

Tar Heels Club Clemson Baseballers By 11-5

Rabb's Men Host Gamecocks Today

By ED DUPREE

Clemson's previously undefeated pitcher, Tommy Lyon, was no match for North Carolina's hitting, and the lauded Tiger batsmen could manage only six hits against three UNC pitchers Friday as the Tar Heels clubbed the visitors, 11-5.

P. W. Swing and Larry Neal each drove in three runs for the Tar Heels to give the homeesters all the runs needed for the win.

Swing carried a .275 batting average into the game with Clemson, now 5-3 in the ACC, but went three for three to raise his mark to .315—a familiar level for the Tar Heel second-sacker.

P. W. walked in the first inning and scored the first run of the game when Neal singled to left. After singling in the third, Swing hit safely again in the fifth to drive in Whitey Cox with UNC's third run. A sharp grounder past the Tiger shortstop, football half-back Elmo Lam, went all the way to deep center field for a triple and two more RBIs for Swing.

Neal was two for three, swinging twice to left field—each driving in a run—and the third baseman from Kannapolis drove in another with a sacrifice fly in the seventh inning. Neal raised his average to .352 against the Cats.

But Buddy Tilden surged to the top of the team in batting by going three for four. His mark now stands at .419, unofficially the highest in the Atlantic Coast Conference. All of Tilden's hits were singles and the stocky left fielder scored three runs.

Jack Rees was the starting UNC pitcher, but gave up four runs and four hits in his 2 2/3 inning chore. Bobby Cox pitched the next 2 1/3 frames, yielding one unearned run, to gain the victory, his second against two losses.

Larry Jenkins, a 6-foot lefthander from Mt. Holly, was the pitcher of the day, pitching four scoreless innings and giving up only one hit. In saving the game for Cox he retired the last 11 men to face him. Clemson broke loose for four runs in the third inning to overcome North Carolina's 1-0 lead. They added a single run in the fourth and led 5-1 going into the bottom of the fifth inning.

Lam, sporting the best record in the ACC—5-0—had given up three hits over the first four innings, but the trend changed considerably in the fifth.

Dave Pope opened the inning with a home run to left field. The speedy center fielder's long drive touched Nick Lomax's glove in left, but Lomax hit the fence, at full speed as soon as he reached the ball. It bounded off the mitt and over the fence for Carolina's fifth homer of the season.

With two runners on, Swing got his single, scoring Cox. Jim Speight then forced Swing at second on a fielder's choice play. Speight's grounder advanced Tilden to third and Tilden scored on Neal's triple.

Lomax in left field bobbled Neal's hit, allowing Speight to score from first. Len Dellolio singled to drive in Neal with the fifth run of the inning.

The five-run outburst put the Tar Heels ahead to stay, 6-5. They added two more runs in the seventh and three in the eighth.

Lomax and Lyon led the Clemson hitters with 2-4. Dave Ellis, and Buddy Nixon had the other Tiger hits.

Nixon drove in three runs with a two-out, bases-loaded single in the third inning. Lyon got the fourth Clemson RBI.

Johny Jones, carrying a lofty .405 average into the game—high for the team which was hitting .309 as a unit—was stopped cold by Rees, Cox, and Jenkins. He went 0-4 as his average dipped to .370.

The Tar Heel hitting, in addition to Tilden, Swing, and Neal, was Dellolio (1-4), Pope (2-4), and Jenkins (1-1).

Carolina, now 3-3 in the ACC, plays host to South Carolina today

TED HOEHN, playing in the number two position for Coach Don Skakle's undefeated tennis team, has a 17-1 record this season. Hoehn is one of four sophomore netters who has paced the team to 19 straight victories this season. The others are George Sokol, Bitsy Harrison, and Charlie Shaffer. The two year win streak is now 31 games.

31ST CONSECUTIVE WIN

Skakle's Men Top SC, 9-0

By LOUIS LEGUM

Spectators in the newly expanded bleachers on the tennis courts received somewhat of a surprise yesterday afternoon. For the match with the University of South Carolina, Coach Don Skakle put four of his "Big Five" on the bench, and trotted out in their place his famous "pit crew" of veterans. The spectators received an even bigger surprise when the collection of second-stringers rung up perhaps the most impressive scores of any Carolina team. Forfeiting two matches, the Gamecocks were able to win only six games out of 90, as they bowed to the Tar Heels, 9-0.

