Undefeated Netters Thump MIT By 8-1

By LOUIS LEGUM

The weather was a bit warmer yesterday, and Coach Don Skakle's netters responded splendidly with a victory over a touring MIT team, 8-1. The win marked the fourth of the season for the undefeated Tar Heels, and extended their record to 16 consecutive triumphs in a two-year period.

Skakle, juggling his sophomore prodigies, watched his tennis team bounce back from a sluggish performance against Michigan State Monday afternoon. Carolina took full command of the courts with MIT, as the netmen polished off four of the six singles matches in less than sixty minutes.

At number one, George Sokol overwhelmed MIT's Bent Aasnaes with his polished ground game, 6-1, 6-2. The little blonde-haired soph from Merion, Pa., was simply too much for his opponent, using his powerful forehand shot with particular effectiveness.

Ted Hoehn, who has been playing very well since the season began, matched teammate Sokol by defeating Nick Charney by the same score, 6-1, 6-2. Hoehn seemed to place many of his shots with the exacting care of an artillery gunner, mixing up an assortment of lobs, drop volleys, and ever-heads.

Captain Keith Stoneman, the only junior in yesterday's lineup, was the first player off the court with a devastating 6-1, 6-0 victory over Jerry Adams, moving to the net with ease. Stoneman had no trouble in extending his two-season win streak to 23.

Ponderous Bitsy Harrison was forced into three sets before he conquered Charles Heinrich, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2. The 6-5 star flashed enough of his sometimes brilliant game to win. However, Charlie Shaffer, slowly rounding into top form, crushed Terry Chatwin, 6-2, 6-1.

It was a different story in the six singles match. MIT's Marty Ormond outwaited inexperienced Sam Applegate, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5, and thus provided the only point of the day for the visitors from Massachusetts.

In the doubles, Coach Skakle paired three new combinations and achieved excellent results. Hoehn and Stoneman worked very well together with crisp volleying and crowd-pleasing line shots to defeat Aasnaes and Charney, 6-0, 6-2. Shaffer and Harrison were just as effective, co-ordinating their big games to overpower Heinrich and Giovanni Franz by a 6-2, 6-3 score.

The last match was an extremely close one. Carolina's George Zimmerman and Rich Henderson finally settled down in the third set to win 6-4, 6-8, 6-4 over Chatwin and Bob Blumberg.

Coach Skakle commented after the match that his team played very good and "seems to be reaching its potential at last. But we have tough engagements with Harvard and Williams next week that we have to worry about."

Maryland Captures Carmichael C. Lead

Maryland's Terrapins captured three of the four winter season sports championships in the Atlantic Coast Conference and forged into a narrow lead in the three-way battle in the first annual ACC competition for the Carmichael Cup for excellence in all athletics.

Maryland added 26½ points in the winter activities to take the lead with 46 points since last September. North Carolina, finishing as runner-up in three winter sports, moved into second place with 44½ points, and Duke's Blue Devils, who led after the fall season, held third place with 41½ points.

The Carmichael Cup, offered as a memorial to the late William Donald Carmichael Jr. of the University of North Carolina, goes to the college which leads in this all-sports power rating in conference championship athletics, with the points based on eight for first, seven for second and so on down the line.

ACC Commissioner Jim Weaver, in making the announcement Monday, said in three consecutive weekends the Terrapins won as many titles. This included Coach Bill Campbell's swimming squad, Coach Sully Krouse's wrestlers, and Coach Jim Kehoe's indoor track team. Carolina finished second in all three sports.

Wake Forest took the basketball honors, thus enabling Coach Horace ('Bones') McKinney's team to move a point ahead of South Carolina for seventh place. Wake Forest has 18½ points and South Carolina, 17½. North Carolina State remained in fourth place with 26½, followed by Clemson, 25½, and Virginia, 23.

This sets up a close battle for the five spring sports, which already are underway. They are baseball, tennis, golf, lacrosse, and outdoor track.

Freshmen Beat Wilmington In Baseball Opener, 10-8

By HARRY TOCCE

A fine three innings of relief pitching by Bill Danneman kept the Wilmington Junior College Seahawks in check here yesterday and enabled Bruce Crump's Tar Baby baseball squad to capture a 10-8 come-from-behind victory.

Danneman entered the game in the seventh inning in relief of starter Jerry Davis with Carolina trailing 7-6 and allowed only one run. That was a well-drilled four-bagger by Wilmington's Ronnie Smith.

The Tar Babies, behind 5 to 0 in the third inning, overcame the deficit with five big markers in their half of the third. Bobby Reagan's infield single, which brought home two runs, was the highlight of the rally.

