The Tar Heels and Blue Devils battled to a 10-10 exhibition tie yesterday in one of the wildest games in some time.

Coasting on a seemingly safe 10-2 lead after seven innings, UNC saw the Blue Devils come storming back, aided by Tar Heel pitching wildness, to score two runs in the eighth and six in the ninth.

UNC did not bat in the bottom of the ninth because of the lateness in time.

Duke drew first blood in the top of the first off Beattie Leonard while Dean Helms walked and was knocked in on a booming double to left by Steve Holloway.

The Tar Heels then went ahead 2-1 on solo tallies in the first and second. In the first Danny Talbott, who was three for four for the afternoon, touched pitcher Charlie Young for a single, stole second, and rode home on John Shaw's single. Bob Bonczek's looping triple down the right field line and Dick Fleming's sacrifice fly produced the second run.

After a Biff Bracy double off the center field fence tied the score in the third, the game was all a matter of Tar Heel hits and Blue Devil errors until the eighth.

In the third, Gary Black tripled and scored on Talbott's single. Fleming singled to left in the fourth, went to second on an error, and scored on Danny Walker's single.

They added four more runs in the fifth on only three hits when the Blue Devils made four errors. A walk and a wild pitch by Duke reliever Jim Liccardo along with another error and a single by Ken Boykin accounted for two more runs in the sixth and a 10-2 lead.

However at this juncture Coach Walter Rabb decided to put in his second team. Tommy Kirkman, the third pitcher used by Rabb, had control trouble and after narrowly escaping in the seventh allowed two runs in the eighth on singles by Holloway, Bob Whitely and Carter Hill along with a walk and an error.

Mike McLaughlin came on in the ninth and ran into even more control. Two more errors, three errors, and two - run singles by Whitely and Helms produced the six runs.

Despite the tie, there were many bright spots for the Tar Heels. Leonard and Walker, especially Walker, who did not allow a hit in his three inning stint.

Talbott had three hits and looked exceptional around the first base bag, while Boykin and Walker each had two singles.

Fleming hit the ball sharply every time up, lining a single, hitting the ball deep to left to score Bonczek and lining a shot through third baseman Mule Mueller for an error.

The two teams will meet again Monday at Duke, while this afternoon the varsity will scrimmage against the freshmen.

Redmen Want Last Win For Lapchick

NEW YORK (AP) — The last one is going to be a tough one for Joe Lapchick, but hardly unusual for the tall, seamy-faced man who has spent more than a half - century in the pressure of competitive basketball.

The St. John's coach, bowing out next month due to the university's mandatory retirement age of 65, sends his Redmen against top - seeded Villanova in the title game of the 28th National Invitation Tournament this afternoon at Madison Square Garden.

Lapchick's 20th and last St. John's team is an inspired bunch that makes no bones about its goal — winning this last one for the coach. If the Redmen do, it will be a record fourth NIT crown for Lapchick and St. John's.

St. John's whipped Boston College, second - seeded New Mexico and Army on its way to the final, for a 20-8 season record. The big triumph prior to the NIT was, of course, the victory over top - ranked Michigan in the Garden's Holiday Festival.

Villanova, 23 - 4 and eighth-ranked nationally, edged Manhattan 73 - 71 in the NIT quarterfinals but routed New York University 91 - 69 in Thursday night's semis. The Wildcats scored a 52 - 43 home court victory over St. John's during the regular season.

Villanova's strength is two-fold, tenacity and quickness. The Wildcats on defense keep their hands up and moving, gang up on the man with the ball, and make the opposition earn its points.

Their pacesetter on attack is Bill Melchioni, a scrappy driver. Jim Washington, 6-foot-7 center, and 6-8 sophomore Bill Soens give them superior rebounding and good close - in scoring.

St. John's has been led by shooter Ken McIntyre, whose 83 points in three games includes 29 - for - 29 from the foul line. Over - all, the 6 - 3 blond gunner has hit 42 straight free throws.

Army and NYU meet in the preliminary for third place for the second year in a row. The Cadets won last time, 60-59, and should repeat.

Lapchick, who never went to college, was a teen - aged professional and a star with the famed Original Celtics. Between his two stints at St. John's, he coached the pro New York Knicks for nine seasons, 1947-56.

I love a man in Van Heusen "417"

It's wild, the way his long, lean good looks come on strong in that "V-Tapered" fit. Anyone can tell he's top man on my scene when he steps out in the stepped-up styling of authentic Button-Downs or smooth Snap-Tabs. And the added attraction of Van Heusen spring fabrics and colors make him my favorite distraction.

VAN HEUSEN

V-Taper—for the lean trim look.

THE BUTTON-DOWN WITH BUILT-IN APPEAL

When a man means business he counts on a Van Heusen to spell it out. He takes on the turned-on authority of its authentic styling, with its great soft collar roll... slim, nimble "V-Taper" fit, fastback pleat, collar button and locker loop. Plus the spring swagger of cool short sleeves. Cool price, too!

Finley Fires Sheep, Looks To Defense

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Charlie Finley fired the sheep, retired the shepherd and hired a Missouri mule to put a kick in the Kansas City Athletics. He also moved back the fences and traded Rocky Colavito's home runs for the gloves of Jim Landis and Mike Hershberger.

Everything will be up-to-date in Kansas City. The public address system will serenade the retiring pitcher with "Good Night, Sweetheart." Johnny Keane will hear "St. Louis Blues" when he changes a New York Yankee pitcher.

Manager Mel McGaha is optimistic but the hard facts of life in the American League indicate another tail - end finish for the A's.

"We are rebuilding," McGaha said as a starter. Then he changed. "Maybe you'd better make that building. We're going with the kids. The Phillies made that decision a few years back and they made a good run last year. Their kids had grown up. We hope ours have, too.

"Making the outfield bigger should help our pitching. They were shell - shocked last year. We came within five home runs of setting a record for most home runs hit by the opposition in our park. It got to be a psychological thing.

"We have a lot more grass to cover now and we have Landis and Hershberger to do it. All the fences have been moved back except in right field, because we hit more homers there than the opposition.

Versalles Hurt

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Zolio Versalles of the Minnesota Twins was struck on the head by a teammate's line drive during batting practice Friday prior to an exhibition baseball game against the New York Yankees.

Preliminary reports were the infielder suffered only a mild concussion, but he was under a doctor's observation.
