

Students Want NCC Student Held Games Played During School

The following opinion survey was taken by the communications committee from a sample of 215 students, living mainly in the Upper Quad. It concerns preexam reading periods, Daily Tar Heel news coverage and the scheduling of sporting events during vacations.

coverage and scheduling of sporttee poll.

The idea of a reading period be- Beaumont, the one at Duke, lasting three or check of the station. four days.

by 38.7% and poor by 20.1%. Na-"sufficient" by 65.7%. The poll also revealed that only 61.6% of the students buy a newspaper other questioning that he had "four or the number of books you can't Dawson said, "It's their choice than the DTH.

For Library Theft

Chapel Hill Police arrested a Most of the books were from the North Carolina College student UNC Library; a few were from the Saturday for the theft of books Chapel Hill Public Library.

from the UNC Library. Weaver said that he had remov-Garrett Weaver, 19, of Chapel ed the books from the University Hill has been charged with larceny, Library in his briefcase. He also placed in Craige dormitory next police said, and released under $100 said that he had never been stop_ year on a strictly optional basis, bond. Arthur Beaumont, chief of the his briefcase examined. A special Long and Freshman Honors Procampus police, said yesterday that permit is ordinarily required for gram advisor, Raymond H. Daw-Weaver was detected by a UNC entrance to the stackes.

student, Robert Moseley, when he Weaver had apparently taken attempted to steal a co-ed's coat from the back of a chair in the NOC According to Resument they in Craige. "Since these students Student opinion concerning a pre- from the back of a chair in the NOC. According to Beaumont they have a very heavy academic load, exam reading period, DTH news stacks of the library. Weaver ad- were largely books dealing in the mitted to Moseley that he was try- social sciences. Weaver's trial will and since many rooms will be ing events were the objects of a ing to steal the coat and told him come before the Recorder's Court tripled next year, we wanted to recent Communications Commit- that he was a student at NCC in on April 16.

Durham. Moseley then called the Chapel Hill Police, according to Book Losses Normal

UNC Librarian Jerrold Orne yes- them."

to in the poll was one similar to by two policemen on a routine "There have been considerable in their rooms instead of having orial Hospital. losses in the Undergraduate Li- to find a place. When he was questioned, Weaver brary before, but a new check-out He said that some of the boys

Students were evenly split on the questioned, weaver brary before, out a new check-out and that some of the boys might like to room with other students where the also admitted the theft of three books from the UNC Library which were found in his briefered file only way to tell when a gram and placing them in Craige lent by 4.9%, good by 36.3%, fair were found in his briefcase. The book is missing," he said, "is would make this possible. books had not been properly check- when it is not on the shelf and it Long said that this move was tional news coverage was called ed out, according to Beaumont. is not charged out to someone. "merely a service offered to the There can only be a general im- honor students. They don't have to Weaver admitted under further pression of the losses judging from live there."

five more" library books in his find." room at NCC. A search of his today.

you can do to stop them."

Broome Will

Head 5-State

YRC District

rolina, South Carolina, Georgia,

Tennessee, and Florida.

Student opinion ran high against room in Childley Hall uncovered the scheduling of athletic events about 22 more books. About a half of the size of the UNC Library are welcome to; but they can live an inventory. He during vacations. Of the students dozen of these were marred with could not have an inventory. He anywhere else they want to." polled, 86.2% expressed the opinion paint and had the fly-leaves torn estimated the cost of such an inthat no games should be scheduled out so that the ownership of these ventory at around $40,000. "It is placed in Manly and Mangum the United States Public Health Henderson said that a very quick est Participation in Intramurals." books could not be determined. my impression that we are doing dormitories this year and Dawson Service." during any vacation period.

Golden Fleece

Taps Thirteen

Harold Thompson Mann, Hickory,

Va.; Federico Guillermo Gill (Faculty Argonaut); Harry Whitney Durand, Lookout Mountain, Tenn.;

Henry Emanuel Mayer, Silver

The ideals of the Order are the

Talks Continuing

Male Apartments

Shaffer, Jr., Chapel Hill, N. C.

