

Offices in Graham Memorial

TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 1962

Complete UPI Wire Service

The famous herald trumpet section of the Navy Band

Navy Band Plays Twice Here Today

The U. S. Navy Band hailed as the "World's Finest Band," arrives here today to give two concerts in Memorial Hall at 2:30 and 8:30 p.m. The Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia music fraternity is sponsoring the concerts for the benefit of a music scholarship.

Governor Terry Sanford has declared today "Navy Band Day" in North Carolina and the concerts have also won endorsement from President Kennedy and television and screen star Andy Griffith. This will be the Band's only North Carolina stop on their current tour.

The Navy Band contains within itself a complete symphony which presents the works of the masters while it retains its versatility by performing modern numbers. The soloists within the band have also gained outstanding reputations in their own right. For these reasons, the Band has come to be called the "World's Finest."

Lieut. Anthony A. Mitchell conducts the organization. A 17 year Navy veteran, he has degrees from the U. S. Naval School of Music and the Catholic University of America.

Ed McCormack Enters Senate Race In Mass.

Nephew Of Speaker Opposes Ted Kennedy

BOSTON (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr. Monday announced his candidacy for the U. S. Senate, declaring he would campaign "all the way" against his opponent — expected to be President Kennedy's youngest brother, Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy.

The attorney general, 38-year-old nephew of House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., said he hoped his campaign for the Democratic nomination would not tend to divide the party either locally or nationally.

Kennedy, 39, was expected to make his formal announcement later this month and enter this first campaign for elective office.

The seat at stake is the one vacated in late 1960 by then President-elect John F. Kennedy. It has been filled on an interim basis by Sen. Benjamin A. Smith, D-Mass., a friend of the President, who was appointed by former Democratic Gov. Foster Furcolo at Kennedy's behest. Smith is not a candidate in the primary.

Yale Singing Group Appears Here Friday

Graham Memorial will present the Yale Glee Club Friday at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall. The group has been in existence for over 100 years and has appeared throughout the U. S. and Europe, and extensively behind the Iron Curtain.

A special admission policy has been announced for this GM function. Students and faculty will be admitted free with ID cards and student wives and dates "in tow" will also be admitted free.

Wheless Outdistances Britt, Lawler For SP Nominations

TO BREAK ARMS DEADLOCK

Soviets Approve Summit In March

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has accepted an Anglo-American proposal to hold a foreign ministers meeting in Geneva this month in an attempt to break the deadlock over disarmament and nuclear testing.

The White House said Monday that President Kennedy has received a message "on the subject of the disarmament conference."

Although the White House declined to comment, other sources said that in the message which arrived Sunday Khrushchev reluctantly agreed to send Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko to Geneva for the disarmament sessions starting March 14.

Although Khrushchev had wanted a summit meeting to open the Geneva conference, he was faced with opposition from Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. Reports from Moscow said that the premier apparently now has discarded any plan to personally attend the start of the meeting.

Instead, he agreed to Kennedy's proposal of Feb. 24 urging that the U. S., British and Soviet foreign ministers meet in advance of the Geneva conference to help pave the way for the success of disarmament negotiations. This, in turn, could conceivably lead to a summit conference before June 1.

The new Soviet message said Gromyko is willing to meet beforehand with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home.

French government sources said a short time later that France will boycott the whole 18-nation disarmament conference, and will not even send an observer.

Kennedy's hope is that sufficient progress can be made on a "fool-proof" nuclear test ban treaty at lower diplomatic levels so that a summit conference could be held in Geneva and the agreement ratified.

If this happened, the president has said he would agree to call off the resumption of U. S. atmospheric nuclear tests, now set for late in April.

Macmillan echoed this policy in a statement to the house of commons Monday. Announcing that Khrushchev had "broadly agreed" to the foreign ministers meeting, he said:

"I hope that the progress made in this aspect of disarmament will be such as to make it possible for President Kennedy and myself to meet Mr. Khrushchev in Geneva, to conclude the final stages of a treaty to ban tests."

Rusk tentatively plans to leave here for Geneva on March 10. Diplomats said he hoped to meet with Lord Home the next day. A meeting with Gromyko could take place on March 12.

UP Finishes Spring Slate

The University Party convention last night postponed most of its important business to an open party meeting Thursday night. Phil Smith defeated Whitney Durand for the party chairmanship in the only close election of the meeting.

The nomination of presidents of the CAA and the CWA, the endorsement of legislative candidates, and the presentation of the party platform for the spring elections were all postponed by the convention of about 150 members.

The party decided not to endorse a candidate for the editorship of the Daily Tar Heel as former chairman Bill Criswell told the group that the executive committee felt "it would not be opportune to endorse an editor at this time."

"The UP may support one person in this campaign," Criswell said, "but the person will not have the official backing of the party."

The endorsement of legislative candidates was postponed as Criswell told the body there had been "poor response to date in that only 26 candidates had applied for party endorsement." There are 50 legislative seats to be filled.

The presentation of the party platform was also postponed due to several sections being incomplete. Criswell said that presidential nominee Inman Allen had urged that the platform be presented in detail Thursday for the approval of the party.

