U.N.C. Library Serials Dept. Box 870 Chapel De Nevo-Edition * * *

The Daily Tar Teel

Offices in Graham Memorial

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1963

United Press International Service

Today's Weather

Cloudy and mild.

Playmakers Present 'Journey'

O'Neill Drama Is Feature Of Second 'Student Night' Tickets Sell

At Reduced Rate Tonight

The second "Student Night" production of the season, Eugene O'Neill's drama "Long Day's Journey Into Night," will take place tonight in the Playmaker's theater at 7:30.

The opening performance will be for UNC students only, and tickets for this show will be reduced to $1.00. The production will continue through Sunday evening, with the earlier curtain time being continued for these performances also.

Directed by Thomas M. Patterson of the Carolina Playmakers staff, "Long Day's Journey" features Marion Fitz-Simons, Earl Wynn, Frank McDonald, and Richard Parks as the four members of the Tyrone family, and Neal Chaffin as a maid in the Tyrone household.

Admittedly autobiographical, O-'Neill's play concerns itself with one day in the lives of the four haunted Tyrones, the dramatic counterparts of the playwright's own family. Produced in New York in 1956, over fifteen yaers after it was written, "Long Day's Journey Into Night" has been cited by critics the world over as one of the finest dramas ever penned by America's greatest playwright. Tickets for tonight's performance for UNC students and their dates remain on sale today at Y-Court and G.M. Information Desk. Students may have their choice of a season ticket for the four remaining Playmakers shows at $3.50 each, or a single ticket for "Long Day's Journey" at $1.00 each. In the event that tickets are still available to-- night, they will be sold at the theatre box office which opens at six o'clock.

Guilford Senator Charles Strong Speaks Tonight By SAM BOBSOT

State Senator Charles Strong will address UNC Young Republicans tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Howell Hall.

The Guilford County Republican is expected to discuss Governor Sanford's "Little Federal" plan of legislative redistricting as well as comment upon the gag law and other current controversial issues.

Strong is serving a freshman term in the state senate. He defeated Senate Speaker Joe Hunt of Greensboro in the 1962 Republican sweep of Guilford County. The 43 proposals which he introduced in the General Assembly included the abolition of capital punishment, repeal of the food tax, establishment of a separate budget for education and a plan of reorganization of the North Carolina School system. Strong has been mentioned across the state as a likely Republican gubernatorial candidate for the 1964 campaign. He is also considered as a top contender for the 6th district Congressional seat.

In a story last week, the Daily Tar Heel revealed that Strong would announce his candidacy for the GOP gubernatorial nomination on December 1. Rep. Donald K. Badgley, also of Guilford County, is the only announced GOP candidate.

DI PHI TO DEBATE

for the endowment of teaching professorships by the Student Government.

For N.C. High Court * * * * * * * * * The Carter Case: Confused

Carter Case Headed

By MICKEY BLACKWELL A News Monday's ruling by Judge Clawson Williams in the Ann Royal Carter case was another

Carter's case will be tried before the Faculty Committee on In the first of the hearings Student Discipline. So, now, which was held in September of after two and a half years of 1962 Manning challenged the lelegal tangles and an open court gality of the decision of the battle, the Ann Carter case Board on two grounds.

Analysis

winds up essentially where it -That the Trustees could not lawfully delegate final authority The case has dragged out over in matters of suspension of stusuch a long period of time that dents properly enrolled in the many people have forgotten the University, and therefore recogoriginal charge against Miss nition of suspension of a stu-Carter - cheating on a Latin dent council is unconstitutional. -That in this case there was no evidence to support a find-She took a make-up exam and was alleged to have writing that Miss Carter was guilty of the charge of cheating, and ten down the answers to the therefore the Board of Trusoriginal exam (which she didn't tees acted arbitrarily in approving the decision of the Women's She was convicted of the Honor Council suspending her cheating charge by the Womfrom the University on these en's Honor Council. Miss Carter grounds.

