

Blue-White Game Climaxes Spring Practice Sessions

North Carolina will unveil its "new look" to the public here today at 2 when the Blue-White game wraps up spring practice in Kenan Stadium.

The game is being sponsored by the Monogram Club, replacing the annual Alumni game which had been played in the past. The public is asked to attend.

Coach Jim Hickey today listed his top offensive and defensive units. New names are abundant and a host of sophomores will see action, replacing some 19 lettermen who graduated.

The No. 1 offensive backfield offers three lettermen and Quarterback Jeff Beaver, who was held out last fall. Max Chapman takes over the halfback slot which Ken Willard ruled for three seasons. Hank Barden will be at fullback. Bud Phillips is the wingback.

Two sophomores are listed as offensive ends. George Zadjelka, an ex-Marine and a transfer student from Philadelphia, will man the wide side. Greensboro's Bob Powell will be in tight.

Two sophs figure prominently at offensive tackle. Lee Davis, who logged some game time last fall, will be aided by newcomers Mark Greenberg (245) and Tom Ingle (240). Ingle was a fullback for the frosh.

Veterans John Harmon of Statesville and Dave Erimias take over at guard. Ed Stringer, who played behind Chris Hanburger last season, is the center.

On defense, the coaching staff will dress three ends in Blue. They are letterman Bo Wood and sophs Lynn Duncan and Jim Masino. Hank Sadler of Charlotte and Joe Churchill of Roanoke, Va., are old heads at defensive tackle. Pat Shea, who didn't play last season, will help.

Joe Fratangelo, who turned in several outstanding games last season, will be at middle guard. Ronnie Kaplan will be first assistant. Jay Malobicky is the only veteran linebacker. Sophs Mike Horvat and Bill Spain look good there.

In the secondary, Billy Darnall (who played wide end in 1964), Gene Link, Bill Edwards and Jack Davenport will rate the call. Edwards has done the punting for the Tar Heels for the past two years.

Tar Heels Lose

(Ed. Note - Because of the lateness of the game and the early deadline full coverage could not be given to the game.) VPI scored four runs in the top of the ninth and walked away with a 16-14 win over the Tar Heels in a game marred by walks, errors, balks and generally sloppy play.

The Tar Heels, behind 5-0, sent 15 men to the plate in the third and scored 11 runs, but slowly but surely the Gobblers came back.

Ken Boykin had a homer for UNC while Danny Talbott had three hits.

DEFENSIVE BACK BILL DARNALL, is making one of the key transitions in spring practice, switching from split end to defensive halfback. This change is but one that will be on display this afternoon in Kenan Stadium in the Blue-White game which starts at 2.

'HomeGrown' Backs To Start On Offense

The Tar Heels will start a "home grown" backfield on offense when the Blue & White game is played here today at 2 p.m. as a climax of spring drills.

Coach Jim Hickey has listed Quarterback Jeff Beaver, Halfback Max Chapman, Fullback Hank Barden and Wingback Bud Phillips as his attack foursome. Two of them - Beaver and Phillips - were teammates at Myers Park High in Charlotte.

Barden played his prep football at Greensboro. Chapman was a prep standout in the Washington, D. C., area, but since has moved to Banner Elk, N. C., where his father is president of Lees - McRae College.

Two members of the defensive backfield are North Carolina natives. They are Bill Edwards of Ayden and Gene Link of Charlotte. Edwards has been one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's leading punters for two seasons.

Peacocks Win Mural Soccer Title

By BILL LEE
DTH Sports Writer

In a nip - and - tuck battle that ended in a 0-0 tie, the Peacocks won the all-campus soccer title by racking up more corner kicks than Chi Psi Thursday afternoon.

According to intramural soccer rules, if a game ends in a tie, the team with the most corner kicks is declared the winner. The Peacocks had five corner kicks to only two for the Chi Psis.

In the first half, the Peacocks controlled all the action as they picked up four of their corner kicks, but the second half was a different story as the Chi Psi repeatedly threatened to score. They missed an easy shot with only one minute left in the game.