22 More Books

Has Option Of Craige Rooms

Suicide Fifty

By MICKEY BLACKWELL

Freshman honor students will be ped by library personnel to have according to Dean of Men William

Dawson said there are two main give them some greater assurance

While N. C. Gov. Terry Sanford, that they will be able to study and Frank Porter Graham, and Presithat's why we made the offer to dent William C. Friday were par- tic to our cause," according to Davticipating in Sunday's dedication of fore exams has been under consid- Moseley gave a description of terday said that he did not feel Dawson said that in Craige the the new $2 million School of Puberation for some time, and 95.1% Weaver to Beaumont, and a short there were an unusual number of students would be assured of a lic Health building, 45 persons of the students polled favored it. while later Weaver was apprehend- book losses this year as a news- two-man room, and this in turn picketed nearby protesting "segre-The type of reading period referred ed at the Chapel Hill Bus Station paper story implied Monday, would probably allow them to study gated bedding facilities" at Mem-

> Leaders Meet To Seek New

. . I'll write them a letter ex-

Mr. Orne said that no library plaining what our plans are and if they want to live in Craige they better than most libraries in the said that "approximately one-third Present at the meeting were I'll make you whatever promises Jim Fulwood, was named most Mangum finished

Everett Named Best Dorm At IDC Awards Banquet

Pickets Walk As Leaders Dedicate

By MICKEY BLACKWELL The picketers included members of the UNC and Chapel Hill chapter of the NAACP and students.

id Dansby, president of the UNC chapter of the NAACP. Dansby said the picketers were "mindful" of the presence of dignitaries including, Sanford, Graham, Friday, Chancellor William B. Aycock, N. C. Congressman Horace Kornegay, and U. S. Deputy Surgeon General David E. Price. Dansby said he hoped to impress upon these people "our protest to segregation in the hospital."

Earlier in the afternoon, Dean of Student Affairs Charles Hender-Region Center son appealed to the group to call off the demonstration and "maintain the composure and patience that you've maintained in the

A closed-door meeting was held past." Henderson said that he failhere Sunday between Gov. Sanford ed to see the basis for this imand area leaders to "discuss the mediate action "when I am really the Most Outstanding Dorm on and area leaders to "discuss the mediate action "when I am really the Most Outstanding Dorm on our activities, establishing a record value to this area of the proposed confident that the situation will be Campus, Most Improved Dorm, our activities, establishing a record beau provided available " decision "could prolong this . . .

By OWEN BISHOP

Everett Dormitory captured almost all the honors at the annual IDC Awards Banquet Sunday night.

Not only did it claim a trophy and a $100 cash award as "Best Dorm On Campus", but it also came away with a trophy as "Most Improved Dorm." Everett was also recognized for having the best intramural participation and the best dorm newspaper.

Sam Shapiro, president of the Everett "Rogah House",

* * * Cooperation Said Key To Everett Win

What makes a dorm the most points for its activities. The win-outstanding on campus? "It all boils down to coopera- point basis. Winners of the awards tion," says Outstanding Dorm for best dorm president and best President Sam Shapiro of Everett, IDC representative are chasen by He should know. Sunday night Everett was awarded trophies for the Most Outstanding Dorm on Best Dorm Newspaper, and High- its standing last year by 707 points, One of its IDC representatives, proved" trophy.

was named "Outstanding Dorm

President" and Jim Fullwood, also of Everett, was named "Outstanding IDC Representative." Both

Point System

sented annually to the top three dorms in a campus-wide dorm contest in which each dorm receives ners are determined wholly on a

the IDC Executive Committee.

By BILL GOODWIN

won trophies. Mangum and Joyner dormitories were named second and third, respectively, in the dorm contest and each received a trophy and a $50 cash award. The Best Dorm Awards are prc-

Ten Legislative Seats Up Today

Ten seats in Student Legislature from the town precinct are John will be at stake today as Dorm Alexander (UP), Bill Bowerman Men's III (four seats) and Town (SP), Bill Davis (UP), Harry De-Men's IV (six seats) districts vote Lung (UP), Rufus Edmisten (SP) in a re-election. The polls will be Danny Edwards (SP), Bob Engler open from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. (UP), John Getsinger (SP), Merri-Dorm Men's III consists of Alex- mon Gregory (UP), George New-ander, Joyner, Winston and Con- some (SP) and Allie Tyler (UP). nor dormitories. Poliing places will be located in each dorm except Connor. Residents of Connor will vote in Winston. Town Men's IV is made up of all students living outside the corporate limits of Chapel Hill and Carrboro. This district will vote Two hooded giants stalked Mein Gerrard Hall. Re-election in these districts was 11 students and two faculty argoncalled by the Constitutional Council auts into the Order of the Golden because names printed on the bal- Fleece, the oldest and highest men's western New York; can leave Wed- matic Arts, the other in Fine Arts, sons which Sanford has outlined ment in some particular wards in lots in both districts were misspell. honorary at Carolina. ed, thus giving an unfair advantage to some candidates.