Carter's statement to the effect that she returned the examination questions which she had answered to the desk in Mr. Catlin's outer office and wrote her name on the top." Judge Clark then said that in light of this new evidence, the case would be remanded to the Board of Trustees and they in turn would direct the matter to the proper administrative authority for a review of the proceeding.

However, Judge Clark said in his order that Miss Carter should be exonerated from the charge of cheating by the proper administrative agency of the University.

He said that all of the evidence offered against Miss Carter had failed to rebut the presumption of innocence. He said that her conviction "was not in accordance with due process under the Resolution of the Board or provision of the Student Constitution."

Following this hearing, the Trustees suggested that the Ann

By DAVID ETHRIDGE And GARY BLANCHARD

The Anne Royal Carter Case appears headed for the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Miss Carter's attorney, John T. Manning, of Chapel Hill, has given notice of appeal to the most recent court order issued in the protracted legal battle which stems from Miss Carter's suspension from the University on a cheating charge in 1961.

This latest order, issued by by Superior Court Judge Clawson Williams and filed yesterday in Wake County Superior Court, returns the case to the Faculty Committee on Student Discipline for a new hearing.

The Committee is to determine whether the suspension sentence is "valid, regular and proper, and should be sustained, or whether the suspension is improper, not supported by substantial evidence, or for any other legal and valid reason should be nullified, set aside and declared to be void and of no effect."

Judge Williams ruling, in effect, resolved a controversy over the meaning of a provious order by Judge Heman Clark in late 1962. Williams ordered the case be given an entirely new hearing by the Faculty Committee of Stu den Discipline. But his order has been appealed, and it is this point

-his interpretation of Clark's ruling-which the Supreme Court torney alleges is the meaning of

If the Supreme Court were to uphold Judge Williams' order, the case, barring appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court, would then be heard anew by the Faculty Council-as Williams has ordered-and the Committee's new decision could then be appealed back through the courts.

In noting Judge Clark's decision, Judge Williams said until

Miss Carter "exhauts the avail-

Judge Clark's earlier ruling.

would be called on to resolve.

Celeste Holm Appears Here

Celeste Holm, Academy Award winner, will appear in the musical, "With Love and Laughter," tonight at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

The program, sponsored by GM, is free to UNC students. Spouse tickets are one dollar each and the general public will be admitted for $1.50 at 7:45 p.m. if space is available.

CELESTE HOLM

In the musical Miss Holm will pursue the answer to "Has the relationship between men and women changed?" It will contain writings of Saroyan, Shaw, Shakespeare, O'Neill, Laurents, Tennessee Williams and Rodgers and Hammerstein.

Miss Holm has appeared in such films as "Tender Trap," "All About Eve," and "High Society." She appeared in the stage production "Invitation to Neal Chaffin, a native of Richmond, Va., now residing in Chapel Hill, will play the role of Cathleen in the Eugene O'Neill drama, "Long Day's Journey Into Night." There is a performance for UNC students only tonight at 7:30.

Holds Weekend Meet In Raleigh

Gag, Co-op, CR Top NSA Meeting

Meet Is Here

Big-time politics is coming to

On April 16-18, Carolina students will have the opportunity to participate in a mock political convention which will be bi-partisan in nature. Sponsored by the YM-YWCA Public Affairs

Committee, the convention will embrace all political factions on campus. Dave Sheps and Chris

In the spring of 1960, 1500 Carolina students nominated Adlai E.

Stevenson for President and John

F. Kennedy for Vice President in a mock Democratic Convention held in Woollen Gym. Before the convention, the campus was divided into fifty-three separate districts which were representative of the fifty states, two territories, and the District of Columbia. Each dormitory, fraternity, and sorority was a separate district and each represented specific units on the basis of

The students nominated Stevenson and Kennedy in accordance with the rules of the National Democratic Committee. Because

men such as Senator Carl Albert and Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges were able to speak, the Convention received statewide radio, TV, and press cover-

Because of this year's political age.

size and political awareness.

