

A-Shape

A Jumper of great talent. Genius, maybe. The whipped-cream corduroy, the fit and the A-Shaping give it fluid gentleness in motion. The easy useful air gives it confidence. Nothing disturbs the Ladybug, purity of line but great pockets, and a rolled belt to knot (or not). Corduroy. Ivory or Olive.

Baptist Student Union Sets Work Party Saturday At 1

The UNC Baptist Student Union will sponsor a student work party for the benefit of its LISTEN program this Saturday from 1-6 p.m.

Students will do a variety of jobs at the request of and in the homes of townspeople. Work for which they will be available includes everything from baby sitting to window washing. The money they earn will be contributed to the BSU LISTEN fund.

Townspeople who have work to offer and any UNC student who wishes to participate in the work party should call the Baptist Student Union at 942-4266 for further information.

LISTEN, which stands for Love

Cort Awarded Reed Prize

The Walter Reed Award for meritorious achievement in tropical medicine has gone this year to Dr. William Walter Cort, a research professor and consultant in Parasitology at UNC.

The medal and citation were presented at the annual meeting of the American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene, held this month in Atlanta, Ga.

In awarding the medal, Dr. Justin Andrews of the United States Public Health Service cited the early work done by Dr. Cort on hookworm disease and ascariasis, an infectious, parasite-caused disease. He also pointed to Dr. Cort's long service as a teacher of parasitology in Johns Hopkins' School of Hygiene and Public Health and at UNC.

Student Party Meets Tonight

The Student Party program for the remaining of the semester will be the topic of discussion at the Student Party meeting to be held tonight at 7:00 in Howell Hall.

According to Student Party Chairman Robin Britt, the following topics will come under consideration: (1) The Student Party Banquet—Plans have been made to hold a Student Party Banquet on December 1. SP alumni will receive letters concerning the banquet. Al Lowenstein, former President of NSA, will be the speaker. (2) Re-election of Freshman Class President.

(3) The bill to submit to the electorate a constitutional amendment establishing the right of Legislature to consider resolutions. This discussion was begun at a previous meeting and is especially important since the bill will probably come before Legislature Thursday night.

(4) The Bill to Purchase a bus for Student Government.

(5) The project to procure an artist-in-residence for UNC A sergeant-at-arms for the party will also be elected at this meeting.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANIES SALUTE: ROY MOORE

Roy Moore (B.B.A., 1958) is responsible for 51,000 telephone customers served from Southwestern Bell's San Antonio office. To efficiently keep tabs on the nearly $700,000 monthly billing, Roy has a staff of 24 people including four supervisors.

