

Tar Heels Visit South Carolina

Poteet, Brown Lead Balanced Offense

By ED DUPREE

UNC's Tar Heels, boasting a scoring balance unequalled in the Atlantic Coast Conference, go after their third win of the young basketball season tonight against South Carolina.

Game time for the Carolina-Gamecock clash is 8 p.m. in Columbia's Carolina Field House.

North Carolina is 2-0 for the season. The Roosters, in the midst of a rebuilding program under new coach Chuck Noe, have defeated only small Erskine while losing to Duke and Georgia.

Dean Smith's men defeated Georgia easily, then topped Clemson in UNC's conference opener.

Yogi Poteet paces the Tar Heel Scorers with a 17.5 average, but five more players have contributed greatly to the team's two victories.

Charlie Shaffer, playing his first full season of basketball, is right behind Poteet with a 16-point average. Larry Brown, co-captain with Poteet, has hit for 15.5 a game.

The Tar Heel backcourt combination, seniors Brown and Poteet, have tallied 66 points, but the big men have done their share.

Ray Respass has a 9-point average, just below double figures. Billy Cunningham, the sensational freshman of last year, leads the team in rebounds with 33—each time he had to match talents with much taller men. The New Yorker has also hit for an 8-point average.

Reserve—or "sixth starter"—Mike Cooke completes the balanced scoring attack with a 7.5 mark.

The Tar Heels have a good reason for wanting to trim the Columbians. Last year, in Charlotte, the southerners took a 97-82 victory. Then, in the first round of the ACC tournament last spring, Bob Steven's men won again, 57-55.

Stevens, after guiding his team to a 15-12 record and USC's first winning season since 1957, accepted another coaching offer and South Carolina got Noe from Virginia Tech where he had made the Gobblers into a basketball powerhouse.

Back from last year's top five are 6-3 guard Ronnie Collins and 6-1 guard Scotti Ward. The other three starters, Art Whisnant, Bud Cronin and Bobby Robinson, graduated—thus Noe has quite a job in store for him.

Reserves returning are guards Bill Yarborough and Terry Lucansky and forwards Bob Haney and Dave Prevoznik. Prevoznik and soph John Gorsage, at 6-6, will be the biggest men in tonight's game.

Other sophs hoping to fill the three big vacancies are Dennis Ostaszewski, a forward, and Richard Grich, a guard. Gorsage, Ostaszewski and Grich are up from a yearling team that won only one game last year.

The Tar Heels lead the series, which started in 1918, 37-13.

Frosh Tankmen Set Two Marks In Easy Victory

Taking first places in all but one event and second places in all but two, the Tar Baby swimmers won their opening meet of the season against East Carolina College Thursday at Greenville, 78-15. Two freshman school records were broken—in the 200-yard butterfly and the 500-yard freestyle.

Fred Lipp set a new record in the 200-yard butterfly with 2:14.2 time, bettering by 2.7 seconds Barry King's 1960 mark.

Versatile Tom Murphy set another record in the 500-yard freestyle by turning in a time of 5:35.5, five seconds better than Jon Webber's old record.

In the 400-yard medley relay, the team of Al Schreiber, Dick Boardman, Lipp and Taylor won easily. Lipp joined John Sheldon, Dickie Chance, and Tom Bennett in the 400-yard free-style relay for another first.

Sheldon capped a first in the 200-yard freestyle and Bennett picked up second. Murphy and Chance turned in the same one-two performance in the 50-yard freestyle. Rick Forum and Sandy McNairy also did a one-two job in the 200-yard individual medley.

Diving was the only event where the tankmen didn't manage a first place. Paul Donohue of ECC placed first in this event, followed by the UNC team of Guy Smith and Charlie Brian.

The 100-yard freestyle went to Sheldon and Chance with one-two finishes and Schreiber and McNairy wheeled the same trick in the 200-yard backstroke.

Rick Forum pulled up one-tenth of a second short of the school record in the 200-yard breaststroke in a first place finish of 2:33.7 as Boardman took a strong second.

Coach Alan Gentry, in his debut, was pleased with the overall effort and thought the team gained needed confidence, as well as valuable experience. The next freshman meet will be December 15 at 1:30 p.m. against J. H. Rose High School of Greenville in Bowman Gray Pool.

IN-SERVICE TRAINING
Dr. Harris Tindall, Associate Physician of the UNC Infirmary Staff, will speak on "Health Services of the University" Monday, Dec. 10 at 4:30 p.m. in 105 Hanes Hall.

STATISTICS COLLOQUIUM
Dr. Ronald S. Burdick of the Duke University Department of Mathematics will address the Statistics Colloquium on Monday, Dec. 10 at 4:00 in 265 Phillips Hall. His topic will be "Stage-by-Stage Modification of Polynomial Estimators by the Jackknife Method."

