Lankford Gets Three Goals As Booters Top State, 6-1

UVA Is Dangerous: Cheek

By MICKEY BLACKWELL
"The University of Virginia is one of the most dangerous and experienced teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference this year," says UNC head football scout Emmett Cheek.

Speaking at Carolina's weekly press luncheon, Cheek pointed out that Virginia has eight seniors and three juniors on the starting team.

Carolina's Tar Heels invade Scott Stadium in Charlottesville Saturday for an ACC encounter.

The Chapel Hillians sport a 2-5 record, while the Cavaliers have won four and lost two—the best record in years for a UVA team at this stage of the season. If the Cavaliers win another game this season, they will have their best record since 1952 when they were 8-2.

However, the Tar Heels are favored to take this game. Carolina hasn't lost to the men from Charlottesville since 1957.

Cheek had special praise for UVA quarterback Gary Cuzzo whom he called "a good runner and an excellent passer."

Halfbacks who caught the eye of Cheek were Terry Sieg and Robert Freeman. "Both of these boys have caught a lot of passes this year," he said.

UNC head coach Jim Hickey said that he plans only one lineup change Saturday when the Tar Heels hope to bounce back from their 17-6 defeat to Clemson last week. Hickey said that Ronnie Jackson, who received a bad hip injury in the Clemson game, would not be able to play. Ron Tuthill will move up to Jackson's first-team spot.

Ageless Sam Snead Ready For Tourney

Buenos Aires (UPI)—Slammin' Sam Snead, admitting that "I must be coming apart at the seams now that I'm 50," promised today he will ignore a painful right foot and compete in the International trophy and Canada cup golf matches starting today.

"After all, this might be my last shot at this one so some pain isn't going to keep me from playing," Snead said. "There is not a chance in the world that I will withdraw."

Snead has a pinched nerve between the second and third toes on his right foot. He has it tightly bandaged.

"It hurts when I walk, but not when I am shooting," Snead explained. "So long as it stays that way, I'll be all right."

So far it certainly hasn't affected his game in practice rounds for the big International tourney, which will see two-man teams from 33 nations competing for the individual and team trophies.

The U. S. team of Snead and Arnold Palmer is favored. Snead fired a six-under-par 64 over the Jockey Club course in Tuesday's practice round while Palmer, playing the course for the first time, carded an even par 70.

The veteran West Virginia pro shot both nines in 32 to tie the course record set by Antonio Cerdia of Argentina in the 1956 Argentine open.

Snead is defending the individual title he won last year in Puerto Rico with a record low score of 272 for the 72-hole tourney. He has shared in three of the four team titles the U. S. has won in this competition, being held for the 10th time. He paired with Ben Hogan to win it in 1956, with Palmer in 1960 and with Jimmy Demaret last year.

Palmer has not played in competition since mid-September when he appeared in the Seattle open. He has played since then, but only in exhibition and friendly practice rounds.

Russian Basketball Team Prepares For U. S. Series

NEW YORK (UPI)—If the Russians win a majority of games on their basketball tour of the United States, they will consider themselves as having passed the Americans in their own port.

At least that's the opinion of Stiepan Spandarian, coach of the Soviet Union men's team.

"As far as we know," he said, "this is the best amateur team the United States has to offer."

Spandarian said he was unaware of any controversy in the United States over the makeup of the American team, consisting of AAU and armed services personnel. Many contend that the Americans could field a better team from college players and thus be in a better position to defend their standing as the world's No. 1 basketball country.

Spandarian said his squad, which opens its eight-game tour at Madison Square Garden Thursday night, was chosen from among 24 teams which competed in the Soviet na-

Reston Gets 13th Tally In Victory

RALEIGH—North Carolina's soccer team took an easy 6-1 victory from an improved N. C. State bunch yesterday as Frank Lankford poured in three goals.

The Wolfpack booters covered high scorer Jim Reston all afternoon and held him to one goal, but Lankford showed the Raleigh men that Carolina wasn't a one-man show.

Reston's goal, his 13th of the season, moved him to within three goals of the school scoring record. John Ghanin set the 16-goal record in 1959. Reston still has games with Duke and Maryland left, giving him a good chance of hitting or bettering the mark.

Hermon Pranke and co-captain Bob Kepner also added goals to the Tar Heel attack.

The victory gave Marvin Allen's performers a 6-1 mark for the season. This win didn't count in Atlantic Coast Conference standings, since UNC has already defeated State, 9-1, in the regularly scheduled contest.

In that first battle Reston poured five goals into the net. Almost half of his goals, six, have come at the hands of State.

The Tar Heels travel to Maryland next Monday for their next conference engagement.

Kappa Sigs, ATO Romp In Playoffs

By STUART BALL
The Fraternity Blue League moved a step closer to crowning its 1962 champion as the second round of the single elimination playoffs was completed Tuesday.

Favored Kappa Sig swamped DU, 36-0, with four players breaking in to the scoring column. Dave Fletcher accounted for three TD's and Wally Kirtley, Jerry Helms, and Pete Farrior also scored in the romp. By virtue of the seedings this victory by the Kappa Sigs will pit them against the SAE's in the next round, and the winner of that contest could very well be the '62 Champion.

ATO continued its unbeaten ways as it scored its fourth straight victory. The opponent this time was St. Anthony Hall and the score was 42-8. Stu Kagel and Joe Turner each scored twice and George Shepard and Sam Simpson tallied once for ATO. Dick Grant was the lone scorer for St. Anthony.

Sigma Nu also won its fourth straight in beating ZBT 27-7. John Kouri scored twice for the Nus, and Bob Madry and Dick Bramley accounted for one TD each. Larry Fine scored the ZBT's only touchdown of the day in the second half. In two of the closer contests of the day Sigma Chi beat Beta, 12-8, and DKE edged Zeta Psi, 7-6. In the Sigma Chi win Don Murray and Troy Smith scored the 12 winning points, and Punk Reid and Pat Wilson combined a TD and a safety for the eight losing ones. It was Gaston Caperton's point after touchdown that was the margin of victory for DKE. The PAT came after a TD by Clay Moore.

Intramural Wrestling comes to an end tonight as the finals begin at 7:30 in Woollen Gym. Matches in classes ranging from 123 pounds to the unlimited class will be held in Dorm, Fraternity, and Grad Divisions.

Highlights should be in the 147, 177, and unlimited classes of the Fraternity Division. In the 147 class John Ulfelder of Pi Lamb takes on Bob Kepner of KA in what should be a real scrap.

McKay Is Named Coach Of Week

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The coach knew the opposition's strength lay in its defensive line, but in a maneuver designed to give his own team a psychological advantage he called for an end run on the first play of the game—and it worked.

Fleet Willie Brown sped by Washington players for six yards. Fullback Ben Wilson made two on the next play and Southern California unleashed a surprising ground attack to defeat the Huskies, 14-0, Saturday.

It possibly was USC's biggest victory in the past five years, keeping the Trojans undefeated after six games and all but clinching the treasured Rose Bowl bid of the Big Six champion.

And for that victory—and the strategic moves that made the win possible—John McKay of USC today was named United Press Internationals' College "Coach of the Week."

McKay's game plan stunned Washington. Expecting the Trojans to exploit their excellent passing attack, Washington was set up with only one linebacker and four deep men.

SP Caucus
There will be an SP Caucus at 6:45 tonight in Roland Parker Lounge at GM. All new legislators are urged to attend.
