Debate Team Scores Third In Tourney

Two representatives of the UNC debate team placed third in a field of 76 top college debate teams last weekend at the Dartmouth College invitational meet.

UNC students Bob Powell and Eric Van Loon defeated Notre Dame, Princeton, Navy, Emory, and other top teams to capture the third place position.

Georgetown University and Wayne State University were first and second in the tournament respectively.

This was the first year UNC was invited to the Dartmouth tournament, and the team's success "virtually assures our receiving an invitation to the national tournament of the American Forensic Association," according to Powell.

The UNC team was the only Atlantic Coast conference team to qualify for the elimination rounds of the Dartmouth tournament.

The team of Powell and Van Loon set a UNC record by winning ten consecutive debates and scoring a total of 32 victories in one season.

Mrs. Jefferson Penn, UNC Benefactor, Dies

REIDSVILLE (AP) — The plantation she gave UNC will be the burial place Tuesday of Mrs. Jefferson Penn, 83-year-old philanthropist and civic leader.

Mrs. Penn, who died Sunday, gave her plantation, Chinquapenn, valued at $7 million, to the University in 1959. Her late husband, Jefferson Penn, was a son of Thomas Jefferson Penn, whose tobacco business was bought by the American Tobacco Co.

The funeral service will be held at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Reidsville.

Late News Briefs

THE NEW MILITARY junta began changing command of key units in the Vietnamese armed forces Monday. These traditional post-coup rites were launched while the future of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh still was under debate.

At the same time there were strong prospects that bombing of Communist North Vietnamese military installations by U. S. and South Vietnamese planes would be resumed soon, and not necessarily in specific reprisal for Viet Cong raids in the South.

American policy makers feel increasingly that the war must be carried directly to North Viet Nam from now on to win in the South. One factor was the discovery that a mystery ship sunk by air bombardment in a coastal cove last week carried nearly 100 tons of Communist-made weapons for the Red guerrillas.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON summoned young Americans Monday to erase poverty and racial injustice from the land and "labor for peace and freedom and an end to misery around the world." He spoke in Lexington, Ky.

And, with a broad look at tasks and challenges ahead, Johnson said in sweeping words that "we can promise you triumph over all the enemies of mankind."

Johnson made no mention of Viet Nam. But outside Memorial Coliseum where he spoke, pickets paraded with signs declaring "Get Out of Viet Nam, Support U. N., Force Kills Freedom," and "Mr. President, You Are Doing Wrong and You Must Do Right."

MORE THAN 200 Negroes, led by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., lined up at the Dallas County Courthouse in Selma, Ala. Monday in another right-to-vote demonstration amid new fears for the life of King.

The integration leader's life was threatened through an anonymous telephone call to a Negro man in Selma, said Wilson Baker, the city public safety director. Baker said the report had been checked and nothing concrete had been found.

King brushed off the threat. "It was just a routine threat, I suppose," he said. "I did not know anything about it."

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE Robert S. McNamara was quoted Monday as saying he would leave it to Congress whether his proposal for merger of Army Reserve units into the National Guard should be put into effect.

Rep. Richard Ichord, D-Mo., told a reporter that McNamara gave this word to the House Armed Services Committee in a closed session. He said he understood Congress would get the proposal in April.

McNamara was before the committee in a continuation of his annual review of the country's military posture.

Last December, McNamara announced plans to abolish the Army Reserve organization and place its functions and part of its personnel in the National Guard. He estimated such a reorganization would save $150 million a year.

Often Late Coed Confined To Campus

A coed was campused last week in a Women's Council trial because she committed her sixth House Council violation.

The coed was late six times over her 10 minute free time. After the fifth House Council offense, the defendant goes to the Woman's Council.
