"It's too bad they lost those two tough games . . . I'd like to have seen them go to a bowl. I think they deserve it."

Gamecock Quarterback Deacon Dan Reeves was very cordial after the game, and quite obviously impressed with the power of the Tar Heels.

"Once in awhile we'd complete a pass, but that rush of theirs would throw me for a big loss and we were sunk. That Hanburger really killed us."

"North Carolina's rush is the best we've seen except possibly Nebraska's, although Florida had a better pass defense. They're a great team and they deserved to win."

The talented and personable quarterback was unconcerned about the injury he sustained in the fourth quarter. "I just never saw anyone until I was laying down."

Seated about ten feet away was discouragment personified-Coach Marvin Bass. Having gone 14 games without a win, the portly coach didn't even appear upset. Just hopeless.

"They carried the fight to us and they beat us. It's as simple as that. That penalty didn't really make much difference for it was too late. I wish Coach Hickey and his boys all the luck in the world. As for us, we're so physically beat up I don't know what there is to do."

Across the way the Tar Heels were in considerably better spirits than their Southern neigh-

Ronnie Jackson was all smiles over catching more passes in one afternoon than he did the entire '63 season. He said he caught the defense by surprise on the touchdown because they keep their safeties in close and he just waltzed in over the middle and found the entire area open.

Ken Willard, who picked up 139 yards, seemed relieved to get, the game over with. "Those South Carolina boys are as big and tough as any you'll find. Some day they'll put it all together."

He thought the two-platoon system especially helped him. "We thought it would give the offense more zip, and it did."

Hickey was his usual solemn self, not overly talkative, but at least pleased that he had a win.

"I'm just glad that those penalties didn't make the difference. We sufe do get those penalties. Not the five yard type, but the big juicy fifteen yard type every time."

It's obvious he won't stop having nightmares about the Maryland game for a long time.

On a more serious note Hickey was pleased with his two platoon system, and thought it made a difference, even if the offense did have the ball almost all the first half.

"We adjusted our offense and we did a good job. We had a good week and I hope it continues."

field goals by Mark Caldwell and a sturdy defense kept Duke among the nation's unbeaten powers Saturday with a 6-0 victory over Army before a sellout crowd of 31,843 at Michie Stadium.

Caldwell kicked 26-yard and 24yard field goals in the second period and Duke fought off an aroused Army in the second half. The Cadets, losing their fourth straight, had a touchdown pass called back because of a penalty in the third period and missed with another drive in the fourth when Sam Champi was unable to hold Rollie Stichweh's pass on the Duke four when hit by Sonny Morris.

A 40-yard pass from Scotty Glacken to Dave Dunaway set up Caldwell's first field goal. Glacken's passes to Chuck Drulis and Mike Curtis brought Duke deep enough for Caldwell's second field goal a minute before the half ended.

Stichweh, about to go down from a tackle by Drulis, hit end Dave Ray in the end zone in the third period but the play was

I love a man in Van Heusen "417"!

You can tell he's important, ready to move up. That "V-Taper" fits and flatters his rugged, rangy physique, and the executive styling of traditional button-downs or crisp Snap-Tabs should take him to the top. Broadcloth or oxford, in all the greatest colors, oh man...that's the shirt for my man! $5.00
