

Tar Heels Take Lead In Net Tournament

UNC began the defense of their tennis crown yesterday by taking a big first day lead in the ACC tournament.

Each Carolina player won their first round match, to give the Tar Heels at least 16 points in the first day of action. Sophomore Kenny Oettinger was playing in the last match of the day and could have increased the Tar Heel lead. Maryland's Terrapins were second with 8 points.

The Tar Heels had three players seeded in the tournament. George Sokol was the top-seeded player as he attempted to retain his singles title. O. H. Parrish was fifth seeded, and Ted Hoehn was seeded number seven. Maryland's Jim Busick, who beat Sokol in two straight sets was second-seeded, and Doug Stewart of Clemson was ranked number three.

In the doubles, Parrish and Hoehn were top-seeded, and Sokol and sophomore Carl Evans were third-seeded. Clemson's Stewart and Evans were seeded second.

In the singles matches, no Tar Heel was pressed to three sets. Sokol started the day off for the Tar Heels by disposing of Doug Jones of Duke 6-1, 6-2. The little blond ace then defeated Jim Emmons of NC State 6-3, 6-1.

O. H. Parrish had little trouble beating his two opponents. Parrish defeated State's Artinane 6-1, 6-2 in the first round then dropped Jim Burns of Virginia almost as easily by identical 6-2 scores. O. H. is the dark horse of the tournament. If he plays up to his potential, O. H. could give Sokol and Busick a run for the title.

Ted Hoehn swept three matches during the day. Ted was out early to defeat Tom Long of Clemson by identical 6-2 scores.

Maryland's Tom Marcelline was later defeated by Hoehn by the same 6-2 scores. In a match starting at 4:30 Hoehn disposed of Clemson's Ledbetter in two sets.

Pete Myers pulled the biggest upset of the day when he defeated Clemson's eighth-ranked Matty Evans 9-7, 6-2. Myers then defeated Charlie Shaffer, who had won his first round match by losing only one game, by 6-4, 6-0 scores. Chapel Hill's Kenny Oettinger was the surprise of the tournament the first day. He defeated Maryland's Dobies 7-5, 6-2 in the first round, and then defeated Virginia's Brown 6-3, 6-4 in the second round. He was playing third-seeded Doug Stewart in the last match of the day, and had jumped to a 2-0 lead after the first two sets.

Today Sokol meets Parrish in what could be the top match of the tournament.

Mike Knowles' Two-Bagger Gives Tar Babies 5-4 Win

By BILL LEE
Catcher Mike Knowles came through for the Tar Babies yesterday with a sinking double to right field to knock in the winning run in the tenth inning and handed the Oak Ridge Cadets a 5-4 defeat.

Alcoholics, Chi Psi In Campus Finals

Chi Psi and the Avery Alcoholics advanced to the all campus softball finals Wednesday by winning their playoff games.

Chi Psi defeated Kappa Psi 5-4, and Avery blasted Medical School 14-1.

Avery jumped on Med School pitcher Howard Houssly for four runs in the second, third and fifth innings. The Alcoholics collected 16 hits in the rout. Shortstop Mike Spain was the big gun for the Alcoholics with two singles and two doubles. Bill Cunningham homered for Avery.

Spain's double in the first scored Ralph Timmerman with the first Alcoholic run. In the second, two walks, an error and two singles brought in four runs. Med School tallied in the bottom of the second to make the score 5-1, but the Alcoholics came back with four in the third on an error, two singles and Cunningham's homer. They added one in the fourth, then scored four more in the fifth on a walk, two singles, Timmerman's double and Charlie Murray's long triple. Tim Nichols went all the way for the Alcoholics and gave up only three hits.

Chi Psi's Jack "Crazy" Crane once again came up with a stellar pitching performance to pace his team over Kappa Psi. Crane gave up only three hits and chipped in with a single himself.

Chi Psi scored twice in the first on two walks and Bill Vincent's single, and Crane was coasting with a coe-hitter when Kappa Psi came up with two runs in the bottom of the sixth to take a 3-2 lead. Two walks, an error and a single scored the two Kappa Psi runs.

Chi Psi came right back in the top of the seventh to take a 4-3 lead. Bob Carithers led off with a walk, and scored on Paul Donahue's double. Donahue scored when Bill Powell singled. Kappa Psi tied the score in the bottom of the inning to send the game into two extra innings.

Pitcher John King led off with a single and scored on a walk and two Chi Psi errors. In the eighth, Dick Lewisohn led off for Chi Psi with a booming triple and scored the winning run on Steve Painter's single.

Avery and Chi Psi played the All-Campus finals yesterday, but because of a late start the game could not be reported in today's DTH. A complete report of the game will be carried in tomorrow's paper.

Frosh Stickmen Crush Duke

Led by Tim Balch and Jack Hubbard, the Freshmen lacrosse team crushed Duke for the second straight time, 14-5 Wednesday. It was the fourth win in four games for the Frosh stickmen, who defeated the varsity last week after defeating Duke twice.

Hubbard fired three goals past the hapless Blue Imp goalie in the first five minutes, and from then on it was no contest. They built up a 6-0 first quarter lead and a 9-2 halftime margin. Balch scored two in the half.

If there was any doubt in Duke's mind whatsoever about the outcome of the game, Balch scored a pair at the start of the third quarter to ice the game, and subs finished up for the 14-5 win.

Balch (4), Hubbard (3), Sandy Reider (2), Sam Williams (2), Cleo Edgar (1) Pete Collison (1), and Loring Swasey (1) were the scorers, with Balch and Hubbard each getting three assists.

The final varsity game is Saturday against Duke, and Coach Tony Steele says he expects to win by ten goals. The varsity will be led by goalie Harvey Stanley, who recently was nominated for All-American.

Tar Heels At USC

The North Carolina Tarheels, already ACC Champions and currently ranked fifth nationally by Collegiate Baseball Magazine, travel this weekend to South Carolina, where they will meet the University of South Carolina and Clemson College.

The Heels will meet the Gamecocks Friday, with either Bill Haywood or Beattie Leonard pitching. Haywood, 8-0, is the top candidate for ACC Player of the Year. Leonard is 2-0 in his only two starts, having been sidelined for most of the year with a broken hand. Mike McLaughlin and Spence Willard are also slated to see action in either of the games, and Coach Walter Rabb is expected to do some experimenting with his lineup since the title is already clinched.

After this trip they will return home to play Duke Wednesday in their last regularly scheduled conference game.

All three games will be broadcast by WCHL.