For a moment, Dick Flemming appeared to be the goat of the game when his three errors in the Seahawk fourth inning were instrumental in two Wilmington runs.

But revenge was sweet for Flemming when he laced a booming double to deep center field in the home fourth which pushed across a run to make the score 7-6.

Three costly Seahawk errors allowed the Tar Babies to take final command in the home sixth. Two errors and a walk loaded the bases, and Dick Prindle reached base on a muffed fly ball to right then allowed two runs home. A sacrifice fly and a single by Jerry Clark brought the third and fourth runs across.

Wilmington relief pitcher Ken McDowell, who entered the game in the sixth inning, was the victim of his mates' faulty play and received the defeat.

The Seahawks gained their early lead by garnering five big tallies in the third inning. Four singles, a walk, and a double brought the deluge of runs against Carolina starter Davis.

Prindle, from Atlanta, entertained the sun-seeking crowd at Emerson Stadium with several flashes of mid-season form at second base.

SAE, Winston, Phi Delt, Peacocks Pace Intramurals

By JOHN MONTAGUE

With the winter sports point totals now in, SAE, Winston, the Peacocks and Phi Delta White maintained top positions in their respective division's intramurals point competition.

SAE, in the Blue Frat Division, had its lead cut considerably by Phi Delta Theta, which jumped past the DKE's into second place as a result of its basketball championship. Delta Sig and Sigma Nu also moved up the ladder, pushing PIKA and Chi Phi out of 5th and 6th and into 7th and 8th respectively. ATO held its 4th place spot, gaining slightly on the DKE's but still far removed from third.

Winston saw its dorm lead increased as NROTC fell out of the runner-up spot and Joyner jumped into the top contender role. Winston, which had led the Navy by only 9.23 points, now is in front of Joyner by 38.09 points. Mangum and Alexander held onto their 4th and 5th rankings, with 6th place Town Touts coming on fast as a result of their cage championship.

The Peacocks won the Grad Basketball Championship and continue to dominate that loop, with the second-place Law School now over 200 points behind. The Med School, Physics Grade and Dental School rounded out the top five, with the Dentists gaining rapidly on the 4th place Physicists.

The Phi Delt's upped their lead over DKE in the Frat White League due largely to their roundball championship. ATO, another White basketball power, vaulted from 5th to 3rd. Delta Sig and Sigma Nu each moving down one notch.

The leaders in each division (point totals in parentheses) are: FRATERNITY BLUE (top 10): 1. SAE (623.73); 2. Phi Delta Theta (597.85); 3. DKE (581.59); 4. ATO (485.40); 5. Delta Sig (446.68); 6. Sigma Nu (428.81); 7. PIKA (396.95); 8. Chi Phi (380.18); 9. DU (372.10); 10. TEP (361.46). DORMITORY (top 10): 1. Winston (568.73); 2. Joyner (528.64); 3. NROTC (489.50); 4. Mangum (473.24); 5. Alexander (465.85); 6. Town Touts (450.79); 7. Manly (363.37); 8. Avery (338.08); 9. Ruffin (314.88); 10. Old West (307.48). FRATERNITY WHITE (top 10): 1. Phi Delta Theta (430.00); 2. DKE (379.50); 3. ATO (339.80); 4. Delta Sig (333.60); 5. Sigma Nu (320.60); 6. Chi Psi (295.70); 7. Beta (246.60); 8. SAE (244.40); 9. Kappa Psi (210.20); 10. PIKA (185.50).

GRADUATE (top 5): 1. Peacocks (706.65); 2. Law School (501.40); 3. Med School (398.40); 4. Physics (277.00); 5. Dental School (247.80).

The point totals just released include six of the 11 point-system activities. These are: tag football, volleyball, track, wrestling, handball and basketball. Two spring activities which come under the point category, table tennis and badminton, are already underway. Three other spring sports, softball, tennis and horseshoes, will get underway in April, completing the point-system slate of activities.

Last year's winners were: Zeta Psi in the Frat Blue, ATO in the Frat White, Alexander in the Dorm Division and the Peacocks in the Grad League.

UNC Baseballers Meet Yale At 3

North Carolina's baseball team will once more attempt to open its home season against Yale this afternoon at 3 in Emerson Stadium, weather permitting.

Two of Coach Walt Rabb's team's first five games have been cancelled because of rain and wet grounds. The scheduled game with Vanderbilt last week at Gainesville, Fla., was rained out and the scheduled home opener with Ithaca Monday was cancelled because of wet grounds.

Yale is currently on a southern swing in the state. They defeated Duke last Friday, fell to Wake Forest Monday, and met N. C. State yesterday.

