

Seniors Bow Out Tonight Against Cavaliers

★★★ Matmen Meet Virginians

North Carolina's varsity and freshman wrestling teams wrap up their regular seasons this week. They met the wrestlers of Virginia Tech last night and grapple VMI today.

Saturday, the varsity hosts Maryland's powerful Terps in their final match before the ACC meet. Sam Barnes' men lost their third ACC match in a row, 18-16, last Saturday at Duke.

STUDENT LEGISLATURE

Student Legislature will meet at seven o'clock Thursday night on the fourth floor of New West.

ZOOM ZOOM Luncheon Special TODAY

Braised Ox Tail 99c
Strip Steak 99c

Creighton SHIRTMAKERS

Hand Woven Bleedy India Madras in unusual colorings... Darks to brights... Each washing increases the beauty of these native India colors... Of course, our well bred, button-down collar and hanger loop.

THE HUB Of Chapel Hill

Milton's New Spring Presentations

Our new group of dacron polyester-wool blend suits represent our best fitting models in new smart tone combinations.

Solids in char gray; banker's gray, cambridge gray, new sun tan beige, deep navy and black—$56.95.

New array of plaids in ultra smart black/white; medium gray/olive; gray/white/blue; soft olive navy; antiqued gold/black/blue; char gray/maroon; khaki/olive—$59.95.

Many other new spring arrivals.

Milton's

Dodging Captains

Excellent Food Prices You Can Afford!

Serving
Breakfast - Lunch - Dinner
Pines Coffee Shop
Open 7 A.M. to 11 P.M.
Located on the Raleigh Road

TAR HEEL Sportscope

By Ed Dupree

The classiest backcourt combination in the Atlantic Coast Conference will make its final appearance in Chapel Hill against Virginia tonight.

Tar Heel co-captains Larry Brown and Yogi Poteet are among the six seniors who will play their last game in the friendly smallness of Woollen Gym.

UNC's honor roll of basketball players includes a number of outstanding guards — Tommy Kearns, Bob Cunningham, York Larese, Harvey Salz and Donnie Walsh — but the playmaking, scoring and defensive play of Brown and Poteet have contributed greatly to Carolina's winning basketball tradition. They have to be rated among the top UNC guard combinations in the school's history.

Four other Tar Heels — Peppy Callahan, Dieter Krause, Dick Vinroot and Charlie Burns — are playing their last season of basketball. Of the four, only Krause has been a starter. Krause averaged 4.1 as a part-time starter last season, sinking a deadly 57.1 per cent of his shots.

Dieter's father was a boxing champion and in some Carolina hearts, Dieter is too. He is undefeated in his only bout — a freshman contest with Duke.

Dean Smith thinks highly of his reserves. "No group has given more effort than the non-starting seniors. They've been a loyal crew with wonderful spirit."

Two seasons ago — when two Tar Heels were suspended from several games of league play — Callahan volunteered and became the eighth man on the roster. He has been a valuable reserve since then.

Vinroot, the president of the senior class, is the biggest man on the team at 6-8. Burns is a fine shot, but at 6-2, he is one of the smallest forwards in the conference.

Six seniors is a big loss for any basketball team. They'll definitely be missed next season.

North Carolina basketball fans should have been especially pleased with Wichita's upset victory over Cincinnati Saturday night. Ed Jucker's top-ranked Bearcats had won 37 consecutive games over two seasons. They needed a win over Wichita to top UNC's 1956-57 streak of 37. Frank McGuire's national champs won 32 in a row, then added five more wins before falling to West Virginia in the winter of 1957.

Last week was an excellent example of the increasing number of strong basketball teams across the nation. Winning consistently is no longer possible for even the best teams.

Loyola, winner of 21 in a row, fell to Bowling Green, 92-75. Earlier in the week the then 2nd-ranked Chicagoans were pushed to the limit before edging Marquette by two points.

Other top ten teams — five — had similar bad luck during the week.

Even in the Atlantic Coast Conference where the Big Four usually take the top four positions, league balance is becoming more emphasized.

Virginia shocked N. C. State by winning two games from the Pack for the first time in the ACC's history. The Cavaliers have also defeated Maryland and given Duke, UNC and Wake Forest good scares.

Clemson was winless in league play and Wake Forest was unbeaten when the two teams met at Clemson. The Tigers began their climb from last place with a 71-70 upset over the Deacs.

South Carolina has pushed Carolina to the limit twice, before folding in the late stages of the game. Last year the Gamecocks trimmed UNC twice in three outings.

If the regular season play is any indication, all eight teams are capable of winning their opening round game in the tourney. The ACC's season is played in three days, not three months. The first 14 games are only warm-ups for the real thing and next week's eight-team party could turn out to be a surprise party for some unsuspecting coach.

FLU SHOTS

Flu shots are being given at the Infirmary from 9-11:30 and 2-5 p.m. Monday-Friday.

WUNC RADIO, 91.5 FM

Schedule for Wednesday Evening, Feb. 20:
6:00—Masterwork
7:55—Basketball: UNC v. Virginia
10:00—Ten O'Clock Report
10:15—Latin American Press Review
10:30—Some Come to Sing
10:55—News Summary

PATRONIZE YOUR ADVERTISERS

LARRY BROWN, playmaking Tar Heel co-captain, is one of six UNC seniors who will be playing their last game in Woollen Gym tonight. The Tar Heels meet Virginia's Cavaliers, then travel to Duke Saturday for the last regular season contest.

ACC Standings Are Scrambled

The Atlantic Coast Conference will not be without excitement during its final week of regular season play.

The top three positions in the league standings have been sewed up by Duke, Wake Forest and North Carolina, but after that comes a five-way cluster of teams with losing records.

