A Week Of Discontent—At Home And Abroad

men had only the constant disheartening reminder of discontent. from the world's trouble spots to write about. Teletypes clacked constantly with report after report of uneasiness in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

Page 2

The week began, however, with rustlings of discontent a little closer to home.

Last Saturday and Sunday crowds of as high as 8.000 gathered on the unimproved cow pasture of a Durham formhouse to observe and participate in a rally sponsored by the United Klans of America in protest of "communists and niggers."

About 1,000 Ku Klux Klansmen in robes and an undetermined number in shirtsleeves led by national Klan Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton congregated Saturday night to burn a cross and listen to Klan propaganda.

Exhorting the advantages of belonging to the class of "white, protestant, gentiles," the Klansmen delighted again and again over the fact that "there was not one black face in the whole crowd."

VICE-PRESIDENT HUMPHREY

Drawing less of an audience than the Klansmen, Vice - President Hubert H. Humphrey spoke in Durham at a commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the last important surrender of the Civil War at the Old Bennett Place just outside the city limits.

The event which recalled the 1865 surrender of Confederate Gen. Joseph E. Johnston to Union Gen. William T. Sherman, heard Humphrey say "We must never permit vengeful radicals to dominate the American scene: there is no room in America for hate."

When Duke University prosident Douglas Knight reminded the Vice - President that he was "competing with certain nameless wanderers of the night" at his Saturday night appearance, Humphrey said he hoped those who attended the Klan rally

During most of the week news- up, in protesting U. S. interven- pointed campus gadfly, told an tion in Viet Nam.

> May 15 was set as the date of the radio debate between Mac-George Bundy, LBJ's special assistant on international affairs, who will represent the administration; and Hans Morganthau, author and journalist who will speak against U. S. policies in Viet Nam.

BUILDINGS DEFACED

Some as vet unidentified person or persons left their mark on several campus buildings Tuesday night. Police a woke Wednesday morning to find painted messages calling for U. S. withdrawal from Viet Nam and "jobs and freedom for all" painted on steps and doorways from one end of the campus to the other.

Victimized were the Old Well, Manning Hall, Louis Round Wilson Library, the steps of South Building, the south door of Lenoir Hall, both sides of the doorway at Y-Court, the Air Force ROTC building and the campus police scooter.

Campus Police Chief Arthur Beaumont said that the "chickens foot" emblem of the Student Peace Union appeared on several of the signs, but SPU Chairman Chip Sharp said the SPU "does not condone" the vandalism although "we may agree with the opinion ex-pressed." Sharpe said he "has doubts" as to whether the persons involved were actually sympathetic to the cause of peace in Viet Nam or whether they were deliberately attempting to discredit the pacifist SPU.

Workmen who tried all day to remove the marks decided that only by sandblasting could the job be done thoroughly.

THE BEDSIDE OTELIA

Wednesday night Otelia Connor asked: "Why should a girl give everything she's got for nothing?"

WALT DISNEY'S GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT!-

audience of over 100 men and women collected at a Di-Phi Senate debate that she was definitely not in favor of pre-marital sexual relations.

"We're not like rabbits," she said.

NEW FRATERNITY?

UNC may get an additional social fraternity next year.

Phi Sigma Kappa, which was active here several decades ago land.

The previous route of Radial

Five sliced through East Franklin Street and Battle Park. It would continue from the intersection of Country Club and Gimghoul Roads across Raleigh Road past the Institute of Government. It would then cross U. S. 15-501 Bypass, Manning Drive and Morgan Creek. The proposal would cut the road at the Manning Drive intersection.

campus radio station which will operate on carrier current lines. The measure has been in the tentative stages for almost a year and was postponed in March to keep the issue from interfering with the spring elections.

MAVERICK HOUSE

The Mavericks of Craige took top honors Wednesday night in the annual Men's Residence Council awards.

Maverick House was awarded trophies for the most outstanding and the most improved residence hall.

Craige President A. D. Frazier was presented a trophy as the best residence hall president.

KAGE HONORED

Retiring Air Force ROTC Commander Lt. Col. Gordon D. Kage was honored by the Air Force and Navy ROTC units in a pass in review ceremony Thursday in Fetzer Field. Kage was presented the Air Force Commendation Medal.

Lt. Col. Kenneth W. Slaker will fill the post vacated by Kage. Slaker has just returned from a tour of duty in Semback, Germany.

is attempting to colonize.

Potential members will be selected through a screening program to be carried out this spring. National officers, a r e a alumni and undergraduate delegates from other universities will meet with UNC men selected for membership May 15.

The fraternity will petition for official recignition here next fall, and will arrange housing rental.

Students interested in screening for membership should contact Robert W. Watson Jr., Phillip Adams, George Ingle, Tom Cline or Charles Chapman.

RADIAL APPROVED

All of Chapel Hill's radial road will slice through University property if the recommendation of the Board of Aldermen is approved by the State Highway Commission.

The Aldermen voted Thursday night in favor of the long - debated Thoroughfare Plan, designed to reroute some traffic away from the congested downtown area. The only amendment to the proposal was that Radial Mrs. Connor, UNC's self-ap- Road Five cut only through UNC would bypass the areas of heavy pedestrian traffic. CAMPUS RADIO

Legislature has been called for Tuesday night to bring the longpostponed campus radio bill to

> The meeting will consider the establishment of a $23,000 intra-

The University had leaned toward Radial Five, since it

A special session of Student a vote.

MORE PROTESTING TO COME

stiz of the Political Science Department announced that the Students for Democratic Society were planning to stage another protest movement.

It was announced that the SDS will sponsor a nation-wide closed circuit radio "teach-in" and that UNC would participate via a national telephone hook-

terurelarelifigereint. febereilffigereter

Come in now and pick a Card

art. distant, ashi-a taut