Candidates for SL in the dormi-William Ross Sullivan, Knoxville, tory district include Gordon Ap-Tenn.; Daniel McMullen Armstrong, pell (SP), Warren Bell, Juan F. III, Rogerville, Tenn.; James Nelson Carvajal (SP), Doug Freeman Irvine, Lookout Mountain, Tenn.; (SP), Rick Kramer (UP), Charlie Kenneth Merle Brinkhous (Faculty Lefler (SP), Sandy O'Quinn (UP) Argonaut); Michael Henry Lawler, and Bill Baynard (UP). North Hollywood, Calif.; Trawick Seeking seats as representatives Hamilton Stubbs, Jr., Atlanta, Ga.;

Concert Band Tonight Plays Spring, Md.; Anthony Stephen Har-rington, Charlotte; Charles Milton Gershwin Hits

pursuit of excellence, the courage to seek the truth and dedication and George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," with Robert Steelman as service to the University. pianist, will be the featured selec- The active argonauts for 1962-63 tion in a concert by the UNC Con- include; Bill Whichard, Hans Frankcert Band tonight at eight o'clock fort, Al Cronenberg, Walter Dellinger, Bill Imes, James Scott, Warnin Hill Hall. Other program highlights will be er Bass, Joe Craver, Richard Vin-

Charpentier's "Ballot du Plaisir," root and Roger Foushee. as transcribed by Herbert W. Fred, conductor of the band; the "Psalm for Band" by the modern American composer Vincent Persichetti, with Eddie Bass conducting; and the "Finale" from Shostakovich's 5th Symphony with Errol Gay conduct- On Coed Visiting ing. Assistant conductors Bass and Gay are both graduate students in the UNC Music Department Steelman, the piano soloist, re-Negotiations are continuing on ceived his A.B. with Honors in Music from UNC in 1960. He then the Apartment Rule controversy, end in Charlotte. Region IV in attended Tulane University for one according to a statement made by year as a Southern Fellow, return- Mike Lawler yesterday.

ing to Chapel Hill in 1961 for fur- Lawler said that he wished to In accepting the office, the new ther graduate study in musicology. clarify the situation because many director thanked the delegates for The Concert Band is organized students "have been under the the confidence they had expressed ountry in the number of losses." Orne said that the library takes option on these dorms and decid- ficials and medical and public ority here is limited." steps to present the loss of books, ed to live elsewhere. to steal, there is hardly anything al," he said again.

Holiday Rides Grind Absent The DTH will run a final list of For Those In ride and riders needed for the Easter holidays in tomorrow's Arts Program paper, provided that they are concise, typed and handed in at the DTH office by five o'clock RIDERS WANTED to New Jer- to go through the General College area.

Bud Broome, 319 Joyner (968-9185). major fields next year. RIDE WANTED to Tri-Cities, Kingsport, Tenn.; contact Carl Friday, will enable art students to damage to the Center is much less Hospital. morial Hall last night and tapped Swann, 107 Manly (968-9176). RIDE WANTED to Buffalo, Syra- in their freshman year.

cuse. Rochester or any part of Trustees and the Board of Higher Education and Welfare of the The 13 new argonauts are: Grant expenses and driving; contact Cur-Walton Wheeler, Needham, Mass.; ry Kirkpatrick (968-9175). grees not previously available.

optimistic." At present a student majoring in either of these fields is only allowed about one-fourth of his courses in his major field. The new prothat number.

crease in courses available (rough- ly invited to attend. ly from 10 to 20) will be of advantage to the art majors since their fields cannot be neglected for any period of time. Under the new program, stu- lost Saturday near the Playmakers dents will be able to keep in constant practice.

tions.

CAVING-CLIMBING CLUB

of the honor students refused the Sanford, general administration of- I can, but as you know my auth- outstanding in that respect.

but that if "people are determined" "The whole program is option- Carolina and Duke; Congressman Gerrard Hall meeting asked Hen- Shapiro said Monday. "We're the mittee, Ruffin, fourth place dorm, Horace Kornegay and Durham derson if he could make a positive first dorm to score over 1,000 deserves honorable mention. It was Mayor Emanuel J. Evans. According to Sanford the meet-that all wards in the hospital be Mayor Emanuel J. Evans. ing was held to decide and plan completely desegregated. "what efforts we should take to Henderson said he couldn't make four years. The Washington, D. C., such a recommendation. The group senior said the dorm was "dissecure the Center." Sanford said the group discussed then decided to continue its plans organized and disorderly" when he sided at the banquet, which was 'how we hope to dramatize the for the demonstration. case for the Health Center" to be The group left Gerrard at 2:05 located in the Research Triangle. p.m. and proceeded to the hospital.

ter to be located in Washington, climaxed nearly two years of talks Dorm title last year, and as pres- officials. but Sanford and U. S. Senator B. with University officials including ident paced it to the top this year. Mosley gave a brief review of dent Friday. sey; leaving Thursday; contact grind before they get into their The reasons include "Saving of Aycock said he would leave the and this gave us about half of and the Council's action to allow $1,300,000 for the government & the matter up to Berryhill and Friday our points.