Clemson is currently in fourth place with a 4-7 mark, then comes North Carolina State, 5-9. Maryland, South Carolina and Virginia were tied for last place prior to last night's games with 3-9 records.

Tuesday night Duke went for its 13th straight conference win against Maryland and Clemson met South Carolina.

The bottom five teams are so

Brown, Poteet Play Final Home Game

By CURRY KIRKPATRICK

Billy Cunningham, fly-boy extraordinary, will have to surrender the spotlight tonight when UNC's seniors make their final home appearance in an 8:00 battle against Virginia.

Woollen Gym will echo a sad farewell to starting guards Larry Brown and Yogi Poteet and reserves Peppy Callahan, Dieter Krause, and Charlie Burns and Richard Vinroot.

Brown and Poteet have been two valuable jewels in Coach Dean Smith's UNC success this year. The backcourt pair have combined for slightly over 25 points per game, have usually had the toughest defensive assignments and have run the team machinery to a fine 13-4 record.

Brown, with a 13.7 average, is an odds-on-choice for All-ACC honors—a reward long overdue. His running mate, Poteet, is not far behind (12.8) and it is his long, arching jumpers that Smith will count on tonight and Saturday against Duke.

Alongside Cunningham, Brown and Poteet this evening will gallop Bryan McSweeney and Charlie Shaffer. For Shaffer (averaging 10.4) it will be a welcome return to a basketball floor where he has not appeared in almost three weeks.

Virginia Is 3-9

Virginia's Cavaliers will bring a 3-9 conference record and three high-scoring ballplayers into the game tonight.

Although in last place much of the season, Virginia has, in Gene Engel, Chip Conner and Mac Caldwell, three of the best point-producers in the league.

All are consistently between 16 and 20 points per game, and Engel scored 25 in the Cavaliers' 86-81 loss to UNC earlier this season.

Coach Billy McCann's other two starters will be Mike Greenberg and either Kenny Goble or Gary Spohn.

The game will be somewhat of a finale for McCann. It will be his last in Woollen Gym as a Virginia coach since he has announced his resignation effective at the end of the year.

UNC Bench Strength

UNC's bench strength lies most-

Read—Use
Daily Tar Heel
Classified Ads

(The N. Y. Life agent on your campus is a good man to know)

GEORGE L. COXHEAD, C.L.U.
(Over The Hub) Ph. 942-4358

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

JOHN MEYER OF NORWICH

The John Meyer suit, than which there is nothing more widely welcome. Four-gore skirt, effortless cardigan jacket, both in a firm-textured Dacron polyester and cotton; Heather Pink, Heather Olive, or Frost Blue. The jacket is lined with a pattern of demure and tiny apples in echoing colors. Sizes 6-16.

Town & Campus

Webster's Collegiate Dictionary

We have just learned that there will be a new edition of this dictionary in April.

To clear out our stock of the present edition, we have reduced thumb-indexed copies from $6.00 to $4.89.

REGULAR $5.00 COPIES
NOW
$3.98

THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP

119 East Franklin St.
Open Till 10 P. M.

HURRY ON DOWN

New Studio Cards

Ledbetter Pickard STATIONERS

AUTO SEAT BELTS

$2.85 Per Belt

6,000 lb. test, 100% Nylon Cord & the popular metal-on-metal buckle. Installation in Eastgate during this project for $1.50 (Normal minimum $3.50)

$2.85 is actual cost to Eastgate Merchants, not including the cost of shipping and handling, which the merchants are bearing in the interest of stimulating use of seat belts.

Belts Sold by All Eastgate Shopping Center Merchants As A Public Service

Sorry, we sold out last week—
A New Shipment Has Arrived

We Are Still Here Where Are You?

IMPORTED CARS, Ltd.

Saab Sales American 301 E. Main St.
& Service Oil Carrboro
Products Ph. 942-7151

Nothing rasher for your hair than grease. Let Vitalis with V-7 keep your hair neat all day without grease. Naturally, V-7 is the greaseless grooming discovery. Vitalis with V-7 fights embarrassing dandruff, prevents dryness, keeps your hair neat all day without grease. Try Vitalis today. You'll like it!

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1. Fbc (as potatoes) for gravy
5. Majority
9. To hit: sl.
10. Biblical name
12. "Frome"
13. Concise dweller
14. Solar disk
15. Dump
16. Samaritan: sym.
17. Dispatch
18. "For Sale" notice
19. Melody
20. "The Jazz Singer"
21. Miss Barton
22. Reddish-brown horses
23. Last
24. Actress Gardner
25. Hobo: sl.
26. Be still!
27. Iron: sym.
28. Owns
29. Proprietor
30. Old Norse works
31. Alpaca
32. Gay
33. Silly
34. Frodo
35. Descry
36. DOWN
1. Dull finish
2. Pale
3. Gold

4. Barnyard fowl
5. Bull-fighters
6. Incite
7. Knight's title
8. A school term
9. Popular banquet vegetable
10. Gains knowledge (2 wds.)
11. Reign: sym.
12. India
13. Man's name
14. Scold severely
15. Certain Scotchmen
16. Vessel for heating water
17. Slept, as at one's place of work (2 wds.)
18. Prescription term
19. Hawaiian birds
20. Open, as a bottle
21. Pebble-covered
22. Stockings
23. Boy's name
24. P.I. tree
25. Apple and cheese

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32
33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40
41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48

Saturday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's how to work it:
A K Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation
K XEAIPEZ YV UYLP K OER
YB JYRCPZ JYCIBQC K DQE
AKT—SQVYKR TZBFPZX