

Tar Heels Pressed Hard To Beat Birds, 75-65

Soccer Team Looks Ahead To Promising '63 Season

By MARTIN KRUMING

Throughout the world from Spain to Hawaii soccer is one of the leading spectator sports. At Carolina this fast moving, highly competitive game takes a back seat to football, basketball, and baseball.

This fall head Coach Marvin Allen guided the Tar Heels to an 8-2 record and a second place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The only losses were to perennial champion Maryland, 7-0, and Eastern powerhouse Navy, 4-0. The Terrapins, representing the South in the NCAA championship playoffs, breezed past Pittsburgh and Springfield before bowing to St. Louis, 4-3, in the finals. In that final game Maryland was leading, 3-2, at halftime.

The highlight of the campaign was the victory over Duke, 1-0. Realizing the offensive might of the Blue Devils, and having been crushed by Maryland only four days before, Carolina needed this game to close out its best season since 1959. That year UNC was 9-1.

Led by co-captains Charlie Battle and Peter Blake, 1963 should be an exciting one for the Tar Heels. Both Maryland and Duke invade Fetzer Field.

Battle, an English major from Miami, has been a starter at right fullback for two seasons. His best games this fall were against Duke and Maryland. Blake, a native of Rumson, N. J., was all-ACC right wing in 1961. Both players are Morehead scholars.

Missing from this fall's starting forward line will be co-captain Bob Kemper at left wing, high scoring center forward Jimmy Reston and "Flying Dutchman" Herman Prakte at right inside.

Only co-captain Bill Snyder at center fullback is missing in the backfield.

The freshman squad, whose 7-0 slate was the first undefeated one since soccer was established at Carolina in 1946, produced some outstanding players.

"He did as much for the team as anybody and showed a lot of potential," said Coach Bob DeVogt of his co-captain and right halfback, Danny Galves.

Drew Murphy, the leading Tar Baby scorer with 12 goals and 7 assists should be of tremendous help to the varsity at center forward next season. "He passes beautifully and his head won two or three games for us," commented DeVogt.

DeVogt also singled out his starting left wing, Mac Skelly. With seven goals to his credit, Skelly was praised as being able to play any position on the forward line.

The squad's best game was against Warren Wilson Junior College, a team which had not lost a contest in three years. "I had my doubts about this one but the boys came through beautifully," said DeVogt.

"The players worked hard for me and came from behind in four of the seven ball games," DeVogt remarked. "Each time a goal was scored against them and the team would huddle in the center of the field and rise to the occasion."

DeVogt, in his first year of coaching, is a graduate of Brockport State Teachers' College, near Rochester, N. Y. Brockport was number one nationally in 1955 and has been in the top ten each year since then. DeVogt was a member of the all New York State soccer team in 1961 and was offered a contract to play in Canada.

"My one aim is to coach in college," he said.

The personable coach is quite a psychologist. At the beginning of the season he announced that he would wear the same shirt and Tar Heel suit each game until the team was defeated, and promised that the players could throw him in the shower if they went undefeated. So when the bus returned with a 4-1 win over Duke, DeVogt was hoisted on the players' shoulders and dumped into the swimming pool during the middle of varsity practice. Head swimming coach Pat Earey was speechless.

Swimmers Crush Roosters 59-32 For Fifth Win

By JOEL BULKLEY

Carolina's varsity swimmers continued their winning ways yesterday, registering a 59-32 triumph over an under-manned University of South Carolina team for their fifth straight victory of the year.

The Blue Dolphins scored first places in all but two of the day's 11 events as they capped their second win in as many days. Friday night they topped the Clemson varsity, 65-29, taking all but one of the first-place honors.

Since there was no opposition the relay team of Jim Huffman, Harry Schuffman, Tate Kemper and Harry Mummaw won the 400-yard medley event to begin the afternoon. Barry King, who took first in Friday's individual medley race, added a first in the 200-yard freestyle race yesterday, with Chip Smith taking third.

Howard Cone scored first in the 50-yard freestyle with Dick Woodrow third. Woodrow finished first in the 100-yard freestyle. Captain Willie Bloom won the 200 individual medley. Larry Roberts captured the butterfly event, and Thompson Mann and Joe Huffman finished first and second in the backstroke.

Thad Adams and Mike Bissell were one-two in the 20-lap freestyle event while Earl Bradford won the breaststroke event.

Al Biggs and the freestyle relay team of Hulings, Evans, McDaniel and Fitzpatrick were the only victors for the visitors from USC. Biggs was the only entry in the diving competition.

In Friday's meet against Clemson, the Tar Heels swept first places in all but the butterfly event.