George Sokol was the only regular to play against South Carolina. In his match with Charles Nash, the undefeated sophomore spent just 22 minutes in ringing up a 6-0, 6-0 decision. His steady ground-strokes and surprisingly quick serve forced Nash into numerous errors.

On the number two court, Dave Morgan duplicated Sokol's effort by shutting out Phil Mansell, 6-0, 6-0. Having slumped briefly at midseason, the Asheville junior won his third straight match. Another teammate from Asheville, Stan Cocke, also won 6-0, 6-0 over Joe Logan.

Senior Garland Carlton suffered in comparison as he dropped one game in his first set against Bill Woods and finished with a 6-1, 6-0 triumph. The final singles saw stocky New Yorker, Kirby "Caboose" Jones win a 6-2, 6-1 decision over Al Smart.

Old Book News

MONTHLY SHAKE-OUT—While you were away, we've given the old book shelves a thorough shake-out. You'll be happily surprised to find that a lot of books that were dozing on the 97c shelf are now cut to 72c, and sleepers on that shelf are down to 38c. A number of $1.50 and $1.25 numbers have tumbled to the 97c shelf. Come check up.

IN THE FEATURE CASE — you'll find a nice little library of books about Latin America. If your interest lies in that field, here are some good, inexpensive back-ground books.

ABOUT THOSE SEA BOOKS—If you've been waiting for what's left of that swell marine collection to hit the old price roller-coaster, may as well give up. Matter of fact, what you don't buy in the next couple of weeks is going to be packed and shipped off to our New England shop, so don't dawdle.

NEW FACES — As we write this, we're about to start on another old book buying trip. Right now, we're full of hopes for rosy treasures, but you'd better ask us what we found next time you're in.

The Intimate Bookshop

119 E. Franklin St. Open Till 10 P.M.

Blue Devils Nudge UNC Golfers, 15-12

By CURRY KIRKPATRICK

Duke University rode the three-under-par 68s of George Smith and John Abernathy to a 15-12 victory over Carolina, Thursday on Finley Golf Course.

Smith, playing in the number one position for Coach Dumphy Hagler's linksmen, fired his 69 on the way to a 1 1/2-1 1/2 match play tie with the UNC All-American—Pete Green. Green, who has yet to be beaten this year, also broke par with a one-under 71.

Abernathy, doctored teammate Smith for medalist honors in his 3-0 win over Carolina's Harvie Hill.

The Tar Heels, who dropped the best-ball activity, 5-4, had two individual-match winners. Miami Shores, Fla., sophomore Abe Andes came in with an even-par 72 and a 3-0 win over the Blue Devils' Dave Franklin while Mike Dore, another soph from Convent Station, N. J. beat John Sronce, 3-0, for the other UNC win.

For Duke, which won eight conference matches without a loss last year in addition to taking the ACC tournament, Dick Dion and Richard Bassett were other individual winners.

Dion turned back Jay Harris, 2 1/2-1 1/2 while Bassett downed Dinny White, 3-0.

Coach Ed Kenney's UNC club next faces South Carolina Tuesday on Finley in its last home match of the season.

The summary: Pete Green (UNC) tied George Smith (D), 1 1/2-1 1/2. Richard Bassett (D) def. Dinny White (UNC), 3-0. Best ball: Duke 2, UNC 1.

Dick Dion (D) def. Jay Harris (UNC), 2 1/2-1 1/2. Mike Dore (UNC) def. John Sronce (D), 3-0. Best ball: UNC 2 1/2, Duke 1/2.

Abe Andes (UNC) def. Dave Franklin (D), 3-0. John Abernathy (D) def. Harvie Hill (UNC), 3-0. Best ball: Duke 2 1/2, UNC 1/2.

Final total: Duke 15, UNC 12. Medalist: Smith (D), Abernathy (D), 69.

Frosh Nine Boasts 6-2 Mark; Faces Blue Imps Monday

By LOU ROSENTHAL

Carolina's Freshman Baseball team, behind sparkling pitching and timely hitting, increased its record to 6-2, since the spring holidays.

The Tar Babies started out with three straight wins over Wilmington, N. C. State and Wake Forest, before losing the second game of a double header to the baby Deacs 4-3.

