six goals yesterday to lead the lacrosse team to its third win in four starts, 14-2 over Hartwick. In upping his season scoring total to 20 goals, Parker scored the game's first two goals 25 seconds apart around the 10-minute mark of the opening quarter, added one more in the second period, two in the third and his sixth in the final quarter.

Sandy Reider got three, Bud Adams two, and Pete Williams, Tim Balch and Dan Howe one each to finish out the Tar Heels' scoring.

Charlie Whirstead scored both goals for the visitors.

UNC started out slowly, not scoring until Parker's goal at 10:10. Although they controlled the ball well (Hartwick had the ball in Tar Heel territory twice in ten minutes), they just couldn't seem to put the ball in the net.

After Parker's second goal, Reider and Adams scored before the end of the quarter to give the Tar Heels a convincing 4-0 lead.

Adams and Parker each scored in the second quarter to build the lead to 6-0 by the half.

In the second half, particularly until the six minutes mark of the fourth quarter, UNC played its best game of the afternoon.

Parker scored two more and assisted on Howe's in the third period, then Reider (2), Williams and Parker again made it 14-0 with six minutes played in the final period.

Coach Cony Steele removed goalie Harvey Stanley with four minutes gone in the quarter. The captain had made a few good saves, but in shutting out the visitors was not nearly as pressed as he was in the three previous meetings. Both Hartwick goals were scored against sophomore Dan O'Quinn.

Bob Morrison and Adams each had two assists for Carolina, while Parker, Tom Thayer and Jake Hubbard had one each.

Camp Lejeune southpaw Fred Roth allowed the Tar Heels only four hits yesterday as the Marines sent the Tar Heels down to their third defeat of the season, 4-2.

Carolina coach Walter Rabb used five pitchers, Beattie Leonard, Bill Dannemann, Danny Walker, John Hubble and Bob Reagan against the Marines. His original plan was to let the first four go two innings then let Reagan mop up, but Hubble hurt his arm in the seventh and Reagan came on to finish the game.

Hubble, who pitched to only two men, absorbed the defeat although he didn't allow a hit. He gave up a walk to Lou Lepito, and his error on Roth's bunt put the pitcher on. Both scored on Jim Hall's ground rule double off Reagan.

Leonard gave up a tainted run in the second, and Reagan allowed the final run in the eighth. Danny Talbot collected two of the Tar Heel hits, an infield single in the fourth and a run-scoring double in the sixth. Dick Fleming and Bob Hume had the other Carolina bingles.

Trailing 1-0, the Tar Heels tied the score in the sixth when Fleming led off with a single to left, and Rodney Thompson, hitting for Walker, sacrificed him to second. Dick Prindle walked, but Gary Black forced Fleming at third. Talbot's sharp double down the left field line scored Prindle.
