

Tennis Team Polishes Off ACC Title

RALEIGH—After wrapping up the ACC Tennis title Friday in Raleigh, the Tar Heel netmen put a lovely ribbon on the package yesterday by winning all five of their final matches in singles play.

Number one man for the Tar Heels, O. H. Parish started off the singles action yesterday for UNC, downing his opponent Jim Stevens of Virginia in a three-game set: 6-2, 2-6, 8-6.

Bronson Van Wyck took another three-game duel for the Heels, defeating Larry Modzelewski: 6-2, 0-6, 6-0.

Nat West again conquered his man in just two games, taking a quick pair from Ken Donnan: 6-4, 6-4.

Tom Chewing beat Howard Crow 6-2, 5-7, 6-2.

James Ledbetter rounded out the Tar Heel victory parade, downing Clemson's Tom Long in a three-game battle: 6-1, 6-8, 6-3.

In doubles competition, the Carolina netmen were again the most impressive of the field.

Parish-Van Wyck served up a two-game victory over Rahn-Long of Clemson: 6-3, 7-5.

The Goddard-Oettinger two-some claimed another win for Carolina, defeating Smithyman and Orreklay 6-2, 6-4.

In the final doubles match for Carolina, West and Chewing held a 2-1 margin over Stevens and Fulford in the last game of a three-game set late yesterday afternoon.

New World Record Set In Shot Put

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Mighty Randy Matson smashed the 70-foot barrier in the shot put Saturday, breaking his own pending world's record of 69 feet, 3/4-inch with an astounding throw of 70-7.

The Olympics Games silver medal winner's record throw came in the preliminaries of the Southwest Conference track and field meet.

The 6-6 1/2, 256-pound Texas A&M sophomore had throws of 68-8 3/4, 70-7, 67-9, 69-3 3/4 and 68-4 3/4 for the greatest series in history. He scratched on his final throw.

Matson bettered the listed world record of 67-10 held by Dallas Long of Southern California on four of the six tries. Matson threw with a brace on his left knee where he has a pulled ligament. Every put brought a mighty cheer from the crowd of 3,000 that came largely to watch him.

Golfers Capture ACC Championship

PINEHURST (AP) — John Baldwin, junior from Port Washington, N. Y., won the individual title while leading his North Carolina teammates to the Atlantic Coast Conference golf championship Saturday.

Baldwin, No. 1 man on the Tar Heel team, shot 69, three under par, over the 6,800-yard No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club, had a 36-hole total of 144, even par.

Tied for second, three shots back were Don Hedrick of Wake Forest, first day co-leader; Trip O'Donnell of Duke and surprising Dick Van Leuvan, No. 7 player on the North Carolina team.

Jay Sigel of Wake Forest, 1963 champion, was fifth at 148. His 71 was one of only four sub-par rounds Saturday.

Baldwin had nines of 34-35. Going out he had three birdies, but took a bogey five on the difficult fifth hole. On the back nine he birdied the 14th and parred the rest.

North Carolina had a five-man team total of 744 in winning its third title and first since 1960. Wake Forest was second, 11 shots back. Maryland and South Carolina, which shared team honors last year, finished fourth and fifth respectively.

Dennis Milne of Wake Forest, co-champion last year, finished 12 shots off the pace at 156.
