Maryland 27, Navy 22

Ken Ambrusko ran 101 yards with a kickoff return in the final three minutes to give Maryland a 27-22 win over Navy.

The dash down the sidelines eclipsed a record-shattering performance by Navy's Roger Staubach, who only seconds before had thrown a third touchdown pass to put Navy ahead, 22-21.

Staubach's 25 completions in 39 attempts broke the Naval Academy record he had set last week against Notre Dame. His passes accounted for 231 yards and all their touchdowns.

Phil Petry, starting quarterback in an all-sophomore backfield, was equally effective, passing for two scores and running for the other. He had powerful help from tailback Tom Hickey whose line smashes kept the offense moving.

Maryland, winning only its third game and handing Navy its fifth loss, struck for two touchdowns before Navy could get into the game, and led until a Staubach to Calvin Huey pass put the Middies ahead with 2:58.

But before the cheers from the Navy stands could subside, Ambrusko grabbed the kickoff and was off on his touchdown gallop to snatch the victory away.

The one to watch:

1. Check and mate. How about another game?

I'd like to, Fred, but I have to get set for a job interview.

2. Let's act it out. I'll be the boss. Try and sell me.

Okay.

3. "Good morning, Mr. Fishwick."

"Hi there, Freddie boy, buddy, old pal."

4. "Just give me the facts."

"Well, sir, I took Quine's course in mathematical logic, got a B in Wittgenstein's linguistic analysis, and I'm a bug on 16th-century Flemish painting."

5. "You seem well rounded. What's your major?"

"Musicology, cum laude. But I'm getting my M.A. in experimental psych."

6. "You're just the kind of man we need—a disciplined thinker who can tie a lot of things together and use logic to solve complex business problems. The M.A. helps, too. Systems engineering or operations research work at Equitable is for you."

Say, how'd you know I'm interviewing with Equitable?
