ANOTHER DAY, ANOTHER DEAN

Dr. Alan K. Manchester, a prominent Duke University official will retire from two administrative posts on Aug. 31, 1964, to devote full time to teaching and research.

Dr. Manchester, will relinquish the posts of Dean of Trinity College and Associate Dean of Arts and Sciences, according to Dr. Douglas M. Knight, president of the University.

In announcing the retirement, Dr. Knight said a special faculty committee has been named to recommend a successor, and that the appointment of a new dean is expected by the end of the current academic year. Dr. Arlin Turner, chairman of the English Department, is committee chairman.
