Foreign Student Visits Capital

"It looks like a European capital because of the parks and avenues," a foreign student here said about Washington, D. C.

Antonio Munoz was one of the five foreign students studying in the United States who were chosen to represent their respective countries at Foreign Student Day in Washington, D. C. last Tuesday. He not only represented Spain but all of Europe.

These five students from Japan, Argentina, Iran and Ghana joined other foreign students studying in Washington to celebrate the annual event sponsored by the Foreign Students Service Council.

The highlight of the day was an address by President Kennedy in which he emphasized the responsibility of foreign students as ambassadors of their respective countries.

Munoz, a Business Administration major, was a Fulbright scholar during his first year in graduate school here.

Piano Recital Slated Today

Dr. William S. Newman of the Music Dept. calls it his "pet." Music majors call it "one of their favorites."

"What are they talking about?" "Original Music for Two Pianos." This petite musicale presentation of Graham Memorial featuring the twin piano recital will be presented tonight at 9 in Hill Music Hall.

Five of Carolina's most talented pianists will present selections by Clementi ("Sonata in B-flat"), Debussy ("En Blanc et Noir") and Brahms ("Variations on a Theme by Haydn").

Those students who will be performing include Sue Wallace, Lynn Duval, Harriet Herring, Tom Glymph, Bill Flicker and William Robinson.

Dr. Newman, co-ordinator for this GM presentation, invites everyone to enjoy a Sunday night of music.

The concert is free and ID cards are not required.

Faculty Pay Raises Said Likely

Faculty members of colleges and universities in North Carolina may get a substantial pay raise in 1963. The state's proposed new budget, which was completed last week, calls for increased salaries for college and faculty members.

Consolidated University President William C. Friday had asked the advisory budget commission for almost $5 million for faculty increases at the three branches of the University. Presidents of the other state operated institutions followed much the same line.

Hugh Cannon, state director of administration, said the summary sheets his department will prepare for the legislature should be finished by Christmas.

The total amount of the state budget for the next biennium will not be released until Gov. Sanford presents it to the legislature.

PEGGY CLOTH BOOKS—Sturdy cloth resists little teeth, and the colorful illustration, printed in non-toxic ink, are just right for little tots. Best of all, these books will stand boiling and washing. Several titles, of which our favorite is "Good Night." $1.00

KATE GREENAWAY MOTHER GOOSE—Although we stock several Mother Goose books, our pet is this little old-fashioned English edition, with its quaint and dainty colored illustrations. $1.50

THE WILD AND WOOLLY ANIMAL BOOK, by Nita Jones, with drawings by Dale Maxey. Our favorite dollar flat. The color is gay, but not obtrusive, the pictures modern but cuddly, and the "story" just enough for a very small person. $1.00

THE LITTLE ENGINE THAT COULD, by Watty Piper. An old favorite in lively new dress, and your child will love it just as much as you used to. $1.50

A TALE OF TAILS, by Elizabeth MacPherson. Another big book with big colored pictures that will delight the small reader. We think Mamma will like it, too. $1.99

THE COMIC LOOKING GLASS, edited by Hart Day Leavitt. A generous collection of comic writing, suitable for the young, by Thurber, Aesop, Benchley, O Henry, and others. $1.95

THE HOUND OF THE BASKERVILLES, by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. A wonderful introduction to the world of "grown-up books," that will keep the young reader on his toes. $1.95

STARTING A ROCK AND MINERAL COLLECTION by Miriam Gilbert. A nice little flat book for the youngster who is old enough to collect. We recommend it for that eight-year-old boy on your list. $1.00

Marlboro Country

In all 50 states, the big switch is to Marlboro

Remember 1955, when Marlboro came to town? Suddenly, the U.S. had a flavor cigarette with a filter on the end. Sales grew in every town, in every state. Today the whole place is Marlboro country—land of the filter cigarette with the unfiltered taste. Behind this popularity is the famous Richmond recipe of ripe tobaccos (the finest grown), and the pure white Selectate Filter. Pack or box, you get a lot to like.

Marlboro Sold and enjoyed in all 50 states and in more than 100 countries around the world
