

Tar Heels Seek To Rebound Against Streaking Duke

By LARRY TARLETON
DTH Sports Editor

North Carolina's Tar Heels are on the ropes, but are determined not to be knocked out of the ACC title race as they battle powerful Duke at Duke Indoor Stadium tonight at 8:15.

This was to be the game of the year in the conference, but the Heels have lost four straight to take some of the glamour from the game. Rumors from the Rock Pile say the Dook students are giving the Tar Heels and 25 points to all comers.

Coach Vic Bubas' squad has begun to show its muscle in recent games and have won seven straight since losing to powerful Michigan. In their last outing

Tuesday, the Blue Devils poured it on Penn State, 121-88.

"I consider Duke the equal of Indiana," said Coach Dean Smith. "We lost by a sizable margin to Indiana, but two nights later we played one of our best games—against Vanderbilt."

The Tar Heels played their worst game of the year Wednesday night losing to Wake Forest 107-85. The players were embarrassed by their poor showing at Winston-Salem, and have pledged to atone for it tonight.

The Tar Heels must again look to Billy Cunningham and Bobby Lewis to carry the scoring load. Cunningham had 35 in the losing cause at Wake Forest and Lewis tossed in 23. Lewis has raised his average back to 18.0.

"Despite what some people are saying, Lewis has done a marvelous job for us," said Smith. "He had a lot of pressure on him. Most teams try to double-team him with guys four and five inches taller, so he has really had to work for his points."

The status of Ray Respass, who injured his hand in the Maryland game and missed the Wake massacre, will not be determined until tonight. If the injury is not affecting his shooting, he will play.

Football quarterback Danny Talbott saw his first action during the last three minutes of the Wake game and gave his usual spiritual effort in leading the pressing defense.

"We will probably play Danny some tonight," said the Carolina coach. "He has blended in to this team well because he learns so quick."

At times this year, Duke has looked as good as last year's team which finished second in the nation. "They are a tremendous shooting team," praised Smith, "and their fast break has never been more impressive. In many ways they are better than last year."

Sophomore Bob Verga is the Blue Devil scoring leader with a 21.3 average, but Jack Marin has been the most consistent Dookie and has raised his average to over 18 points per game.

Duke had a tremendous game against Penn State last Tuesday while the Tar Heels were extremely cold against the Deacons. It is the Tar Heels' turn to have a good scoring night.

"All this team needs to get going," appraises Smith, "is one big win."

Who knows? Tonight may just be the night.

Brodie Says Vets Deserve Top Pay

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Quarterback John Brodie of the San Francisco 49ers said Thursday a regular player in the pro football leagues is "silly" to work for less money than a rookie playing behind him.

Brodie experienced this problem when George Mira was hired by the 49ers at the start of last season for a reported $100,000 three-year contract.

"I asked Lou Spaidia San Francisco general manager who was going to be the No. 1 quarterback," Brodie said. "He said I was. I then told him I expected to be paid more money than Mira."

"Yes, I got it. Until I'm beaten out, I expect more. Any regular is silly if he doesn't demand more than some rookie behind him is getting."

Miller Leads Frosh Against Dook Tonite

By LARRY TARLETON

While the varsity was experiencing its worst night of the year Wednesday, the Tar Babies had their best performance to date while romping over the Wake frosh 104-74.

Tonight the Baby Blue meet their biggest test when they meet Dook's unbeaten frosh tonight at 6:15.

"This team grew up during the last practice before Christmas," said Coach Rosemond. "All of a sudden they just became a team. I hated to see them leave for Christmas because I was afraid they would lose their edge, but they came back and played their best game against Wake Forest."

"We know we have our work cut out for us tonight, but we are ready. We have won four straight against Duke and plan to keep that streak alive. This is the one game we really want to win."

The Tar Babies have lost only to Davidson while beating Clemson, Wingate, NC State and Wake.

STATE TICKETS

Tickets for the State games will be distributed to all students this morning.

Students whose last name begins with letters N-Z can pickup tickets to the Maryland game beginning Jan. 14.

Duke's frosh have beaten V.P.I., Davidson twice, Wake, East Carolina, and Richmond.

The game could turn into a scoring battle between the Tar Babies' fabulous Larry Miller and Duke's Mike Lewis. Miller, the No. 1 high school cager in the country last year, is pacing the Tar Babies with a 33.2 average. Duke coach Vic Bubas tried desperately to land Miller before he signed with Carolina.

"Larry has a lot of pride," says Rosemond. "He was pressing at the first of the year, but has really come along recently." Miller has scored 77 points in the last two games.

Lewis, a 6-7 center-forward from, of all places, Missoula, Mont., is averaging 22.2 points and 19.2 rebounds per game.

Grey Campbell, a 6-0 guard from Bayonne, N. J., has developed into a smooth ball handler for the Tar Babies and sports a 15.0 average. Miller and Campbell will get plenty of help from 6-5 Jim Frye and 6-8 Dickson Gribble. Both are averaging in double figures. Jimmy Shackelford, hit a season high of 15 against Wake and looks ready to live up to his potential.

Lewis will receive help from 6-6 Joe Kennedy (17.2), 6-5 Tim Kolodziej (14.0), 5-11 Don Wendelin (13.7) and 6-8 Warren Chapman (11.0).

Wrestlers Face State In Raleigh

The UNC wrestlers travel to Raleigh tonight to meet N. C. State in their first match since Christmas.

Coach Sam Barnes seems somewhat concerned about the condition of his team. "Everyone but Kenny Furr is underweight and they aren't quite as strong as they might be."

Tonight marks the first time last year's freshman star Wayne Verlienden will be at 147 after wrestling 157 in the previous meets.

Al Fransiscin (123), Furr (130), Russ Simmons (137), Jake Jacobson (157), Elliott Dworin (167), Jay Hanan (177) and Bill Johnson (hw) round out the starting lineup.

The team's record thus far is 3-2, with victories over Pfeiffer, St. Andrews and Davidson, and losses to Virginia and Washington and Lee.

The next meet will be with V.P.I. Monday night.