Waterman are co-chairmen.

April 16-18

Education."

UNC.

By PETE WALES Two student welfare resolutions and a resolution urging repeal of the Speaker Ban were passed at the Carolinas-Virginia fall regional conference of the National Students Association in Raleigh last Saturday. The resolutions were introduced in an afternoon plenary session following three discussion groups during the morning. "The interests and resolutions of the delegates reflected the new emphasis of NSA on campus and student welfare issues with the exception, of course, of the speaker ban."

The speaker ban resolution was introduced by region chairman Harry DeLung of UNC and Sue Bailey of Duke. It supported "the efforts of responsible citizens to repeal or in other ways make invalid, H.B. 1395 the speaker ban."

The other three resolutions passed were: 1) A resolution to establish a commission investigating the feasibility of a USNSA Book Cooperative in the Carolinas-Virginia region. 2) A resolution to establish a commission investigating student physical and mental health facilities in the region. 3) A resolution urging Davidson College to vote for a one-year trial period of affiliation with USNSA. A fifth resolution was introduced by Clark Compton and Armistead Maupin of UNC opposing the civil rights bill now in Congress. The resolution failed.

National Affairs Vice-President Joel Sharkey gave the keynote address at a banquet Friday night in N.C. State's Leazer eral inflence groups: the fed-Hall. His topic was "The Com- eral government, the state govmunity: It's Influence on Higher ernment and non-government groups.

Sharkey spoke of three gen-In the first group, Sharkey mentioned the House Un-American Activities Committee and Mock Political the apportionment of government research fellowships as influences and limiting factors on higher education.

He referred to the speaker ban and the repressive policies in the deep South concerning integration as instances of state governments infringing upon the free process of learning.

Talking about private groups, Sharkey charged the American Legion, the National Education Association, and other interest groups as exercising their influence in areas where they "don't possess the basis of judgment." He referred to teacher accreditation requirements, approved book lists and curriculum planning.

After the banquet, Bob Spearman of UNC made a report on the progress of the Student Government Study Commission of which he is chairman.

The commission was created at last spring's regional conference in Greensboro. Questionnaires have been prepared here and were sent out last week to Student Body presidents and the Deans of Men and Women of 50 schools in the region.

A report on the results of these forms will be compiled in Chapel Hill this winter. The six voting delegates from

UNC were Jim Fullwood, Lanny Shuff, Ken Shepsle, Juan Carvajal, Doug Lawson and Armistead Maupin. Others attending the conference from UNC were Linda Simpson, Cecilia Gujardo, Betty Livingston, Dale Keyser, Linda developments, especially in North Wright, Tim Overman, Mike then began her lengthy battle to clear herself of the charge. The Di Phi will meet tonight to debate a resolution calling

She appealed directly to Chancellor William B. Aycock, who said he did not find grounds for review at that stage.

chapter in a long book that is

Williams ruled that Miss

yet to be completed.

began.

examination.

take).

The appeal for review then went to Consolidated University President William C. Friday, who upheld Aycock's ruling. The next step was to present an appeal for review to the Board of Trustees. They in turn appointed a special committee to study the matter. When the committee reported back to the Board, they said they could not find any grounds for review.

Normally, this would be the final step in review. But in the meantime, the Carter family had hired legal counsel, lawyer John Manning of Chapel Hill. The case was tried in Wake County Superior Court in Raleigh, Manning representing Miss Carter and state Assistant Attorney General Ralph Moody representing the University. Judge Heman Clark presided.