Student Athletic Council Honors Yogi Poteet

Athlete Of The Week

By ED DUPREE

George (Yogi) Poteet returned to Carolina basketball last week in the opener against Georgia and made area sports writers sit up and take notice.

After missing last season because of scholastic ineligibility, the Hendersonville senior scored 21 points and sparked the Tar Heels to an 89-64 victory.

But it wasn't all that easy. Yogi's father died at his home in Hendersonville two days before UNC's game. Mr. Poteet's last wish was that his son play in Saturday's game, regardless.

Yogi told Dean Smith later that the only thing his Dad had to look forward to was the coming basketball season. His father's sickness was incurable.

Poteet, regarded as one of the top defensive men in the Atlantic Coast conference two years ago, is now the man to watch in the league scoring race. It's unlikely that he will win the title since he has four men in the lineup with him who can hit 20 points on any given night, but he'll be near the top.

A sociology major, Yogi has one of the deadliest one-hand jump shots in the league. He and Larry Brown, the co-captains, seem destined to be one of the top backcourt combinations in the south, if not the nation.

Yogi was a star athlete in two sports at Hendersonville—basketball and football. He could have played college football, but preferred the round ball game.

OFF AGAIN, ON AGAIN
"Vertigo," the Free Flick originally scheduled for tonight and later cancelled, was rescheduled and will be shown at 7:30 and 9:30 this evening.

The Alfred Hitchcock film starring Kim Novak and James Stewart, is a thriller about a beautiful young woman and her fear of heights. It has been called "Hitchcock's masterpiece."

I.D. cards will be required at the door.

A charm bracelet with the initials "M.A.M." on one of the charms as the only identifying factor. If found, please call Andy Anderson, 968-9167. Reward.

Frosh Cagers Play

By CURRY KIRKPATRICK

Ken Rosemond sends his freshman basketball team into its first ACC test tonight when the Tar Babies battle South Carolina at Columbia.

In the Tar Babies' first two games (74-52 and 64-50 victories over Wilmington College and Edwards Military Institute, respectively), the scoring attack was considerably balanced.

Mark Mirken leads the point parade on 13 of 27 from the floor and two of five from the free throw line for a total of 28 points. Bob Bennett is right behind Mirken with 26 points. Bennett has hit 12 of 26 field goals and two of three free throws for his total. He has rebounded 14 times.

Bennett Right Behind
Bill Harrison has scored 19 points on seven of 11 floor shots and five of 10 from the charity stripe. The slim Rocky Mount native has also contributed 12 rebounds.

Iannarella May Start
The freshmen, lagging and floundering in that second game, were put on the right track by little Mike Iannarella. A fine ball-handler and playmaker, may get the nod tonight at a starting guard position.

Sigmon Paces Parker Romp

Now in its final phase, the Grail Mural Basketball Tournament has been narrowed down to 16 teams. In Thursday's action two-point wins by Phi Chi and the Beta Blues over the Sigma Nu Blues and Med School-II team were the closest games of the day, and the 46-26 Craigie B-I win over AK Psi was the most one-sided.

High-scoring honors went to Gene Sigmon of the Parker Plummers with 17. Sigmon was the mainstay in Parker's 38-33 comeback win over the Law Shysters, and established them as the team to beat in the Playoffs.

Dolphins Host Roosters Today

By ED DUPREE

Coach Pat Earey's varsity swimmers meet their second straight opponent from South Carolina this afternoon at 3 in Bowman Gray Pool.

Today's opponent, the University of South Carolina, has only two lettermen back from last year—Joe Hullings and Steve Smith. Jimmy Ratliff coaches the Gamecocks.

Last night the Blue Dolphins played host to Clemson College. Earey's men already hold victories over VMI and East Carolina.

Missing from the Tar Heel lineup will be sophomore star Harrison Merrill. Merrill, who delighted the coaches with his record-breaking frosh performances, suffered third-degree burns on his hand in a chemistry lab this week and won't be swimming tonight.

Earey hopes to have his ace breastroker back in the water soon with a rubber glove covering the bandages on his hand.

Pete Swift, counted on to be one of the top breastrokers this season, is recovering from tonsillitis and won't be ready for a while. Freestyler Dick Woodrow, backstroker and freestyler Thompson Mann, breastroker Willie Bloom—the team's captain, distance man Frank Lea and Barry King in the individual medley are big men for the Dolphins.

Relay men, in addition to Mann, are Joe Mumshaw, Tate Kemper, Harry Schiffman, Thad Adams, Scott Smiley and Woodrow, the team's high scorer.

Molly Snead Wins

Molly Snead of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority saved her best for the finals of the Women's Athletic Association table tennis tournament and won the championship easily.

Miss Snead defeated Missy Vorus of Alpha Delta Pi sorority, 21-3, 21-9. The KKG entrant bested Susan Mott of the Nurses' Dorm, 21-12, 21-12, in the semifinals.

Sixty-four coeds participated in the tournament.