J. Carlyle Sitterson, Dean of the taxpayer; construction costs m the said that the University has com- Everett had a team in every as important developments. Tenn .: can leave anytime after College of Arts and Sciences, said Research Triangle are 80 per cent plied in good faith with the court's sport, and sometimes as many as After Mosley's talk, John Gould 10 a.m. Thursday; will share ex- yesterday that two programs pass- of costs in Washington; in the decision on segregation and this four. Its basketball team reached retiring court chairman, officially penses and driving; destination ed at the Faculty Council meeting event of enemy attack, the risk of good faith applies to Memorial the quarterfinals before losing to installed new IDC officers. The new take some of their major courses if it is located in the Research Tri- Friday added, "I sustain the angle rather than in the Washing- practices which permit limited seg-The two programs, one in Dra- ton area." There are other rea- regation based on medical judgnesday or Thursday; will share still must go before the Board of to the Subcommittee on Health, Memorial Hospital. Last month Dean Berryhill re-Education since they will offer de- House Committee on Appropria- jected the NAACP's request for assignment of rooms on a strictly Dean Sitterson said the pro- When asked to comment on the non-discriminatory basis. gram's chances of passing are meeting, Sanford replied, "We may Friday said that the Trustees" "very good," and that he is "most have planned a little strategy but executive committee will discuss we can't announce it right now."

May 13. Former University President ulation of Intestinal Villi Motility." Frank Porter Graham said that as The Caving-Climbing Club will a guest of the University, "It LOST grams would allow about twice meet at 7 p.m. tonight in 302 wouldn't be right for me to come A Waltham Watch, 17 jewels, tonight. The station will return to Woollen Gym. Slides will be shown. down here and tell them what to blue band with T.-A.-D. engraved the air at six o'clock Wednesday Dean Sitterson said that the in- All interested persons are cordial- do . . . I'm an ex-president and on the back was lost recently. evening, April 17

I stay out of things here." When pressed further, Graham Alexander, said that "institutions and facili-LOST ties that are supported by taxes of One car and two house keys were all people should be opened equally for all people. Theater. Finder please call Mrs. "That's what I've said since Mary Kiser at 968-0255.

1954 in speeches in Chapel Hill, at 7:30 in the Howell Hall lounge. ael's talk, Raleigh and all across North Carolina and the South," Graham added.

Hospital Director E. B. Crawford (Continued on Page 4) tensions of Prime Rings and Mod- lost recently.

WUNC RADIO, 91.5 FM

ules for Prime Rings." Schedule for Tuesday Evening: 6:00 The Dinner Hour-

LOST Eugene Faircloth, 306 Alexander, be performed tonight at eight Rachmaninoff: Concerto No. 2 reported that he had lost his wallet, o'clock in Gerrard Hall Beethoven: Sonata No. 30. Finder please return it.

Professor Elias Burstein of the 6:55 News Summary 7:00 Democracy in America-PASSOVER SEDER Univ. of Penn. will address the Common Sense & Moonshine, The Hillel House will hold a Physics Colloquium on "Spatial a study in American Educa- Passover Seder Monday night at Dispersion Effects in Optical Phe-8 p.m. The cost is $3 apiece, and nomena" on Wednesday, April 17 tion. 7:30 Special Program: A Sa- reservations can be made by call- at 4:30 p.m. in room 265 Phillips cred Cantata, "On the Passion ing 942-4057. of Christ," by David H. Wil-

CWC MEETING liams. Sung by the Auditorium HUMANITIES LECTURE The CWC wil meet this afternoon Chorale, Frank Hunter, Dir. George F. Horner, professor of at five O'clock in the Grail Room Soloists: Millicent Daughtery, English, will deliver the spring of GM. Old and new members Soprano: Maurice Wade, humanities lecture tonight at should be there.