The party completed its slate of senior class officers by nominating Richard Stapleton for vice-president. Stapleton defeated Bob Richardson by a wide margin.

Katherine Parrish was nominated for president of Women's Athletic Association by acclamation. Bill Imes was selected as a NSA representative, also by acclamation.

Whitney Durand was selected as vice-chairman of the party as he defeated Roy Kirk.

Committee Not Appointed Yet

The five-member committee ordered by the board of trustees of the Consolidated University to investigate the appeal of the suspension of Ann Carter has not been appointed yet to the knowledge of the Office of Student Affairs.

This committee, to be appointed soon by Governor Sanford, is to include at least three lawyers and will be directed to "act with dispatch" and submit recommendations at the board's next meeting.

Miss Carter was convicted by the Woman's Honor Council of answering questions contained in an original examination, instead of a make-up examination which the professor said he had given her.

Susan Crow Is Named Women's Co-ordinator

Susan Crow, a Junior from Wilson, has been selected as Women's Coordinator of the 1962 Orientation Committee, Chairman Bob Madry announced yesterday.

"I am very pleased and honored," stated the appointee, "and will do my best to see that the Women's program is meaningful and well-organized next fall."

Miss Crow was President of the Student Body at both her high school and at Peace College, where she directed the orientation program. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Her first task will be to help select the rest of the Orientation Committee. Interviews for positions on the committee will be held Tuesday through Thursday of this week in the second floor of Graham Memorial.

In announcing Miss Crow's appointment, Chairman Madry said, "Those of us that selected the Co-ordinator are confident that Susan will do an excellent job and that the women's part of orientation next fall will be a success."

Madry thanked all applicants for the position and said that "it was not an easy job, since many capable girls applied."

"I hope that these people will apply for other positions in the Orientation program; we can use them all."

Interviews To Open For Orientation

Interviews for positions on the Campus Orientation Committee will be held Tuesday-Thursday, March 6-8. Orientation Chairman Bob Madry announced Monday. Tuesday's interviews will be held in Roland Parker I, Thursday and Friday's in Roland Parker II.

Applications are now available at the information desk in Graham Memorial and at the desk of the Reserve Reading Room in the library.

These should be turned in at the information desk in Graham Memorial.

Raiford And Summers Are Nominated

By HARRY W. LLOYD
In a lengthy and fiercely contested debate for the Student Party nomination for president last night, Dwight Wheless captured a landslide victory over two other candidates.

Wheless, a junior who has served as presidential assistant this year, outdistanced both Robin Britt and Mike Lawler for the SP nomination. Another possible candidate, Bud Broome, withdrew before the nominations.

The Student Party, which took more time in choosing its candidates for president than the University Party took last week in selecting its entire slate, will be attempting to keep its hold on the top two student government seats which it captured last spring. Wheless, in winning the SP nomination, will face UP candidate Inman Allen in the March 27 elections.

Wheless, a junior, was the third candidate to be voted on. Lawler had received 24 standing votes, and Britt had received 24. When Wheless appeared to have outnumbered both of them, he was accepted by acclamation.

The Party voted to postpone action on the choice of a candidate for vice president, in order to give Britt and Lawler time to decide whether they wanted to run.

Lindsay Raiford was a unanimous choice for secretary when there were no other nominations. She will oppose Judy Clark in the election.

Scott Summers, a sophomore, was elected by acclamation to run for treasurer. He will oppose Bill Criswell.

Wheless, who was supported by Rufus Edmiston, who had also been nominated but refused to run because he will be in law school next year, promised "to fulfill the needs of the students and to represent them." He proposed a number of changes, notably in dormitory and campus areas. He, as well as his two opponents, asked that the present administrations policies on improvement of academic and social life of the dorm resident be continued.

Britt, the current chairman of the communications committee, stressed a number of goals, including one to invite all N. C. merit scholarship finalists to the campus. Britt claimed support of dorm presidents, and "guaranteed" that he would deliver victory.

Lawler, who was supported by DTH editor Wayne King, said he wanted to make a "return to politics" after a year's stay on the honor council.

Platform chairman Richard Akers told the convention that the final party platform would be presented at tonight's meeting, which will also be held in Howell Hall.

Campus Briefs

Legislative Candidates

At the beginning of the Fall Semester, each men's dormitory district will lose one legislative seat with the exception of Men's Dorm I and VI. These seats will be reapportioned to Men's Dorm I.

Indication will be made on the ballot of the spring election of the seat which will revert to Dorm Men's I. A student shall be eligible for election to that seat only by such indication on his petition of nomination. If there are no candidates for those seats within 20 days of the election, the seats will automatically revert to Dorm Men's I for the spring election.

A petition signed by 25 students and the candidate or party endorsement must be received by Dave Buxton, chairman of the Elections Board by Wed. in the Student Gov. Offices.

Freshman Social Committee

There will be a compulsory meeting of the Freshman Class Social Committee tonight in Graham Memorial at 8.

CWC

The Carolina Women's Council will meet tonight at 6:30 in the Grail Room at Graham Memorial.

CWC Presidency

Junior and senior independent women may arrange interviews for the presidency of the Carolina Women's Council by contacting the social chairman of their dorms before Mar. 9.

