

VPI, Wake Forest Clutter ACC Race

WINSTON-SALEM (AP) — Wake Forest fullback Brian Piccolo scored all Wake Forest's points Saturday as the Deacons walloped favored Duke 20-7 to knock the Blue Devils out of the Atlantic Coast Conference football lead.

Piccolo scored on an 11-yard pass from quarterback John Mackovic and battered his way one and three yards for other touchdowns as Wake Forest broke the string of twelve losses against Duke.

The nation's leading ball carrier going into the game with 722 yards in seven contests, Piccolo carried 36 times and gained 115 yards against the leading rushing defense in the conference.

The loss dropped Duke to second place in the ACC with a 3-1-1 record and elevated N.C. State, 5-1, into first place. Wake Forest climbed to a third place tie with North Carolina at 3-2.

Wake Forest opened the scoring late in the first quarter, moving 46 yards in five plays. Wayne Welbourne ran 22 yards to the one from where Piccolo crashed over and followed with the conversion to make it 7-0.

Less than four minutes later Duke tied the score, rolling 66 yards in seven plays. A 29-yard pass interference penalty that put the ball on Wake Forest's 20 helped the drive along. Halfback John Gutekunst raced the final 15 yards for the score.

Gutekunst, who had carried only five times previously this season, replaced starter Sonny Odom who went out for good with an ankle injury in the opening minutes of play.

Va. Tech Downs N.C. State 28-19

Hard-hitting Virginia Tech pulled down North Carolina State's favored Wolfpack 28-19 Saturday behind its No. 1 weapon, flashy Bob Schweickert.

Schweickert ran for two touchdowns, one for 66 yards in the fourth quarter, and passed for a third.

It was the Southern Conference Gobblers' first victory over the Atlantic Coast Conference Wolfpack since 1956 in a series that dates to the turn of the century. VPI leads it now 20-16.

The game was a quarterback duel—on the big plays—between Schweickert and N.C. State's Ron Skosnik, whose pinpoint passes hit for all three Wolfpack scores.

Skosnik got 115 yards on seven completions. Schweickert hit seven for 80 yards. But Schweickert averaged 10.2 yards on the ground in picking up another 122 yards.

Halfback Shelby Mansfield, running for 28 yards and two first downs on six carries in the first quarter, put N.C. State in position to score first.

UNC, Terps Vie For Title

By PETE GAMMONS
Asst. Sports Editor

Tomorrow is the big day for the UNC Booters as they travel to College Park, Md., to meet the powerful Terrapins.

The Terps are the habitual ACC champs and this year are tied with the Tar Heels for the league lead.

Both teams have defeated Virginia and NC State by similar scores. Maryland beat the two teams 2-0 and 6-2 respectively, while UNC won 2-1 and 4-1. The two teams have also lost to Navy, the Terps 1-0 and UNC 7-2.

This game will probably be the deciding factor for the championship and the right to go to the Nationals at Brown University in Providence, R. I. Both hold identical 2-0 conference records with one more game after tomorrow's meeting. The Heels, however, have a better season record with 5-1-1 while the Terps are 5-2-1.

The main chore of the defense will be to stop All-American Eberhard Klein, a brilliant forward who recently scored three goals in an 11-0 romp over Georgetown.

Coach Marvin Allen will have a healthy team except for wing Drew Murphy, who has been hobbled by a tricky knee all year. His playing status is yet unknown.

The season finale will be against Duke in Durham next Monday, Nov. 16.

Harriers Travel To Clemson For ACC Championship Meet

By BILL LEE
DTH Sports Writer

The Carolina Cross-Country team travels to Clemson Monday to vie for top honors in the ACC Championship meet. The local harriers enter the meet with an 8-1 regular season record, the only loss coming at the hands of Maryland.

Fresh from the State championship Monday, coach Joe Hilton will send to Clemson a team in good shape in the persons of Jim Meade, Art Maillett, Jerry Smith, Charlie Little, Drummond Bell, Eddie Daw, Trip MacPherson and Bill Janowitz.

Toughest competition naturally is expected to come from Maryland, and Hilton's hope of revenge received a cruel blow in the State meet when Co-Captain Smith was spiked.

He sustained the injury in the first 300 yards of the race, but finished in good position. He has not been able to practice this past week but probably will try to run tomorrow.

The injury dimmed the hopes of topping Maryland, but sophomore Drummond Bell has looked very good in the last few meets and may take up the slack.

The Tar Heel victories this season have all come over ACC foes except Georgia Tech and East Carolina.
