Lawler, McDevitt To Debate In Gerrard Hall On Sunday

Mike Lawler, SP candidate for vice-president of the student body in Tuesday's run-off election, challenged his UP opponent Larry McDevitt yesterday to a debate Sunday night in Gerrard Hall at 10:30.

McDevitt accepted the challenge yesterday after asking that the debate be held in Gerrard Hall, rather than in Cobb basement as Lawler had suggested in his challenge.

The debate will consist of opening statements of 4-6 minutes by each candidate, after which each candidate will question the other. The pair will then answer questions from the floor. They will make closing statements of about 4 minutes. The debate is open to the entire campus.

Y-Cabinet Members Chosen

Van Oatts has been picked to head next year's Campus Chest as the YMCA announced the selection of 18 committee chairmen that will form the Y-Cabinet in 1962-63.

The chairmen are: Van Oatts, Campus Chest; Mary Brewer Regan and Katherine Parrish, publicity; Bobbie Brownfield, office force; Mimi Farquhar, finance drive; Marie Overby, human relations; Glenda Lackey, international relations; Judy Alexander, U.N. education; Deal McArthur and Lee Shepherd, foreign students; Neal Hollingsworth, hospital work; Robin Farr and Fran Brock, Dix Hill sanatorium; Jane Womack, Graveley sanatorium.

Patterson Given Fulbright Grant

Professor Tom Patterson of the UNC Drama Department has been awarded a 1962-63 Fulbright Fellowship to teach play-writing in Dong Kook University and to direct plays at the Drama Center in Seoul, Korea.

The Seoul Drama Center is an ultra-modern theater built under the direction of Che-jin Yu, one of Korea's best-known writers. Patterson became acquainted with Mr. Yu when the latter visited Chapel Hill in 1957, while on a tour of the U. S. University theaters.

TOM PATTERSON

Impressed by Playmakers of the Carolina Playmakers over the years, Yu felt that it would serve as a model for a dramatic organization in Korea. Consequently, he influenced Lee in coming to UNC for his training in theatre work and also persuaded the Rockefeller Foundation to help build a theater in Seoul cementing cultural ties between the United States and Korea.

Patterson, who joined the UNC department in 1950 after a brilliant student career at Yale and Stanford Universities and previous teaching experience at the Universities of Texas and Oklahoma, teaches playwriting at UNC. He has directed such major productions for the Carolina Playmakers as "South Pacific," "Mister Roberts," "Death of a Salesman," "Desire Under the Elms." His outdoor drama "Old Four-Eyes," produced each summer at Miedora, N. D. since 1958 by the Theodore Roosevelt National Memorial Park and Badlands Association, has been called by "Time Magazine" one of the five best outdoor dramas in the nation.

Student's Opinion Changes Studied

The extent to which 165 UNC students from abroad have changed their opinion about the United States since coming to America is being compiled and related to sociology and social psychology through a survey being conducted by Mary Ann Lamanna, a graduate student in sociology.

The survey is also concerned with any specific problems, such as housing, grades and language conflict, these students have had while attending UNC and whether or not these students have had an opportunity to see many phases of life in the United States.

Year At Strasbourg
Mrs. Lamanna became interested in the ideas foreign students formed about the country he is visiting after she spent a year studying at the University of Strasbourg in France.

The date for returning the questionnaires is Tuesday, and Mrs. Lamanna has stressed the importance of receiving replies from all students concerned so that the results will be truly representative of all countries and opinions.

THESE ARE The Jesters, the combo that will be playing tonight at the Junior Class's third combo party. The party will be held at the American Legion Hut from 8 until 12, and everyone is invited.

Larry McDevitt Makes Statement

The following is a statement by UP vice-president candidate Larry McDevitt who yesterday accepted a debate challenge by his SP opponent Mike Lawler.

"I accept with pleasure Lawler's challenge to a debate. I think we will be able to discuss issues of interest to the student body and I hope the student body will show interest by attending.

"The vice-president's duties are greater than that of speaker of the Legislature," he said. "He must work in close harmony with the president in order to guide the president's programs through the legislature.

"The student body has expressed confidence in Allen by electing him, and his programs should therefore be guided through the legislature."