Coach Pat Earey commented yesterday that "the team was coming along especially well and looks better time-wise at this stage of the season than any other I have seen here." He added that he was happy that he had been able to give all his swimmers a chance in the past few meets.

The varsity travels to Durham Wednesday afternoon for a meet with the Duke Blue Devils.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation will meet tonight at 8:30 in the basement of the University Methodist Church.

Bill Cunningham Tops UNC Scorers With 18 Markers

COLUMBIA, S. C.—North Carolina, betrayed by its shooting eyes all night long, finally had to rely on fast break lay-ups and free throws in the last five minutes last night to edge stubborn South Carolina, 75-65.

The Tar Heels, scratched, mauled and shaken by USC's supposed-hapless Gamecocks, held only slim 60-56 lead at the 15:35 mark of the second period before they could get going.

Then the dam burst. Charlie Shaffer started things off for UNC with two foul shots. Larry Brown then stole a pass from the Gamecock's Scotti Ward and went in for a three-point play. This put the Tar Heels up by nine at 65-56. Shaffer then applied the finishing touches as he raced down on the lead end of two more fast breaks which gave UNC an unsurmountable 69-56 margin.

Ward and Ronnie Collins, the only returning veterans for new coach Chuck Noe's South Carolina club, had kept the Gamecocks in contention up to those last five minutes.

Collins, who was high point man for the night with 22, brought South Carolina from a 46-55 deficit midway through the final period with some deadly shooting.

The USC cause was furthered by Ward's fine floor play. The 6-2 guard contributed 17 points before fouling out just before UNC's closing streak.

Carolina was also hampered by foul trouble.

Billy Cunningham, on whose shoulders may rest the fate of the Tar Heels, was eliminated on infractions with about eight minutes remaining in the game. Before he left, however, the big Brooklyn Jumping Jack had scored 18 big points—by far his best production to date.

Ray Respass, the 'Heels' other highly-regarded rookie, also came up with a fine game—both point and rebound-wise.

Respass scored 14 and, with Shaffer and Billy Galantai, continually came down with important rebounds while Cunningham was on the bench.

UNC's troubles with its pesky rival started early.

South Carolina gave the Tar Heels all kinds of trouble in the first half.

From an early deadlock, Larry Brown drove for a three-point play which gave UNC a 7-4 lead.

Carolina then started to apply the pressure, largely due to the efforts of its two fine starting sophomores, Cunningham and Respass.

Cunningham hit a foul shot, Respass threw in two long jumpers, and Cunningham came right back with a tap-in to boost his team's lead to 16-11.

Charlie Shaffer drove to a basket for a seven-point lead, but then the Gamecocks started to roll with Ronnie Collins leading the way.

Collins proceeded to hit five straight points on a rebound and a drive sandwiched around a free throw.

Mike Cooke and Respass then threw in back to back jumpers, but two foul shots from Jimmy Collins and two fast-break buckets by Ronnie Collins tied the score at 22.

That's the way they went to the end of the half, when Ward canned a long jumper with two seconds remaining to deadlock the game at 31.

SCORING:

North Carolina (75) Shaffer 12, Respass 14, Cunningham 18, Brown, 12, Poteet 14, Cooke 4, Galantai, 1, Krause 0.

South Carolina (65) R. Collins, 22, Yarbrough 10, Gorsage 5, J. Collins 11, Ward 17, Haney 0, Lucanski 0.

Baltimore Whips Redskins 34-21 On Late Passes

BALTIMORE (UPI)—The Baltimore Colts, sparked by the touchdown passing of Johnny Unitas, exploded for three scores in the final period Saturday to beat the Washington Redskins 34-21 in a sea-saw Memorial Stadium battle witnessed by 56,964.

The inter-division National Football League game was a duel between master passers Unitas and Washington's Norm Snead, with all the touchdowns but one scored via the air.

Unitas, recapturing the form that made him an all-pro and playing perhaps his best game of the season, threw for four touchdowns and set up another with a 22-yard run. He also established a new completion record for himself, hitting on 25 of 36 passes for a total of 367 yards.

Snead, in only his second year with the NFL, passed for three touchdowns and kept pace with Unitas until the Colts' big last quarter. Snead's record for the day was 18 out of 33 for a total of 351 yards.

Baltimore 0 14 0 20-34
Washington ... 7 7 7 0-21

Wash. — Jackson 85 pass from Snead, R. Khyat kick.

Balt.—Orr 11 pass from Unitas. Harris kick.

Balt.—Orr 59 pass from Unitas. Harris kick.

Wash.—Dugan 17 pass from Snead, R. Khyat kick.

Wash. — Dugan 20 pass from Snead, R. Khyat kick.

