And The Rains Came

With the world suddenly turning upside down, the editorials and campus news just couldn't find any space in the paper. They may return Saturday-no promises, though.

Founded Feb. 23, 1893

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1964

Associated Press Wire Service

Khrushchev Out; Soviets Alter Hierarchy

Incomplete British Returns Give Laborites Wide Lead

LONDON — (AP) — Harold Wilson's Labor Party yesterday apparently won the British national election over Prime Minister Douglas-Home's Conservatives.

Jubilant Labor Party headquarters said the remaining results would only determine the size of the Laborite margin in the House of Commons. Conservative Party headquarters withheld comment but was cast

The apparent Labor Party victory ended 13 unbroken years of Conservative rule.

From early in the counting, computers predicted a Laborite victory by anything up to 40 seats.

The balloting climaxed Britain's most unpredictable national election this century. Both Conservatives and Laborites expressed confident hope for victory, yet each side feared

The voters, perhaps 28 million of an eligible 36 million, moved in rain showers and in sunshine through crowded city streets and down country

CARDS WIN 7-5; TAKE W-SERIES

By FRED SEELY DTH Co-Editor

The Russian Premier and the New York Yankees found themselves in unaccustomed positions yesterday, but as far as St. Louis was concerned the Yanks are the only ones who count.

Bob Gibson, a sturdy righthander, survived a late Yank homer surge and set a World Series strikeout record in the process as he trimmed the American League champs, 7-5, giving the Cardinals the deciding game of the 1964 series.

The Yanks found themselves in a 6-0 hole early and never got back in the game, despite great efforts by Bobby Richardson and Mickey Mantle.

The Cards drew first blood with the help of a Yankee fumble, striking for three runs in the fourth inning.

Ken Boyer got things going with a line drive single to center, and Dick Groat drew a walk, the

(Continued on Page 3)

The Labor Party's general secretary, Len Williams, told newsmen, "23 will get a majority of at least 30 seatsprobably more."

Returns from 416 of 630 parliamentary districts with the net changes in seats won:

Conservative, 172, lost 43. Labor 242, gain 46. Liberal two, lost two.

Others, nil, lost one. Before the counting started both sides feared the result would be so close that neither party would gain the 20-seat edge regarded as a minimum seat House of Commons. The size of the mounting Labor tide dissipated that fear, workable majority in the 630-

Wilson, 48, a former Oxford University faculty member, has been dreaming of this moment since he was a boy of eight. He told his parents then that he wanted to be Prime Minis-

Within the next day or two Wilson expects to be called to Buckingham Palace for an audience with Queen Elizabeth II. There he will assume the responsibility of Prime Minister and give the nation a new, left-leaning cabinet.

The new Parliament opens Nov. 3.

The election shaped up as a bitter disappointment for Douglas-Home, a 61-year-old former nobleman who was trying to lead the Conservatives to their fourth straight election triumph.

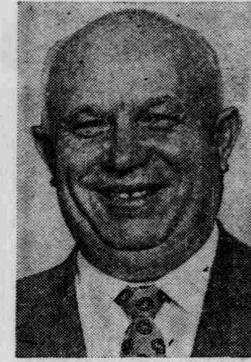

Three members of Douglas-Home's old government failed to win re-election. They are Health Minister Anthony Barber, 44, Public Works Minister Geoffrey Rippon, 40, and Postmaster General Reginald Bevins, 56.

Maurice MacMillan, son of former Prime Minister Harold MacMillan, also failed to get back. He was beaten by Dr. Shirley Summerskill, daughter of Baroness Summerskill, a former health minister in the old postwar Labor Govern-

The Labor Party had one big casualty. Patrick Gordon Walker, 57, the prospective Laborite foreign secretary, was defeated by a Conservative in race-conscious Smethwick, a midlands industrial area near Birmingham. Observers interpreted this result as due in part to a white backlash against immigration from nonwhite Commonwealth countries.

ALEXEI KOSYGIN

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV

Brezhnev, Nikita Protege, Takes Red Party Power Spot

MOSCOW (AP)-Leonid Ilyich Brezhnev, a Communist Party member for 33 of his 57 years, has been heir-apparent to Premier Khrushchev for at least the past three years.

The beetle-browed, stocky Ukrainian made his last previous step forward July 15, when he relinquished his figurehead role as president of the Soviet Union to concentrate on work in the Communist Party, the real source of power in Moscow.