PRESS CLUB

Tenor; Charles Hield, Jr., 8 p.m. in room 111 of Murphy Hall. POLICY SEMINAR He will speak on "Humor in Am- Forrest C. Pogue, director of Narrator: Charles Hield, Jr. erica." The lecture is open to the the George C. Marshall Research 00 Hill Hall Concert-University public, Foundation, will address Duke National Security Policy Concert Band, Herbert W. Fred, Cond. BAND CONCERT Seminar Wednesday night at 7:30 10:00 Ten O'Clock Report George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in the Faculty Club room, 10:15 Washington Reports to the LECTURE ON DIAMONDS in Blue" with Robert Steelman, People-Subject: The Youth pianist, will be the featured sel-Mrs. Gladys Hannaford of a Employment Opportunities ection of a concert by the UNC New York City diamond-selling Concert Band this evening at 8 firm will give a public lecture on Bill. Participants: diamonds tonight at eight o'clock Pres. J. F. Kennedy p.m. in Hill Music Hall. INTERVIEWS TODAY Sen. Hubert Humphrey in room 112 New East. Her lecture Miss Hazel Breland, Assistant is sponsored by the Geology De-Sen. Winston Prouty Reporter: Harry W. Flannery. Director Personnel - Recruitment, partment. Southeastern Area, American Na-(Continued on Page 3) tional Red Cross, Atlanta, Georgia, with a point total of 847 and Joyn-"The only thing we didn't win er finished in third place with 822. health representatives from both Dansby and several others at a was second and third places," According to the IDC Contest Com-edged out of the winner's circle Shapiro has lived in Everett for by only two points.

IDC REVIEW IDC President Ralph Mosley pre-moved in as a freshman. held at the Faculty Club and was Improved Dorm attended by about 100 old and new

As intramural manager he help- members of the IDC, student gov-Current plans call for the Cen- Dansby said the demonstration ed lead it to the Most Improved ernment guests and administrative

Students interested in Dramatic Everett Jordan have presented sev- Chancellor Aycock, Medical School "Intramurals were a major area the IDC's activities over the past Arts and Fine Arts may not have eral reasons for locating it in this Dean W. R. Berryhill and Presi- in getting points," he said. "We year, citing passage of the dorm were third overall in intramurals, referendum to increase social fees fraternity membership in the IDC

(Continued on page 3) (Continued on Page 3)

- Campus Briefs -

ELISHA MITCHELL SOCIETY | will be at the Placement Service Will meet tonight at 7:30 office, 214 Gardner Hall today. She in 265 Phillips Hall. Eszter Kokas, will interview graduating students the NAACP's appeal when it meets Associate Professor of Physiology, interested in various positions in will speak on the "Hormonal Reg- the field of welfare and recreation.

Hall

WUNC RADIO WUNC Radio, 91.5 FM, will sign off the air for the Easter holidays

Finder contact Tad Dillon, 301 FACULTY CLUB MEETING Katherine Carmichael, Dean of Women, will address the Faculty Club at its luncheon meeting to-John Andrew, editor of the Stan- day, beginning at 12:30 p.m. "An ly News and Press, will address American Professor in Viet Nam" the UNC Press Club tonight will be the title of Miss Carmich-

$100 REWARD

MATHEMATICS COLLOQUIUM A $100 reward is being offered Will meet this afternoon at for the return of McGregor, a reg-4:00 in 383 Phillips Hall, Professor istered bulldog, fawn in color and A. C. Mewborn will speak on "Ex. 60 pounds in weight, which was

The French Play 'Knock' will

PHYSICS COLLOQUIUM

Finder call 942-4812. FRENCH PLAY

immediately after the close of the impression that Student Govern- in him and called for close coopmarching season each year. Dr. ment completely acquiesced to the eration and hard work in order to Fred, the conductor, said that the personnel of the Concert Band "are selected so as to provide a well-Lawler stated, however, that stubalanced instrumentation capable dent representatives have been The convention also selected Salof the study and performance of generally concerned by the nega- ly Champion of Duke as co-directhe best in concert literature." tive atmosphere of discussions on tor, Ben McCurdy of Furman Uni-The concert is being sponsored this rule change and other relat- versity, treasurer, and George free by the Tuesday Evening Se- ed problems. Stumpt of Clemson as Secretary. ries. The next program of this Both President Lawler and Vice- In other business the University series will be by the University President Spearman indicated that of North Carolina Young Republic-Symphony Orchestra, Earl Slocum, a more positive direction of dis- an Club was selected as the best conductor, on May 7. cussion still seemed possible. club in Region IV.

SPRING VACATION is still two and ahalf days away, but some students, after a long winter's work, just can't wait to get away, like this boy already packing in anticipation of Thursday noon. There doesn't seem to be space for everything, but then those books can 10:30 The Quiet Hours always be left out. -Photo by Jim Wallace 10:55 News Summary