Balt.—Bielski 11 pass from Unitas. Kick failed.

Balt.—Orr 13 pass from Unitas. Bielski kick.

Balt.—Hawkins 2 run. Bielski kick.

Attendance 56,964.

Nugent Named North Coach For Annual Blue-Gray Game

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)—Maryland head Coach Tom Nugent, the man who invented the "I" formation, will match wits with Nebraska's Robert Devaney here Dec. 29 in the silver anniversary performance of the Blue-Gray Bowl.

The two coaches were named to head the North and South squads Saturday and six players were chosen for the two teams. Picked to represent the South were half-back Jimmy Burson, 170 pounds, tackle Winky Giddens, 220, and center Jim Price, 220, all of Auburn.

The nationally televised and broadcast game usually is a wide-open affair where points are piled up like casualties at Gettysburg. Chosen for the North were Nebraska's halfbacks Warren Powers, 192, and Cennis Stuewe, 210, and guard Dwayne Carolsen, 210.

The Blue-Gray Association also announced Charlie Bradshaw, who took over at Kentucky this year, would assist Nugent in coaching the Rebels and Robert Faurst, the split-T wizard from Missouri, would assist the Yanks.

The other coaches are Hank Foldberg of Texas A & M for the Southerners and Bump Elliott of Michigan for the northern invaders.

The nationally televised and broadcast game usually is a wide-open affair where points are piled up like casualties at Gettysburg.

— JUST ARRIVED — especially for the holiday season the finest music for Christmas ...

HANDEL'S
Messiah
THE FAMOUS DUBLIN VERSION
(AVAILABLE IN MONO OR STEREO)
DELUXE PACKAGING • BOXED
COMPLETE ... $11.87
CHEZ KEMP LTD.

When a cigarette means a lot...

get Lots More from L&M

more body in the blend more flavor in the smoke more taste through the filter

It's the rich-flavor leaf that does it! Among L&M's choice tobaccos there's more of this longer-aged, extra-cured leaf than even in some unfiltered cigarettes. And with L&M's modern filter—the Miracle Tip—only pure white touches your lips. Get lots more from L&M—the filter cigarette for people who really like to smoke.

BUY A Sports Gift
MEAN MORE

CONFLICT
A war game without equal! In this engrossing board game, players move ships, planes and guns over land and water areas, each player trying to outmaneuver and outwit all opponents to win. $3.00

PIGSKIN
Considered by coaches and players alike as one of the best football games. The play follows closely to the actual play on the field. $3.00

VOIT
Large Assortment of EXERCISING EQUIPMENT — including bar bells, dumb bells, ISO-KIT, the modern way to keep fit, based on the revolutionary technique of isometric contraction used by outstanding professional and collegiate athletes.

GAME TABLES, poker illustrated. Also carrom boards.
PORTABLE BARS $12.95 to $33.50

the Sport Shop, Inc.
"It Pays to Play"
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.
151 E. Franklin St. Phone 942-4064

Choose his gifts by brand name

The Hub specializes in nationally known names that are respected and represent fine quality. Stop in and look over the wide selection of such popular items as suits by BOTANY 500. Sweaters by JANTZEN. Shirts by VAN HEUSEN and CREIGHTON. Shoes by TAYLOR-MADE and the popular GOLD CUP sock, just to mention a few.

Remember THE HUB will be open until 9 p.m. every night except Saturday.

The HUB

PEANUTS

HE'LL BE LANDING ON TOP OF THE ROOF, YOU SAY?

WITH AN OVERLOADED SLED AND EIGHT REINDEER?

BOY, I DON'T KNOW...

I HAVE A FEELING HE'S GOING TO WISH HE HAD A LONGER LANDING STRIP!

POGO

YOU STILL WORKIN' ON YOUR TEEVY ACT FOR PICE STAMPS?

YER OWL GOT THE GRAND OPENIN' OF OUR JINGLE ALL SET FOR THE CAPITOL!

H'OO HARRY HARRY BOY, YOU GOT THAT PIANO?

THEY STILL ANY NO GOOD? THAT'S THEIR BIG ADVANTAGE!

NOT WORTH A TINKER'S DABURN.

S'POSE SOME MERCHANT DECIDED TO GIVE OUT SOMETHIN' FOR 'EM?

WHO'D BE SO DISHONEST AN' SNEAKY?

WHAT?!

WHAT? NO, I'M SORRY, NONE OF THESE JINGLES IS IN THE KEY OF C.

CAROLINA
NOW PLAYING
FLAMING MUTINY!
DAMN THE DEFIANT!
ALEC GUINNESS
DIRK BOGARDE
ANTHONY QUAYLE