NAACP

There will be a meeting of the NAACP tonight at 8:30 in 203 Alumni. Elections will be held and there will be discussion of plans for a program dealing with voter registration.

Alpha Epsilon Delta

Alpha Epsilon Delta will hold its second rush meeting at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 8, in Room 226 of the med school. All premedical and pre dental students are invited to attend.

Caving-Climbing

The Caving-Climbing will meet Wed. at 6:30 p.m. in the front room upstairs in Lenoir Hall. Slides of a new cave in Georgia will be shown.

Residence Council

The Women's Residence Council will interview candidates for Chairman on March 13-15. Senior girls can obtain application forms from the Dean of Women's Office this week. After the forms have been returned to the Dean's office, applicants may sign up for interviews at the Information Desk in Graham Memorial. Interviews will be held in Roland Parker from 4-6 p.m. each afternoon.

DTH Editor

There will be a meeting of the Selections Board of the Publications Board Wed. at 5 p.m. in the Woodhouse Conference Room. Interviews will be held for candidates for the editorship of the Daily Tar Heel.

BA Dean's List

The School of Business Administration has announced the addition of four students to its Dean's List for the fall semester. These are Nancy Carol Earle, Stacy Arnold Nunnery, James Barry Piltzman, and Kenneth Ervin Tutterow.

Women's Council Candidates

Interviews will be held this week for Women's Council candidates by the Bi-partisan Selections Board in the Woodhouse Room in Graham Memorial. There will be a sign-up sheet on the door of Woodhouse.

Dr. George I. Blanksten

Blanksten To Talk On Latin America

"Revolutionary Changes in Latin America" will be the topic of Dr. George I. Blanksten, professor of political science at Northwestern University, when he addresses the Carolina Symposium on April 4.

Dr. Blanksten has traveled extensively in Latin America and taught at the University of Mexico in 1959.

He acted as Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs for the U.S. Government during World War II and joined the staff of the State Department in late 1945.

After receiving his doctorate from U.C.L.A. in 1949, he published books on the political situations in Ecuador and Argentina. His most recent book, concerning the role of the U.S. in Latin America, is now in press.

GM Schedules New European Flight

Graham Memorial has announced that although an insufficient number of students turned out to arrange a jet charter flight to Europe this next summer, a new opportunity is now available.

Arrangements have been made for students currently enrolled this term (and last as well) to fly by jet from New York to London and return for only $300.00. Departure will be June 11 at 9:15 p.m.—arriving London at 8:35 the next morning. The return flight will depart from London at 1:40 p.m. on August 22 and arrive New York at 4:20 the same day. No variation in flight can be made—ones must go and return at these times. The flight will be via DC-8 jet, tourist class on Alitalia Air Lines.

The deadline for signing up for this flight is March 31. A deposit of $150.00 is required at that time and payment in full must be made by April 30.

Manning Appointed

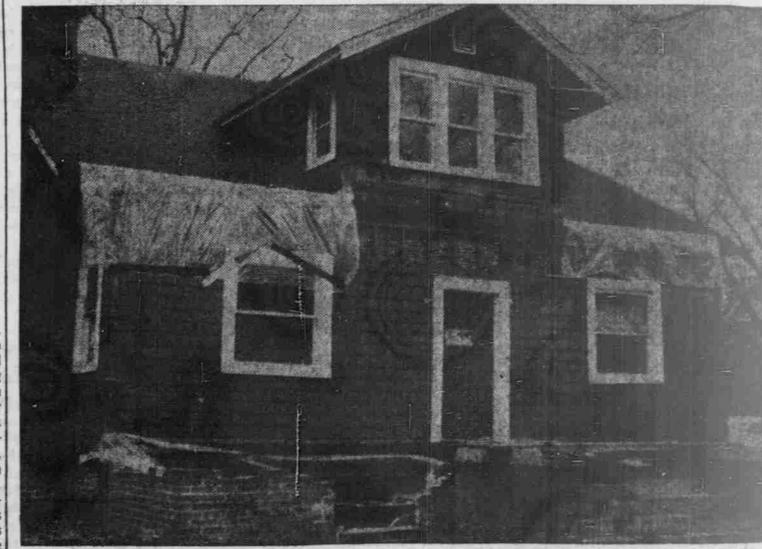

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy Monday named Robert J. Manning, a former newspaper man, as assistant secretary of state for public affairs.

Manning, 42, succeeds Roger W. Tubby in the $20,000-a-year post. Tubby recently was named U. S. representative to the United Nations and other international organizations at Geneva.

Manning has 26 years news experience. He was born in Binghamton, N. Y., and has worked for Associated Press, United Press International and as an editor for Time, Life and Fortune and Sports Illustrated.

Manning formerly was Sunday editor of the New York Herald Tribune.

He is married and has three sons, Richard, Brian, and Robert.

NEW HOUSE — Workmen have started tearing down the old Sigma Phi Epsilon house at 207 W. Cameron Ave. The new house, to be completed by mid-summer, will house thirty men. Contractor for the project is L. S. Hensley of Durham. —Photo by Jim Wallace