

Booters' Opener Is Against Tough Navy

By RON LOGAN
The University of North Carolina soccer squad takes on the Naval Academy in the first game of its ambitious schedule Saturday afternoon in Annapolis.

Coach Marvin Allen's booters will be out to avenge a 4-0 defeat at the hands of the Middies in last season's opener, but the Tar Heels will have to play their hearts out if they are to top the powerful service foe.

The two teams had three common opponents last fall — Duke, Virginia, and national runnerup Maryland—and each team defeated Duke and Virginia only to lose to the Terps.

The Tar Heels have eight lettermen starters: goalie Buddy Siegel; halfbacks Park McGinty and Steve Painter; fullback Charlie Battle (co-captain); and forwards Jim Talbot, Bill Hayward, and Pete Blake (co-captain). Sophomore George Butler, Tom Wright and spectacular Drew Murphy will round out the first team.

Murphy is trying to fill the shoes of last year's standout center forward Jim Reston, and Coach Allen says that already Murphy "can do things that Jim never could."

Murphy scored 12 goals for the undefeated freshman team last season, just one less than Reston scored for the varsity.

Navy is returning one of the strongest teams in recent years, and will be led by All-America Karl Kaeser who holds down the inside right position.

Coach Glenn Warner of the Navy squad has a host of outstanding lettermen in addition to Kaeser and several sophomores who are expected to be bright spots in the 1963 season.

In addition to Navy, the UNC squad will take on powerful Washington University (St. Louis), Maryland, and pesky conference foes Virginia and Duke. If Carolina can win three of those games the season will be a success.

Davidson, N.C. State, Pfeiffer, Belmont Abbey, and Emory University are also on the schedule, but they aren't in the same class with the other teams mentioned.

The UNC booters will be hard pressed to match last season's 7-2 mark, but Coach Allen believes that this edition will be superior to the 1962 squad in experience and overall ability.

This year's roster shows quite a cross-section of hometowns. Fifteen states and two foreign countries are represented with Edwin Okoroma of Nigeria and George Butler of Jamaica coming from outside the U.S.

ANNOUNCEMENT
The first Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) meeting of the year will be held at 9:00 in 304 Woolen Gym tonight. All varsity athletes and freshman participants are invited to attend. Basketball Coach Dean Smith will be advisor of this year's group, and Al Long, former UNC athlete, will be in charge of meetings.

NOTE — The University Golf Tournament will be held October 8. Those who are interested still have time to turn in a qualifying round.

Reed, Segrest Star As SAE Rolls, 50-0

By AL KAPLAN
SAE, 1962 Fraternity Blue champs, extended their winning ways in the current campaign as they mauled Beta, 50-0, Tuesday.

Led offensively by Brooks Reed and All-Campus Back Bob Segrest, SAE's victory was never in doubt. Reed put on a strong offensive and defensive performance, scoring two touchdowns, a conversion and a safety. Segrest also tallied two six pointers and a conversion.

Chi Phi eked out a 10-6 victory against AK Psi in another Frat Blue game. The winning score came on Joe Burns' TD. Chi Phi also scored on two safeties, one by Tom Thompson and the other by Bud Burns. The loser's six came on Bill Bauer's score.

With Irwin Brillian leading the way on two touchdowns, Old West upended the Mangum Redskins, 1963 football runners-up, 21-6. Bill Weems provided another six points by intercepting a pass and racing all the way for the score. Andy Holland of Mangum also scored a touchdown.

Led by Jeff Praker's two touchdowns, Sigma Nu rolled to an easy 26-0 victory over Phi Gamma Delta. Sigma Nu's other scores came on six pointers by Bill Bogache and Dick Bramley and conversions by Skip Dunn and Warren Price.

In other murals action on Tuesday, DU slipped past Lambda Chi 7-0 as Ted Edwards provided the scoring. Charles Elrod's touchdown proved to be enough for Kappa Sigma as they edged Kappa Psi, 6-0.

Upsets were on the agenda in Monday's action. In the grad league, Med School defeated the Peacocks, considered one of the strongest teams in preseason consensus, 6-0. Bill Jarman made the only tally.

away last November by the Yankees, stepping in to face his former teammates. And the Moose, a .203 hitting failure with the Dodgers this season, slashed a single to center which sent Howard lumbering home with the ice-breaking run.

Then he set down Mantle with a sweeping curve and matched Cooper's record of Oct. 11, 1943, by pouring a fast ball past the fruitlessly swinging Maris to start the Yankees' half of the second.

The Dodgers ran their lead to 5-0 in the third with three more hits for another run.

for an all-time record for south-paws.

John had struck only nine home runs all season and none of those off a lefthander. And in six previous series games his batting average was a lowly .095. But he compensated for all that frustration, lofting the ball through the bluish haze of smoke drifting out of the stands for a home run. As it dropped into the lower right field seats, Skowron and Tracewski scampered home in front of him and the Dodgers led, 4 to 0.

Koufax blazed his way into the record books for the first time when, after striking out the side in the first inning, he fanned Mantle and Maris to start the second.

Ellie Howard and Joe Peppone touched him for back-to-back singles to right field and Clete Boyer singled off Tracewski's glove behind second base, filling them up.

Alston will try to make it two in a row by pitching Johnny Podres, a 14-game winner who was the hero of the Dodgers' first world championship in 1955.

Twenty years ago Mort Cooper turned the same trick against the Yankees. Koufax matched it this time by getting Tony Kubek and Bobby Richardson swinging and Tom Tresh on a

But the cheers hardly had faded when Tresh drove a home run into the left field stands in the eighth inning to score Tony Kubek ahead of him, cut the Dodger lead to 5-2 and cost Koufax a shutout on the heels of a season in which Sandy posted 11

Lady Milton Fall Fashion Shirt Story

Many of our new fall shirts have squared off tails yet long enough not to hike out of skirts.

You'll want to see our new white ground candy stripe with stripes at 5/8" intervals of red, blue, olive or gray—in long sleeve button-down at $6.95.

New candy corn series in choir boy or button-down, either with long sleeves—corn with 3/16" stripes of red, blue or gray—$6.95.

These are but a few of the many interesting exclusive shirtings you'll find in our inimitable Lady Milton Shop.

But the most important difference is the extreme accent on quality—when you compare our shirts with brand V which is no better made than a $3.98 brand S&S, and compare it with brand CS, you will literally be amazed of how much finer quality you receive in our entire stock of shirts. The same workmanship that goes into our men's M-2 shirts goes into our Lady Milton shirts. Brand V has double needle tailoring—you will find a ridge at the shoulder seam—our brand is finest single needle tailoring with smooth shoulder seams. After many many launderings our Lady Milton shirts look good as new whereas brand V or CS cannot make this claim.