The Tar Heels ran up a 2-1 mark during their annual trip to Florida. They opened the season successfully by outslugging Florida's Gators, 13-9, but the home team reversed the tables the next day and trimmed the visiting "North-erners," 3-1.

Heyward Hull's home run in the top of the tenth inning was the big blow as UNC won an exciting encounter, 2-1, from Georgia Southern on Saturday.

Bob Wacker or Dave Murr will probably start today's game on the mound with soph Bernie Isgett behind the plate. Other probable starters are Len Dellolio, first base, Paul Swing, second base, Larry Neal, third base, and Jim Speight, another soph at short-stop. Speight was one of the leading hitters on the Florida trip.

In the outfield Russ Holgers will probably be in left field, Heyward Hull in center and Buddy Tilden or Dee Frady in right.

UNC Golfers Top Tigers Monday, 28-8

By CURRY KIRKPATRICK

UNC's golf team registered its fourth straight victory of the young spring Monday afternoon as the Tar Heels polished off Princeton 28-8.

Coach Ed Kenney's linksmen won six of the eight individual matches and tied in another while keeping their undefeated dual-meet string intact. The Tar Heels' only loss has come in the Florida Invitational Tournament where they placed second to powerful Houston.

Mike Dore, a sophomore from Convent Station, N. J., paced Carolina Monday with a medal-winning 72, in his 2-1 victory over Art Schwartz. UNC's John Brabson, playing in the same foursome, tied Princeton's Dick Hoverland, 1½-1½.

In the number one foursome of the day, UNC Captain Pete Green and Jay Harris defeated the Tigers' Press Seckel and Dick Roman by identical 2-1 counts. Green shot a 74 while Harris came in with a 76.

Sophomores Harvie Hill and Abe Andes fired 77 and 79 respectively in downing Ted DeVeffelito and Dick Griffith by like 3-0 scores while George Murphy with a 75 turned back Princeton's Dan Browne by 3-0 also.

The Ivy League school's only victory went to Frank Pettio, who beat Jere Ayers, 2½-½. For Ayers, it was the first loss of the spring.

In best ball activity, Carolina again dominated the play as the Tar Heels triumphed, 10-2. UNC met powerful Purdue yesterday afternoon and faces the Boilermakers again today at 1:30.

By ED DUPREE

Purdue's defending national champions handed UNC's golfers their first dual loss of the season Tuesday afternoon on Finley Golf Course, 21½ to 14½.

The Big Ten linksmen picked up nine points in the last foursome to wrap up the victory. Steve Wilkinson of the Boilermakers was medalist with a three-under par 69.

UNC's Pete Green was the low for the Tar Heels with a 71, while Mike Martin of Purdue finished with 72, par for the Finley course.

Green, UNC's All-American golfer, and Jay Harris both defeated their Purdue opponents in the first foursome. Green edged Jerry Jackson 2½-½ and Harris beat Bill Templin, 2½-½. Best ball for the foursome went to UNC, 3-0.

In the second foursome, the Purdue boys defeated Harvie Hill, 2-1, and Joe Kack defeated Abe Andes, 2½-½.

Medalist Wilkinson defeated UNC's Mike Dore in the third foursome and George Murphy of Carolina defeated Jim Farlander 2½-½. Best ball went to Purdue, 3-0.

In the final foursome Mike Martin took UNC's Sam McNairy, 3-0, and Chuck Hellman of the defending champs defeated sophomore Tom Gardner, 3-0. Princeton again took best ball, 3-0.

The loss gives Coach Ed Kenney's forces a 4-1 dual meet record. They hold convincing wins over Dartmouth, twice, Michigan State, and Princeton.

In the Florida Intercollegiate Golf Tournament at Ocala the Tar Heels finished second to strong Houston to open their season.

The next match for the Carolina golfers isn't until next Thursday when they play host to Ohio University. The first ACC match is scheduled for April 16 at Raleigh against the N. C. State linksmen.

COLLEGE STUDENTS IN THE VACATION RIOTS

What touches off the vicious vacation riots in resort towns from coast to coast? What madness causes the drunkenness, open immorality, violent battles with police? What sudden mob impulse can motivate a crowd of 30,000 educated young men and women into a rampage of destruction? Perhaps it's a new way to "let off steam" ... a savage kind of self-expression. But why are so many college students—presumably the nation's most "adult" and sophisticated young people—involved? Why do they knowingly risk their futures, even their lives for a few hours of wild abandon? In the new April McCall's, don't miss the unbelievable, yet true, report on the spread of this insane activity ... the terrible price you may have to pay if you're involved ... and how you can help stop the insanity.
