The Carolina Gentleman

If ever a man set a good example for the male students of the University of North Carolina, Jake Wade did. Of course, Jake was the kind of man whose personality intrigued everyone who knew him, but in his role as sports publicity director he proved to be a charming example of the Carolina Gentleman.

Jake Wade was THE Carolina Gentleman. Athletes and other students who knew him realized that he was unquestionably the grand old man of sports in the state, and they were proud that they knew him.

Mr. Wade's death Wednesday afternoon came as a shock to thousands connected with the UNC, North Carolina, and Atlantic Coast Conference sports worlds.

Julius Jennings Wade graduate from Carolina in 1923 and served newspapers in Charlotte, Gastonia, Raleigh, Greensboro, and Pittsburgh, Pa., during the next seven years. In 1930 he returned to Charlotte and was sports editor of the Charlotte Observer until 1946 when he was named to the position as UNC sports publicity director.

His years as a sportswriter proved him to be one of the nation's best. Indeed, he became to the State of North Carolina what Grantland Rice was to the nation.

It's sad that the present season, Jake's last as a UNC fan, had to be one of the poorest sports years in recent Carolina athletic seasons. But the author of "Carolina Caravan" looked with enthusiasm to the coming years when the football team faces its toughest schedule ever, when the talented freshman basketball players join the varsity, when the tennis team returns all of its top men in quest of an unbeaten season, when the baseball team should return to higher position, and when the so-called minor sports cease to be minor in every sense of the word.

Baseball Frosh Continue To Roll

By LOUIS ROTHENTHAL
Frank Gallagher, batting an even .500 for the season, knocked a single, a double and a three-run homer, to lead the Tar Babies to a 10-3 win over the State College frosh, Wednesday at Raleigh. Gallagher and Ken Willard, who went three-for-three, got half of the freshmen's hits, while Bill Dannemann scattered eight hits in getting his fifth victory against no defeats.

Dannemann struck out 10, and allowed only two earned runs, on Jerry Morris's round-tripper, as he was in control of the game throughout.

The freshmen started the scoring in the second, when Ron Barlow singled, and scored on Dannemann's two-bagger. Dannemann's runner, Ron Stanley, came home when Dick Fleming's grounder was misplayed by the State third baseman, and overturned.

The Tar Babies got a run in the third, when Willard scored while Billy Taylor was caught in a "hot-box."

In the fifth, Willard walked and went to third on Gallagher's double. Ken Boykin then knocked Willard home with a single.

The Wolflets got a run back in the sixth, but in the eighth, the Carolina frosh took off.

Taylor reached first on an error. Barlow got his second single and Bobby Reagan doubled home Taylor. Dannemann scored Barlow on a sacrifice fly, and Fleming knocked home Reagan.

Willard doubled, putting runners on second and third, as Gallagher came to bat, and he responded by knocking a 360-foot home run to sew up the game.

Gallagher now leads the Tar Babies with RBI's with 16, followed by Willard and Jerry Clark with 13. Bobby Reagan has 11.

The slugging right-fielder from Chester, Pa., also is the leading hitter, with a .500 average. Fleming follows with a .340, and Merle Krueger is next at .333. Barlow rounds out the top hitters with a .305.

Fleming also leads in doubles with 40, and Bill Taylor's 2 triples are also tops.

The pitching staff has also done its share of hitting for the Tar Babies. Dannemann leads with a .357 and 6 RBI's. Walton Ward is next with a .333.

The moundsmen have also done a great job on the hill, as Dannemann and Ward together have eight wins and no defeats. Jerry Davis has picked up 4 wins and only one loss.

Dannemann leads the ERA department also, with a 1.70. Jerry Davis follows at 2.05, and Ward is third at 2.82.

The Tar Babies now have a 13-3 record and are 7-2 in the "Little Big Four." Last year's frosh won the title, and the Tar Babies need to beat State today at Chapel Hill to cop the title again.

They played Oak Ridge yesterday and end the season at Wilmington Saturday. They beat Oak Ridge, 4-0, behind Davis, and took two from Wilmington, 10-8 and 6-1.

Joe White started for the Tar Babies yesterday and either Ward or Davis will go today, with the other pitching in Wilmington Saturday.

finishing second and Gabe Manasse taking third.

WANT OLD NYLONS
SALISURY, Southern Rhodesia (UPI) — The Southern Rhodesian Wildlife Conservation Department appealed Wednesday for donations of old nylon stockings. The stockings will be used in the rescue of wild animals trapped on islands by the rising waters of man-made Lake Kariba.

Blue Imps Dominate Freshman Track

Ronnie Jackson, a fleet-footed freshman halfback during the football season, and Ray Kernodle were the only North Carolina freshmen to capture first places in the Big Four frosh track meet held at Durham Wednesday. Jackson won the 100-yard dash and Kernodle took first in the broad jump.

Duke's Blue Imp cindermen won nine of the 16 events to dominate the meet, but no official team scores were kept. Wake Forest's best freshman track team in years finished second, unofficially, with N.C. State and UNC in a close battle for third.

The frosh from Duke finished tops in the mile run, high hurdles, high jump, javeline, 880, discus, pole vault, low hurdles, and mile relay.

440 relay: Wake Forest (Craver, Hartley, Minner, Dunlap) 44.1. Mile: Weisiger (D), Jacobsen (D), Raylor (WF), 4:29.9.

440: Phillips (WF), Flowers (D), Jones (WF), 51.7. 100: Jackson (UNC), Dunlap (WF), Craver (WF), 10.4.

High hurdles: Fogle (D), Maguire (WF), Corn (NCS), 51.1. High jump: Mann (D), tie for second between Tison (D), Barnes (D), Corn (NCS), Martin (WF), 5.6 feet.

Shot: Sasser (NCS), Loy (NCS), Feder (UNC), 47-10 1/2. Javeline: Furlong (D), Boyd (UNC), Kaveny (NCS), 177-2 1/4. 880: Jacobsen (D), tie for second between Whichard (UNC) and Nichols (WF), 2:02.3. 220: Hartley (WF), Craver (WF), Myers (D), 22.3.

Broad jump: Kernodle (UNC), Maguire (WF), Cooper (D), 21-6. Discus: Berry (D), tie for second between Warren (UNC) and Sasser (NCS), 127-5 1/2.
