensational as he racked up 36 points and 14 rebounds.

Head coach Dean Smith realized that Chappell could be given the ball on the outside, but not under the basket, if Carolina was to win the game.

hard to stop underneath," said Smith. The Tar Heel mentor especially commended the fine play of sophomore Mike Cooke, forward Jim Donohue, and captain Jim Hudock.

Cooke provided hustle and key

Harvey Henry's heave of 46 feet in the shot put earned him a first and the combination of Charlie Little, Bob Bennett, and sophomore Dave Brunson overwhelmed State in the 880. Winning time for this event was 1:57.3.

Returning to the field events, Greensboro sensation Tommy Clark, who holds the freshman high jump record at 6-6½, cleared the bar at 6-2 to take an undisputed first. In the V.M.I. Relays last weekend Clark tied for first against

By MARTY KRUMING
Living up to all the optimistic expectations of head coach Dale Ranson, the varsity winter track team swamped an exceptionally weak N. C. State squad 91-12 in the Tin Can Friday evening.

With the exception of the eight lap relay, the Tar Heels swept all twelve events in the meet. John O'Bannon and Dick Lewisohn led off the meet by taking one-two in the broad jump as O'Bannon won with a jump of 21'9". Next came the 70-yard low hurdles in which the Tar Heels copped all three places.

With senior co-captain Barrie Tiedemann and junior Heath Whittle having both cleared the 14-foot barrier in official competition this season, the spotlight was on these two valuters. Although Tiedemann captured first with a height of 14 feet, his teammate was not far behind in second.

The main event of the evening was the mile run in which fast striding senior co-captain Rett Everett was an excellent choice for blue honors. This 5'10" speedster from Greenville, let no one down as he completed his run in a winning time of 4:22.1. It was at this point that the Wolfpack penetrated the scoring column as Edwards took a second.

Returning to the field events, Greensboro sensation Tommy Clark, who holds the freshman high jump record at 6-6½, cleared the bar at 6-2 to take an undisputed first. In the V.M.I. Relays last weekend Clark tied for first against such track powerhouses as Maryland, Navy, and The Citadel.

The Wolfpack's only other scoring threat came in the 440 yard

NORTH-SOUTH DOUBLEHEADER

UNC students can attend the North-South doubleheader in Charlotte Friday and Saturday for only $1 per night. A student ID card must be presented at a special gate at the Charlotte Coliseum in order to purchase a ticket. UNC meets Clemson Friday, while N.C. State plays South Carolina. The North Carolina teams swap opponents for Saturday's games.

points in the closing minutes of the contest. Smith called the turning point of the game the point where Donohue picked up his third foul and had to leave the game for the remainder of the half.

Returning to Chappell, Smith said, "It was ability, not garbage shots that gave Chappell so many points on tap-ins and close shots."

An Unforgettable Gift

Now and then in life, one comes to a moment when one wants to give a gift that will never be duplicated, that will be remembered always. If you're in that spot, here's a wonderful suggestion.

Give a book in Norwegian! We're stuck with a flock of them, and we'll never forget it. 15c will get you one, and make your name immortal!

P. S.—Better buy one of our guaranteed Valentines while you are in the shop, just as insurance.

The Intimate Bookshop

119 East Franklin Street
Open THU 10 P.M.

run as it took second and third behind Bob Hart's winning time of 50.0 Hart was also a member of the sprint medley and distance medley teams which placed number one in the V.M.I. Relays.

Carolina's rivals also received a whitewashing in the two-mile run in which Carmine Lunetta paced Mike Folk and Charlie Tromba to a 1, 2, 3 finish at 9:43.6.

SHOOK WILL SPEAK

Professor Edwin M. Shook of Harvard University will give an illustrated lecture at a meeting of the North Carolina Society of the Archaeological Society of America at 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 16, in the auditorium of the Ackland Art Center. He will talk about "The Ruins of Tikal, Guatemala."

Dogs in Alaska also have fleas.

ANNOUNCING the Opening of Byron's

Located in the rear of the Carolina Coffee Shop on East Franklin Street.

24 HOURS A DAY
7 DAYS A WEEK

featuring

STEAKS — SEAFOOD, SPAGHETTI
REGULAR and SPECIAL SANDWICHES

Complete Breakfast Menu
WAFFLES! HOT CAKES

"Good food served promptly in pleasant surroundings and at reasonable prices."

Gifts that Eloquently say, "I LOVE YOU"

Valentine Day
Wednesday,
Feb. 14th

For Him Also!

Choose from—
Umbrellas, Luggage,
Shirts,
Jewelry, London
Fog Raincoats,
Lotions and Novelty Items.

All Valentine Gifts
Handsomely and Appropriately
Gift Wrapped Free

If it's from J. B. ROB-BINS it shows you used good taste and judgment

The House of Fashion in Chapel for the Carolinas

J. B. Robbins
The Valentine Store

It's not too late if you hurry to
J. B. ROBBINS
for your appropriate Valentine Gift.

Choose from—
Perfumes, Jewelry, Scarves.
Hose, Bags, Gloves,
Negligees, Lingerie, Sportswear,
Novelty Items and Hundreds
Of Other Suggestions.

J. B. Robbins