Khrushchev said then that Brezhnev was needed for fulltime work as a secretary of the Communist Party's Central Com-A stocky man with black, piercing eyes and a square jaw, Brezhnev is known to Western diplomats as a man with a sharp mind and a friendly but reserved

A steelworker as a youth, he later became a metallurgist. He has the solidly tough look of a Western steel engineer turned corporation manager.

Brezhnev has been associated with Khrushchev's career since 1938 in the Soviet Union's Ukrainian region. He was born in December, 1906 in Kamenskoyenow Dneprodzerzhinsk. He and Khrushchev came up in the Ukraine as faithful party workers. In 1927, Brezhnev was graduated from an agricultural institute in Kursk, and in 1931 he was admitted to membership in the Communist Party. He is one of the post-Bolshevik, post-revolution Communists among whom technological knowledge was more important than revolutionary fervor.

Brezhnev was posted to the ing World War II.

rank of major general and still was engaged in directing the work of political commissars whose job was to check up on the regular army officers and keep the armed forces from straying away from the party line.

Soviet Party Congress in Moscow in 1952, he became a member of the enlarged politburo, the party's presidium.

It was the power center of the whole Soviet structure. When Stalin died in 1953, Brezhnev was fired from his job as first Communist Party secretary of the Moldavian Republic, acquired from Romania during the war. But by the time other Soviet leaders arranged the arrest and extinction of Lavrenty Beria, Stalin's secret police chief, Brezhnev had bounced back. He turned up in the role of first deputy chief of the Main Political Board in the Ministry of Defense-political commissar of the armed

As Khrushchev rose to power, the new leader seemed to lean heavily on Brezhnev. The Ukrainian was sent to Kazakhstan, (Continued on Page 3)

WASHINGTON (AP)-U, S, of- al situation in the Soviet Union times to take some of the heat ficials expressed belief last night that Nikita Khrushchev was forc-Poor health, and conceivably ed out of his positions as Soviet an appraisal of poor results, Premier and boss of the Soviet were probably the factors be-Communist Party because of mahind Khrushchev's fall from

Brezhnev, Kosygin Now

Red Secretary, Premier

as Premier and Communist Party Secretary.

and his retirement as Premier was voted Thursday.

remains to be shown.

In the eyes of Western diplomats, Brezhnev has seemed to take action and to speak in a responsible way, always of course within the Soviet view-

Kosygin has been a leading spokesman on the Soviet side in the dispute with China. A he hoped to preside over a triumphant celebration of the Khrushchev was at his Black Sea vacation home Tuesday

where he met with French

Cabinet minister Gaston Palewski. Rumors started to fly when Palewski was hurried out of town while the talk was

A more obvious sign to the average Soviet citizen that something was in the wind was Khrushchev's failure to follow his normal custom of telephoning returning cosmonauts to congratulate them.

Although his week's orbiting of three men was the most spectacular Soviet achievement

yet, Khrushchev remained silent after their landing. He had been reported earlier as Khrushchev had not been mentioned publicly for two days, a very unusual thing for

A Tass story about Kremlin talks Thursday with the visiting President of Cuba, Osvaldo Dorticos, said Dorticos

met "the leaders of the CPSU (Communist Party of the Soviet Union) and the Soviet gov-

After the listing of Brezhnev, Kosygin and Mikoyan

were the names of Nikolai

Podgorny, Yuri Andropov and Foreign Minister Andrei Grom-

yko. Podgorny and Andropov

Every top party leader ex-

Brezhnev is bushy-browed and ruggedly handsome. When he stepped down from the presidency in July, it was already clear he was taking a step up as Khrushchev's heir-deliberate than Khrushchev, went to work full time at the center of the Soviet power structure, the top level of the Khrushchev proposed the move himself, bringing Brezhnev onto the same springboard that launched Khrushchev and Joseph Stalin before

Brezhnev has, however.

Communist Party machinery.

Brezhnev, more reserved and cept Khrushchev attended a are secretaries of the party.

luncheon for Dorticos.

speaking to them Monday.

the buoyant Premier.

ernment."

apparent.

him to the top.

47th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

still on.

off U.S.-Soviet relations.

MOSCOW-(AP)-The 10-year era of Nikita Khrushchev ended in the Soviet

The announcement through Tass said Khrushchev requested retirement because

His jobs are being divided among two lieutenants he has trusted, Leonid Brez-

The announcement said Khrushchev's "release"—this was Tass' word—was grant-

The action closes a decade during which Khrushchev dominated most of the Com-

What effect the changes will have on the Soviet Union's relations with the West hnev is taking the key post of Party Secretary and Alexei Kosygin is becoming Preed this week. The Party Central Committee met Wednesday to take up his request for retirement, it added. His release as First Secretary was agreed upon Wednesday munist world. He wound up with the Red world shaken as Lenin and Stalin never could have imagined-in the midst of an ideological scramble with Red China.

