Three Famous One Act Plays To Be Presented By Wesleys

"An evening of three famous one acts" will be presented by the Wesley Players of Duke on December 16, 17, and 18 at 8:15 p.m.

The plays will be presented in the arena at the Methodist Student Center on the Duke campus. The presentation is being made through the combined efforts of students from Duke, Carolina and North Carolina College.

James Gillikin, a Carolina grad student in drama will direct one of the plays, The Bold Soprano, by Eugene Ionesco, which features Sandy Moffett, another Carolina grad student.

Also featured on the program will be "It Shouldn't Happen to a Dog", a Yiddish satire by Wolf Mankowitz, and "The Respectful Prostitute" (La Putain Respectueuse) by Jean-Paul Sartre. The Sartre work will be directed by Buck Roberts, a UNC grad student in drama and TV.

The Methodist Student Center is located between the east and west Campuses just off Myrtle Drive on Oregon Street.

CORRECTION

Sam Blumberg was erroneously reported in the Dec. 6 issue of the DTH as the leader of the independent pickets protesting the appearance of folksinger Pete Seeger Dec. 5. Blumberg was in no way involved in the protest.