Committee Members Named By Juniors

The Junior Class has annie Anderson, Myrtie Moon Bilnounced the selections for class bro, Alice Brown, Sarah Cravcommittees for the coming er, Diane Counts, Sloan Crevling, Jean Dillin, Sandra Ennis, school year. Verna Gillim, Robert Griffin, Over 100 Juniors were inter-Jimmy Harris, Jane Howe, viewed last week for the posi-Doug Kelly, Linda Kelly, Dedee tions on the five committees, Macdowell, Marty McDaniel, and there will be a joint meet-Anne Meissner, Anne Michael, ing in Howell Hall on Wednes-Jane Moore, Gail Murray, day at 7:30 p.m. Harrison Mer-Frances Pierce, Sherry Stanley, rill, class president, said that Finance Committee: Co-chairthe meeting would be brief, and men: Bonnie Raines, Perry Mcthat anyone who could not at-Carty, Snow Anderson, Ed Boytend should contact one of the ette, Bernie Bazemore, Jeff officers. Crowell, Jr., Sally Elmore, He added that any Junior who

Stewart Ellington, Drew Ferguis interested in being on a committee should be at the meetson, Pam Hooper, Sandy Iuluicci, Bill Jenkins, Mary Linda Lewis, Melinda Long, Cassie

The following were selected for committees:

Campus Communications: Chairman: Cydne Wright. Jean-

Expulsion To Be Considered Today

The Judicial Committee of Student Legislature will hold its final meeting today on the request by the Men's and Wom-

Concerning Manning's second challenge, Judge Clark ruled there was too little evidence to make a decision on the charge. So a new hearing was held in November.

"Mr. Gatlin identified the writing on the paper on which the original examination questions appeared. These were the questions which Miss Carter answered on the make-up quiz. On the back of this paper appears the name 'Mr. Catlin' in handwriting of obvious similarity to that of Miss Carter. This evidence tends to corroborate Miss

Pond, Sally Roper, Sylvia

Shields, Scott Smiley, Chip

Smith, Janice Sperber, Robert

Stafford, Anita Strickland, Jean

Olive Snyder, Dan Warren, Dick

Publicity Committee: Co-chairmen: Jane Dallen, Hugh Stevens. Betsy Bradford, J. B. Carter, Ellen Gilkerson, Sherrie

Harris, Eve Higgins, Joanna

Houston, Mary Stella Leak, Betsy Millington, Clay Moore, Patty Nash, Robin Nenz, Ellen Solo-

Williams.

Carter case be remanded to the University for further consideration in view of the evidence about the handwriting not known during the original review.

If the court rules in favor of Judge Clark's order granted Miss Carter the case would be settled and she would be completely exonerated, which her at-

But his order didn't specify which administrative agency would handle the case, and again there was much talk from both sides as to who would handle the case.

Miss Carter was offered a hearing by Faculty Committee on Student Discipline, but she declined it.

This controversy necessitated vesterday's formal order from Judge Clawson Williams of Sanford. He stated that the proper administrative agency would be the Faculty Committee on Student Discipline. Yesterday's decision by Judge Williams is the seventh chapter in the Ann Carter Case. There will surely be many more before a final decision is reached in the case.

GRANT AWARDED

A grant of $117,845 has been awarded to the University's School of Dentistry by the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, it was announced recently by Dr. J. C. Brauer, Dean of the School of Dentistry.

The grant will be used over a five-year period to train dental assistants through a correspondence-extension program. It is hoped that the program will bridge the gap between the supply and the demand of dental assistants who are fast becoming known as "the good right arm" of the dentist. Presently only one-third of the dental assistents needed are being trained in the one- and two-year curriculums.

able hearing before the Faculty Committee on Student Discipline the Court holds as a matter of law that the Petitioner has not exhausted her administrative remedies." In remanding the case, Williams also stayed the suspension sentence until the case is ultimately decided. Miss Carter's appeal bond was set at $200.00 and she was given 90 days in which to file her case on appeal.

DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE

Instructors from UNC School of Business Administration will serve again this year as the faculty for the Hospital Executive Development Institute.