Union Friday with an official announcement that he has been released from his jobs of deteriorating health and his age, 70. He is leaving the Party Presidium also.

Speculation here centered on the probability that others in the Soviet ruling group were displeased primarily with Khrushchev's handling of the problem of ties within the Communist bloca problem arising out of the split between Russia and Red China.

ered likely that Khrushchev's critics felt that the Soviet Union had lost too much influence with the Communist countries of Eastern Europe, which have shown increasing independence, and with Communist Parties in Western Europe. Only yesterday the French Communist Party asserted its independence of leadership from UNC experts Dr. Robert Rupen and Dr. Clifford Foust, Both are attending a conference on Slavic peoples in New ceived here with calm and without any sense of alarm. They reported no evidence of any unusual military activity on the was no alert on the part of the United States. The shakeup raises grave questions about the future of U. S .-Soviet relations, relations between Russia and Red China, and Soviet foreign policy generally. Some government experts discounted the possibility of any radical change in Soviet policies under the new leadership but high officiais refused any predictions, saying it was much too early to assess what the new leaders might do.

Odetta: A Beatle Fan

By KERRY SIPE DTH Staff Writer

She was dressed in a business suit and her soft, melodious voice was not so soft as melodious as she went about the serious work of rehearsing for a folk concert.

She tested each microphone one at a time, and checked to make certain that the violet spotlights above her head were in the right position.

One word, "Odetta," was painted on the side of the huge traveling case from which she removed her guitar. A baggage check stub from Raleigh-Durham airport was tied to the handle of the case.

When she started to play and sing, her voice echoed across the emptiness of Memorial Hall and the entire backstage crew gathered at the wings of the stage to listen.

She tapped her left foot soundly on the floor in time to the twang of her instrument. Her knit cap hairstyle glistened under the purple lights and perspiration formed on her broad, brown forehead. Satisfied, she went into her dressing room to change and prepare for her performance. "I was born in Birmingham, Ala.," she said, "but have always considered San Fran-started studying music at the age of 13. I knew then that I wanted to become a professional singer."

Odetta takes her work seriously. "Music has and always will be an important part of society," she said.

"I grew up during the latter part of the big band era in the U.S. People spent all their time just listening to the music. cisco, Calif. my real home. I You can say what you like about teenagers and their rockand-roll, but at least they have got people participating in music again.

ODETTA

"Just listening to music doesn't relax you," she said. "People have a tendency to get too many things too 'up tight.'

"There should be a healthy balance between listening and participating, but there's nothing more satisfying than playing, dancing, moving when the music moves you."

Odetta has a great admiration for the modernist musicians Elvis Presley and the Beatles.

"I used to knock Presley and his music. Then one day I was driving somewhere in a car and one of his songs came on the radio. I turned it up and listened to it and realized that he was doing some things with his music and words that I could learn from."

She thinks the Beatles, "have some very interesting things musically going on" as well. "I turn up their music full volume sometimes and listen to what is going on in the background. It's a combination of exaggerated beat and a sort of harmony that is fascinat-

"I think most of the folksingers of today can learn something from them."

Urals area as a specialist in land use, and there rose to be head of the Oblast (area) Land Department. He left the urals to study metallurgy in his home town, graduating from the metallurgical institute there in 1935. He became a party functionary in the Ukraine and then an armed forces political commissar, serving as with the 18th Army dur-By 1943, he had risen to the

When the war ended, Brezhnev was sent back to the Ukraine, where he continued his move upward in the party. At the 19th

News Of Soviet Shakeup

them cut their losses to a point or so at most by the time the

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 2.4 to 326.1 with 2.2 and utilities down 1.1.

industrials down 3.0, rails down

Volume swelled to 6:69 million shares from 4.65 million Wednes-

Of 1,366 issues traded, 944 de-

Prices also fell on the American Stock Exchange, Volume was 1.71 million shares compared with 1.6 million Wednesday.

Isbell Turns

clined and 199 advanced. New highs for the year totaled 37 and session ended.

new lows 21.

Sends Stocks Plummeting NEW YORK (AP)-The stock were down 1 or 2 points and market was jolted severely yes- more at their worst but most of terday by rumors from Russia that Premier Nikita Khrushchev had resigned. Reports that Khrushchev was out triggered the sharpest break in stock prices since President Kennedy was assassinated last

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was at a low 11.23 points for the day at 863.95 but with some signs of rallying in selected issues. Martin Gilbert, market analyst for Van Alstyne Noel and Co., said that vague reports of impending change in Moscow are "being interpreted by the market as bad news because now we'll have to speculate what might happen."

