Piano Concert Sunday

Mrs. Barbara Rowan, piano instructor in the department of music, will play selections from the works of Schubert, Schoenberg, Debussy, Messiaen and Berio at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Graham Memorial Lounge. The concert will be open to the public.

Winner of the 1962 Young Artist Contest, Mrs. Rowan has performed with the Oakland Symphony in California and the San Francisco Symphony.

Viet Nam Protest
Copies of a telegram to President Johnson protesting the United States' role in the war in Viet Nam will be displayed in Y-Court Friday and on Franklin Street Saturday, sponsored by the Student Peace Union. For a fee of 10 cents anyone may have his name added to the message.

CANCELLED
Yesterday's lacrosse game with Amherst was cancelled because of the weather. UNC Coach Cony Steele said that the Lord Jeffs could not reschedule the game because of a "previous commitment in New Jersey," so they left yesterday afternoon. The game with Swarthmore will be played as scheduled tomorrow at 3 p.m.

Troupe Has 'Hay Fever'

The Purefoy Players, a collection of UNC students, faculty members, alumni, and faculty wives, are currently producing Noel Coward's "Hay Fever" on the amateur stage of the Chapel Hill Community Church.

Tonight's 8:30 performance will be the second of a three-night run for the show. There is no admission charge.

Directed by Jo Pettis, the comedy concerns a wacky English family and the four guests they invite for a country weekend.

Included in the cast are Betty Sager, Walter Spearman, Roberts Batson, Mary Lindsay Spearman, James Gardner, Mark Burnham, Sally Prange, Jo Stipe and Ginger Young.

A career where it's an asset to be a woman

ADVERTISING

ADVERTISING is one field where your innate ability to think, feel, and act like a woman is an advantage. Why? Because our business is selling—and women do most of the buying. And who understands a woman like another woman?

Forty years ago, the J. Walter Thompson Company pioneered the idea of women in advertising. Today we have scores of women professionals, including television producers, writers and copy group heads. We have eight women who are vice presidents, one a member of our Board of Directors.

But don't separate Thompson women from men. They work side by side in every department. Many of our "career" women are wives and mothers. Family life enriches a person's understanding of the needs, wants, and aims of the women to whom she is advertising.

"A many-faceted girl—with a Renaissance mind?"

The girl with an eager mind—hungry to learn, curious about the old, fascinated by the new—seems to make the best "raw material" for advertising. She's as much a part of present as past. Tuned in on "pop" art and "pop" tunes. Shakespeare and the Sitwells. "Peanuts" and Plato. The Metropolitan and "The Mets." Her interests are as broad as the infinitely varied interests of the people who are her business.

"I'm able to express myself in many different ways?"

This is why one girl likes Thompson. And it's true that Thompson offers you a unique opportunity to grow and develop in a variety of directions. There is an extensive series of seminars, where you may learn about the activities of the agency's many departments—Copy, Art, Fashion, Broadcasting, Public Relations; Marketing, Media, Research; Production; Administration and Personnel. There are many workshops where you may explore in depth the different facets of the profession. If copywriting holds special interest for you, you may wish to try your wings in one of our writing programs.

"Where else could I find such an exciting place to work?"

We often hear this question at Thompson. Advertising is the stimulating, fast-changing business of ideas. That makes it fun—and hard work too. It is a business that welcomes young people and young ideas in every department. Thompson is interested in what you can do, just as fast as you can do it. You don't start at the top anywhere; but, as a woman at Thompson, you have a remarkable chance to build a stimulating and successful career.

"It's almost like going to graduate school."

This is how a young copywriter described her particular development program at J. Walter Thompson.

You learn on the job, side by side with seasoned experts. Your continuing study is people—their wants, their habits, their hopes. It is, in a sense, a broad curriculum of philosophy, anthropology, sociology, psychology, economics, and many other subjects.

The research behind Thompson advertising must be as meticulous as the research you now do for a term paper. But if your goal is writing advertising copy, your digging may be somewhat unconventional. In addition to our Library and Information Center, it may take you . . . to a super-market . . . or perhaps to the "lab" of a research chemist . . . or to your own kitchen, where you may create a new barbecue sauce.

Does the "big pond" attract you?

Thompson may be just the place for you. Here you will find the challenge and flavor of a major enterprise. Yet you work, learn and grow in the warm and friendly atmosphere of small, intimate groups. And if you're like most Thompsonites, you'll develop strong feelings of loyalty and belonging. People stay at Thompson. And because Thompson is big, and because it builds from within, there are great opportunities to move up.

If you want to learn more about a career with J. Walter Thompson and about how you might join us, please write to the Recruiting Coordinator, J. Walter Thompson Company, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017. Enclose a resume.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

I was a 97-pound weakling

It was awful. At the beach, people kicked sand in my face. Girls laughed and called me "Bones."
Then Schlitz came into my life.
I still weigh 97, but the guys hang around like real pals. The girls rub sun tan lotion on my back and call me "Rock."
They even help me carry my 6-pack.
I love Schlitz.