Bruce Crump's charges came back against Louisville, but then dropped a slugfest to State, 15-10. Since that loss, the Tar Babies have beaten Duke and Oak Ridge Military Academy.

Bill Dannemann has turned in the best record so far, 3-0, coming in twice in relief to pick up the victory. He also pitched a nine-inning win over Louisville. His ERA is also lowest on the squad, 1.97.

Jerry Davis rebounded from the loss to Wake Forest to pitch consecutive wins over Duke and Oak Ridge.

The Oak Ridge victory, a five-hit shutout, added nine strikeouts to Davis's record. His total of 18 is the squad's highest.

Walton Ward has the other freshman victory, a 13-9 win over State.

Merle Krueer leads the Tar Baby regulars with a .385 batting average. Dick Prindle, .333, and Ron Barlow, .308, round out the .300-plus hitters.

Frank Gallagher, who has only appeared in 2 games, because of spring football, has a single and an inside-the-park homer in three trips to the plate.

Ken Willard, another grinder, has the only other round-tripper for the Tar Babies; a 370-foot smash in a pinch-hitting role.

Bill Taylor, pushing the .300 mark with a .290, has the most triples, 2, both coming in the Oak Ridge win.

Ken Boykin who splits catching chores with Krueer, has hit two doubles to lead in that department.

Dick Prindle, speedy second baseman, leads in stolen bases with 3, but Barlow, Taylor, and Ronnie Stanley are right behind with 2 apiece.

Altogether the Tar Babies have a .243 team batting average and the ERA is 4.36.

Their next game is Monday, against Duke, in Durham. They return to Chapel Hill the next day to face the same foe in the third of four scheduled games between the freshman clubs.

Victory Streaks Clash As Netters Host Clemson At 2

By LOUIS LEGUM

An ambitious challenger meets a wary defending champion on the varsity tennis courts this afternoon at 2:00 p.m. The stake is the ACC crown and a perfect record. Carolina's netters, sporting a 19-0 season thus far, and 31 in a row over two years, host a Clemson squad without a loss in 12 matches.

Coach Don Skakle's team has not been hard pressed yet this year. However, the Tigers will attempt to upset the Tar Heels by using part of the same formula that has worked so successfully for UNC—youth. A group of very capable sophomores are headed by Alabama native Doug Stewart and Malloy Evans. Last year in a freshman match, Stewart almost beat Carolina's George Sokol with his soft shot game, while Evans dropped Ted Hoehn.

The Tigers are anchored by their number one man Bobby Burns, who will play against Sokol in a match of unbeaten. Burns, who did not wrap up their seventh ACC championship in eight seasons. Included in this string is a record of 31 consecutive conference triumphs.

wrap up their seventh ACC championship in eight seasons. Included in this string is a record of 31 consecutive conference triumphs. Skakle expects his team to be ready for the determined Clemson netmen. His "Big Five"—Sokol, Hoehn, Bitsy Harrison, Keith Stoneman, and Charlie Shaffer—have all been playing well as of late. This conclusion is more than evidenced by the spring trip, when Carolina ripped through The Citadel, Rollins, Georgia, and Furman, after decisive conference victories against Maryland, Virginia, and Duke. So far, the "Big Five" has lost only 6 individual matches out of 90.

The Tar Heels will be seeking to Advertisement for the movie 'Light in the Piazza' featuring Arthur Freed, Rossano Brazzi, and Yvette Mimieux. It includes the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer logo and the Carolina logo.

Advertisement for 'Varsity' movie showing 'Italy... It's The Place Where They've Made An Art Of Everything! Especially Love!' featuring Troy Donahue and Angie Dickinson. It also mentions 'Rome Adventure'.

Advertisement for Milton's Warm Weather Suit Store. It features a man in a suit and text describing their clothing services, including Dacron/cotton poplin suits and Dacron polyester/wool tropical suits.

A large advertisement for L&M cigarettes. It includes a poll titled 'Check your opinions against L&M's Campus Opinion Poll #21' with three questions: 'Which would take more courage?', 'Is it true that "clothes make the man?"', and 'How did you choose your present brand?'. It also features an image of an L&M cigarette pack and the slogan 'Get Lots More from L&M'.