Earlier, the market had been drifting slightly lower, preoccupied with the British election and the possibility that might lead to policies stiffening interest rates. Losses included U. S. Steel, 87 cents to $60.87; Chrysler $1 to $59; International Harvester, $2.12 to $84.62; Boeing, $1.25 to $63; Polaroid $3.50 to $165.24;

Xerox, $5.75 to $111 and United Air Lines, $1.50 to $53. Of 1,366 issues traded, 944 declined and 199 advanced. The surge of trading swamped the ticker tape and caused its reports to trail floor transactions by 25 minutes at one stage. Volume rose to 6.59 million shares from 4.65 million yesterday. Henry M. Watts Jr., chairman of the NYSE board of governors, said that while it was too early to tell "I see no extended decline in prices." "There was no panic but a lot of scattered selling by the public," said Robert P. Cresci, a broker for A. G. Becker & Co., 'That's why the tape couldn't keep up.' "If the news is half favorable in the market tomorrow," he add-The various news reports from Moscow, however, caused nervous selling by many small investors and traders. Blue chips throughout the list tonight the public will be back

Into Ocean WILMINGTON-(AP)-Hurricane Isbell, swirling on a wobbly course toward the northeast, became less of a direct threat to already floodravaged North Carolina late Thursday. Hurricane warnings on the South Carolina coast were dropped but gale warnings with a hurricane watch were in effect on the North Carolina coast. The Weather Bureau said Isbell's future course was uncertain although a continued northeasterly movement was predicted with a turn to the north likely late yesterday. Coastal residents in both estimated at 90 m.p.h.

South Carolina and North stayed clear of some of Carolina had braced earlier in Khrushchev's policies. He has the day for a direct hit along largely kept out of the runthe same areas devastated on ning ideological debate with the same date by Hurricane Peking, leaving himself clean Hazel exactly 10 years ago. for any possible attempt at reconciliation with the Chinese. A late advisory said Isbell was centered near latitude 31.5

As a member of the Presidium of the Soviet Communnorth, longitude 75.5 west or about 260 miles south of Cape ist Party, Brezhnev worked Hatteras. It was moving todirectly under Khrushchev, the ward the northeast at about 20 Party's first secretary. Although also Premier of the Soviet govmiles per hour, packing winds (Continued on Page 3)

Officials Say Changes Result Of Policy Split

quarrel that has tended at jor issues of policy. power just three weeks before

In the U.S. view it is considfrom any other party.

The Daily Tar Heel was unable to obtain comment on the politic-

The U. S. officials took the position that news of the surprise shakeup in Moscow had been repart of the Soviets and said there

President Orders Probe Of Jenkins

WASHINGTON (AP) - Presi- curity clearance. dent Johnson Thursday ordered a complete FBI investigation of the circumstances related to the resignation of White House aide Walter W. Jenkins. The President's action was announced by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Johnson himself, campaigning in New York, had no immediate comment. Aides said Johnson had not known of a previous Jenkins arrest on a similar charge

Jenkins quit his White House post Wednesday after disclosure of another such arrest here last

He was arrested in a basement men's room of the YMCA, about two blocks from the White House. at 8:35 p.m. Oct. 7. Officers of the morals squad charged him with being disorderly by making indecent gestures.

Jenkins posted $50, forfeited it, and that closed the case so far as the police were concerned. Hoover said in a statement:

"The President communicated with me immediately upon being advised of the Walter Jenkins matter and instructed that there be a full and complete investigation of the matter without delay. "This investigation is in progress and as soon as all facts are obtained they will be forwarded to the President." This was the first official word from the FBI on the matter. However, it was learned that the FBI had investigated Jenkins for a security clearance in 1958, but never since that time. The 1958 check was reported to have turned up nothing that might have Political figures had varied comment Thursday on the arrest of Jenkins and his resignation as a special assistant to President Johnson. Democratic Vice Presidential nominee Hubert Humphrey, on the campaign trail in Pennsylvania, said: "I'm sure the White House will make whatever statement needs to be made. Republican Presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, at Denver, asserted, "I don't intend to comment on it at any time.

WALTER JENKINS

Republican National Chairman Dean Burch, stated in Washington, the President has "covered up for 51/2 years . . . that his top aide had been arrested on a simj. reason for denying Jenkins selar perversion charge."