BBC Curtails TV Violence

LONDON (UPI) — The British Broadcasting Corp. took steps Thursday to curtail violence on its television programs. The BBC announced it would not show news films Saturday of the New York boxing match in which Cuban fighter Benny Paret, former world welterweight champion, was critically injured.

Playmakers Present 3 One-Acts

Three new one-act plays will be presented free of charge by the Playmakers tonight and Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Playmakers Theatre.

"Indian Summer," by Gail Place, will be the first offering. In the cast are Susie Gordon, Violet Katherine Galvin, Johnnie Sibold and Dwight Hunsucker. It is directed by Larry Randolph.

Douglas Young's "Waiting for Eden" will be the second play. Margaret Cathell and Frank McDonald are cast in the drama, directed by Sandy Moffett.

"What Did You Learn in School Today?" by Wallace Johnson will be the last play on the bill. Appearing in the farce-satire are Myles Ludwig, Ed Cathell, Larry G. Steele, Larry Walz, David Samuel Sheps and Richard Grant. The play is directed by Gordon Clark.

Tryouts Set For 'Faustus'

Tryouts for 27 roles in the Playmakers' outdoor production of Christopher Marlowe's "Doctor Faustus" will be held this Sunday at 3:00 p.m. and Monday at 4:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Forest Theatre.

Director Tommy Rezzuto, staff director of the Playmakers, announces that there are roles for 20 men and 7 women in this acting version of the Marlowe spectacle. Principal characters in the comedy are Faustus, master of all knowledge; Wagner, his servant; Lucifer, a fallen angel; Christophophilis, a devil; a Good Angel; an Evil Angel; and Helen of Troy.

Set in 16th century Germany, "Doctor Faustus" deals with a doctor-magician who bargains with the Devil and loses his own soul. Playwright Marlowe was a contemporary of Shakespeare. Scripts are on reserve in the University library and at 101 Saunders Hall for those who wish to read it prior to trying out. Anyone in the Chapel Hill area is invited to audition.

'Service Recognition' Order Of Old Well Taps In Ceremony

EXAM Schedule

The time of an examination may not be changed after it has been fixed in the schedule. Quizzes are not to be given in this semester on or after Wednesday, May 16.

Grade Reports will be prepared by the Data Processing Section and forwarded to the departments prior to the examination period. The original copy will be returned to the Office of Records and Registration, the second copy (canary), is to be retained by the department, and the third copy (goldenrod) is to be kept by the instructor.

Grade Reports are to be in the department office within 72 hours after the scheduled time of the examination. The department chairman is responsible for recording receipt of each report (the Form RD-1 may be used for this) and forwarding it promptly to the Office of Records and Registration. In unusual cases, if it is clearly needed, an extension of the time limit preferably not to exceed 48 hours, may be approved by the department chairman or the dean of the school concerned. The Office of Records and Registration will be given notice of the delay. (Faculty Council, May 6, 1960.) Machine processing of grades makes it urgent that all grades be turned in on time.

AFROTC Proposal Explained

A proposed change in the AFROTC program, which would substitute a two-year officer's education program for the present four-year plan, was explained to University officials this week by Col. William C. Lindley, chairman of the AFROTC Advisory Panel for the Secretary of the Air Force. UNC is one of 173 institutions, which the proposed legislative change will affect. The purpose of Lindley's visit was to acquaint university officials with the necessary information for amending the National Defense Act of 1918.

Grierson Here For Symposium

John Grierson, producer for Scottish Television Ltd. and a featured speaker on the Symposium program Monday night, will arrive here tonight by plane from New York. Grierson and Gilbert Seides will speak on "Revolutions in the Arts" at 8 p.m. Monday in Memorial Hall.

Grierson is coming to the U.S. primarily to attend the Symposium; his visit is sponsored jointly by the UNC-Chapel Hill Film Society, the Museum of Modern Art in New York, and the Washington, D. C. Film Council.

Grierson is a colorful, dynamic personality whose name has become a legend in the motion picture world during his own lifetime.

Queen Elizabeth last year bestowed the rank of Commander of the British Empire on him for his contribution to cinema and education. His farm home in Wiltshire, England, has been designated a national monument.

Dr. Grierson will spend Saturday and Sunday visiting the campus and enjoying the Symposium until his participation Monday night.