Dave Adkins, Craig Ford and Bill Utter were outstanding for the Peacocks who just recently won the graduate basketball crown. For the Chi Psis, Max Skelly and Wyatt McCallie starred in the losing cause.

Chi Psi won the all-campus volleyball tournament earlier by trouncing the same Peacocks. In softball action Wednesday, home runs by Jay Schwartz, Dick Gelberman and Ken Breslow led TEP to an 11-1 thrashing of Chi Psi.

ATO defeated Kappa Sigma, 13-11, in a real slugfest. Tom Broyhill and Brad Munday homered for the ATO's and Jim Woodard blasted a four-bagger for the Kappa Sigs.

Dressen Leaves Hospital

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) - Manager Charlie Dressen of the Detroit Tigers left the hospital Thursday firmly believing he has whipped a heart attack he suffered three weeks ago.

And in his first meeting with sports writers since the attack, he declared: "The Yankees can be had." The interview, by hospital orders, was brief. It was held in Dressen's crowded room just before he left for home. Dressen managed to get a lot said before the nurse shooed everyone out.

Dressen would not predict when he will rejoin the team but added: "My doctor says I'll be as good as ever, maybe better." Dressen is 66.

Two nurses and Charlie's wife, Ruth, will look after him in the Dressens' newly-acquired West Los Angeles apartment.

He said he was allowed but one long distance call from the club, and he talked with General Manager James A. Campbell. "We talked a lot about things we hadn't been able to before I got sick. We had some trades in the making - and they're still in the making."

Tennis Team Walks Past Randolph-Macon For Eighth

By PETE CROSS
DTH Sports Writer

North Carolina's undefeated tennis team extended its winning streak to eight yesterday with an easy 9-0 victory over the netmen of Randolph-Macon.

Only sophomore Bronson Van Wyck was forced into a third set during the singles competition, and he rallied to easily dispose of John Wolff 3-6, 6-1, 6-0. Number one man O. H. Parrish remained unchallenged thus far by topping Monroe Baisden 6-2, 6-1.

Tom Chewning was the first off the courts for the Heels after downing his opponent 6-0, 6-1. Nat West, Ken Oettinger and Jim Wadsworth recorded the other singles victories.

Parrish and Van Wyck, a good choice to pick for the ACC doubles crown, combined to win their doubles match with Baisden and Scott Hanson. The remaining doubles matches were claimed by the tandems of Chewning and West and Oettinger and West and Oettinger and Andy Goddard.

The freshmen won their fifth straight match Thursday by shutting out the N. C. State freshmen, 9-0. Bob Davis, Rich Holderness, Dick Johnson, Ray Pieterse, Pete Whalen and Bill Spay won the singles, with none of them losing more than three games in a set.

THE SUMMARY

Varsity Singles - O. H. Parrish (UNC) def. Monroe Baisden 6-2, 6-1; Bronson Van Wyck (UNC) def. John Wolff 3-6, 6-1, 6-0; Nat West (UNC) def. Scott Hanson 6-2, 6-2; Ken Oettinger (UNC) def. Tom Hodges 6-0, 6-1; Tom Chewning (UNC) def. Ed Kellogg 6-0, 6-1; and Jim Wadsworth (UNC) def. Lea Harper 6-1, 6-0. Doubles: Parrish-Van Wyck d. Baisden-Hanson, 6-4, 6-2; Chewning-West d. Wolff-Hodges, 6-0, 6-2; Oettinger-Goddard d. Kellogg-Harper, 6-1, 6-1.

Opps! Roger Maris Has Struck Again

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) - New York Yankee outfielder Roger Maris faced an assault and battery charge here Friday as a result of a tavern ruckus in which he is accused of belting a patron. Maris denied it.

Dave Adkins, Craig Ford and Bill Utter were outstanding for the Peacocks who just recently won the graduate basketball crown. For the Chi Psis, Max Skelly and Wyatt McCallie starred in the losing cause.

Chi Psi won the all-campus volleyball tournament earlier by trouncing the same Peacocks. In softball action Wednesday, home runs by Jay Schwartz, Dick Gelberman and Ken Breslow led TEP to an 11-1 thrashing of Chi Psi.