The four-day institute will begin on Dec. 8 at the Carolina Inn. It is designed for top-level management personnel in hospitals in both Carolinas.

The joint sponsors are the North Carolina Hospital Association and the South Carotlina Hospital Association.

It was at this hearing taht new evidence cropped up which that wish. had not been presented previous to that time, and which eventually led to the case being moved out of the courts and back to the campus. Among those appearing at the hearing were Miss Carter and her Latin professor John Gatlin

A quote from an order issued from Judge Clark presents the new evidence:

stage production "Invitation to	WOMEN'S COUNCIL VACANCIES	developments, especially in North	Wright, Tim Overman, Mike	en's Councils for the expulsion	mon, Judy Thompson, Murray
a March" last season.	WOMEN'S COUNCIL VACANCIES	particular for the	Tonry, Connie Lovett, Clark	penelty.	Van Lear, Bettie White.	The Day Day of States and States
CHAIRSIDE BEHAVIOR	Interviews for two vacancies	for the Convention has been selected. However, this will be	Compton, John Ulfelder, Vance	The meeting, to be held in the	Social Committee: Co - chair-	The second start of the the second the second	on the Women's Council from	similar to the previous one in	Barron, Bob Wilson, Bob Spear-	Woodhouse Room of GM at 4	men: Ann Gerth, Mike Masten.
An efficiency expert and a	Judicial District III (Nursing	all respects except that it will	man and Pete Wales.	p.m., will decide upon the	Nancy Best, Helen Butt, Lola	South and the second se federal official with research	Dorm) will be held Thursday	be, in effect, a mock election of	DULLETIN	recommendation it will make to	Eustis, Peggy Findley, Matilda responsibilities will share the program here on Dec. 4 at the	from 2 to 3:30 p.m. in Student Government offices in Graham	President and Vice President of	BULLETIN Mike Chanin last night re-	legislature for its Thursday	Gholson, Lea Lea Hall, Linda ninth annual Postgraduate Den-	Memorial. All interested stu-	the U.S., since all parties will be	signed as chairman of the Uni-	night session. Phil Baddour,	Hawkins, Peggy Hull, Nanny Hussey, Dianne Littlefield, Bar-
tal Seminar.	dents should call the secretary	Interviews for the Executive	versity Party.	committee chairman, also said that the bill to abolish the stu-	bara Martin, Mebane McDonald,
Dentists, dental hygienists and	for an appointment.	Committee positions of Treasur-	Speaking at a meeting of the	dent judiciary would be consid-	Susan Moore, Jodie Payne, Jean dental assistants are being is-		er, Speakers Chairman, Secre-	party, Chanin cited his obliga-	ered, as well as the court pro-	Renfrou, Richard Ross, John sued invitations to attend the	SOPH INTERVIEWS	tary, Physical Arrangements	tions to the National Student As-	cedures of the IFC.	Seeman, Judy Smith, Tom Sni-
day-long seminar sponsored by	Interviews for Sophomore	Chairman, Operations Chairman,	sociation and the local student	- mere man and and and	der, Pat Stebbins, Judy Tucker.
the University of North Caro- lina School of Dentistry, Ses-		and Public Relations Chairman	government as the reasons for		Secretariat: Dianne Crockett, lina School of Dentistry. Ses- sions will be conducted in the		will be held upstairs in the Y building from 3-5 Tuesday, 4-5	his withdrawal.	who were present last week will	Peggy Green, Bob Greenfield,	ALL AND A
Carol Hall auditorium on the		Wednesday and 1-3 Thursday of	A full report on the meeting will be carried in tomorrow's		Bonnie Harper, Carol Johnston,	Pagninger At Dool Tonight
campus.	Graham Memorial.	this week.	Daily Tar Heel.	testimony will be a big help in	Gayle Munroe, Mary Roper, Martin Luther Goldfarb.	Bagpipers At Dook Tonight
				our reaching a decision."	I martin Dunier Goldaro. I	