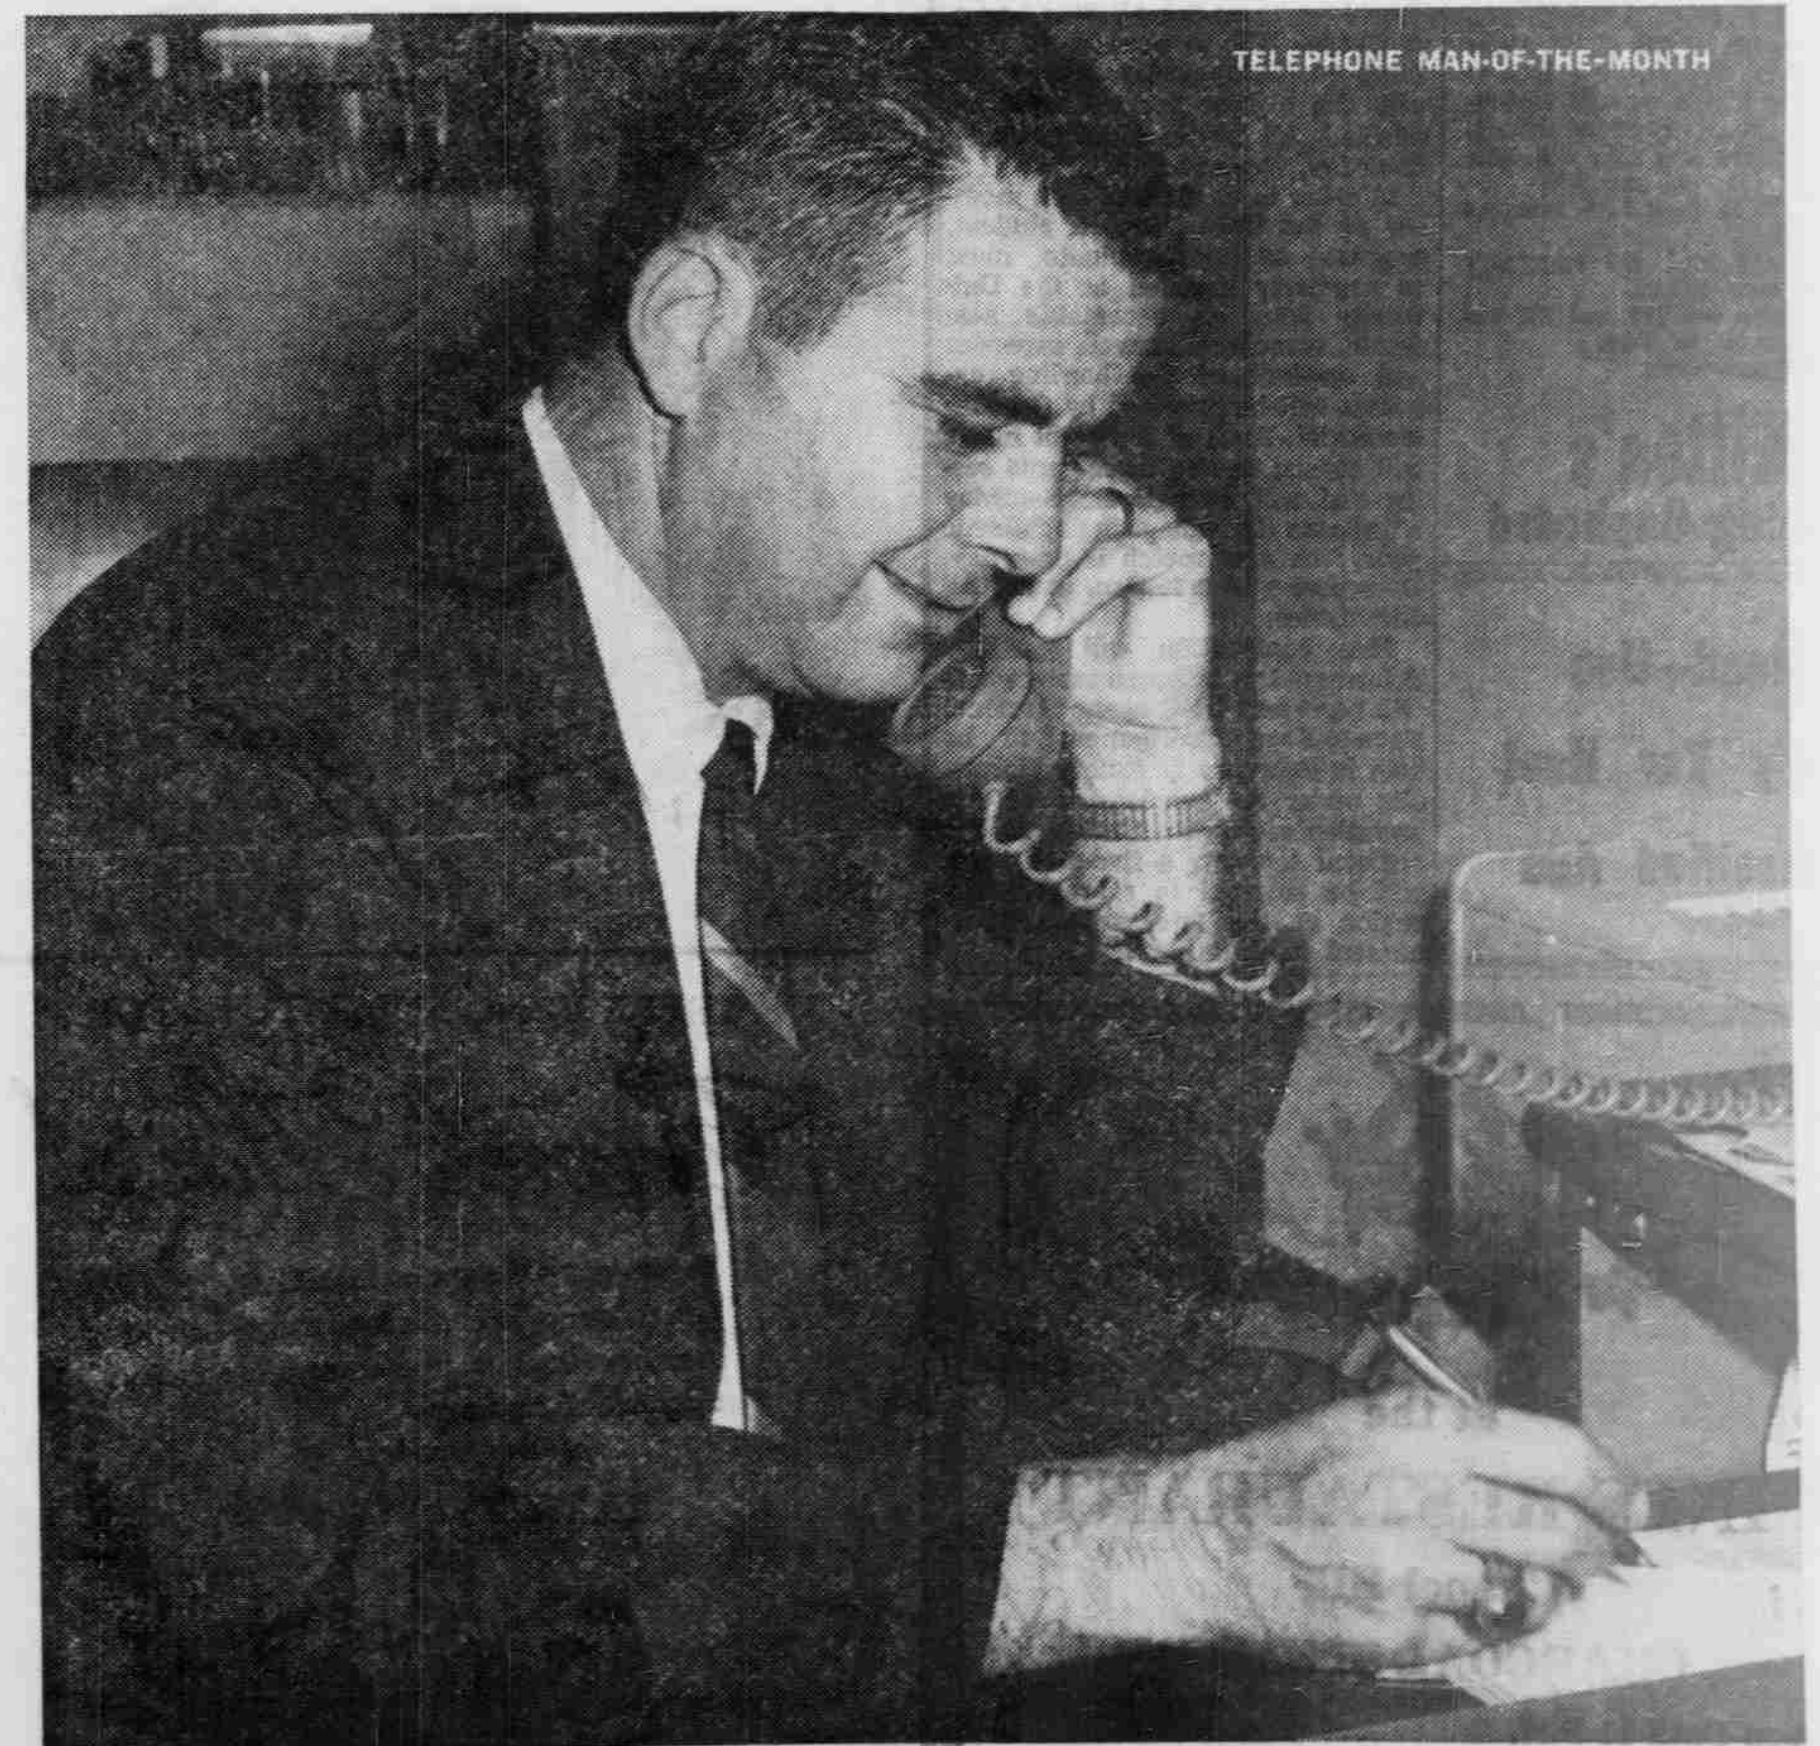

A lot of responsibility, but Roy showed he could handle it right from his first assignment as a Staff Assistant in the Houston Sales Department. From there, he progressed to Commercial Assistant, and then to Group Manager for ten exchanges around Cuero, Texas.

Roy Moore and other young men like him in Bell Telephone Companies throughout the country help bring the finest communications service in the world to the homes and businesses of a growing America.
