

Allen Calls Soccer Team "Better Than Last Year"

By RON SHINN
DTH Sports Writer

Soccer Coach Marvin Allen calls his 1965 team "one of the best ever." He thinks it will be an improvement on last year's squad, which lost only to nationally ranked Maryland and Navy, finishing second in the ACC with a 5-2-2 record.

Thirty-five candidates turned out for the initial practice session Monday. Drills are scheduled daily as the squad prepares for its Oct. 1 opener here against Air Force.

Allen singled out senior co-captains Drew Murphy and Tom Roberts as the twin mainstays this season.

Murphy is a center forward who is versatile enough to play several positions. Roberts is big (6-2, 200 pounds) with the quick reactions necessary to the good goalie.

"We have a fine group of returnees from last year's squad and several outstanding players up from the freshman team," Allen said. "I expect top play from inside left Jackie Writer, center forward John Loud and left half Danny Galves."

Allen singled out Jimmy Johnson as the most impressive sophomore off last fall's freshman team, which won six of eight.

Allen, though he insists that his team is better, isn't promising that they'll improve of last year's record. Like football coach Jim Hickey, he faces a tough schedule.

His boys play Navy, for instance, the 1964 national champions. They also face Maryland, which was eliminated by Michigan State in the national playoffs. The Terps have never lost an ACC soccer duel.

Freshman practice starts at 3 p.m. Monday on Fetzer Field. Players may check out equipment at Woollen Gym and practice with the varsity squad today and Saturday.

The 1965 schedule:
*Oct. 1 Air Force
*Oct. 5 East Carolina
*Oct. 8 American University
Oct. 15 N. C. State
*Oct. 21 Pfeiffer
*Oct. 25 Belmont Abbey
*Oct. 27 Virginia
Nov. 1 Maryland
Nov. 6 Navy
*Nov. 11 Trenton State
*Nov. 17 Duke
* home games

HYPERTENSION

What is "hypertension"? It is the medical name for high blood pressure and ranks second only to hardening of the arteries as a cause of heart disease in North Carolina, according to the North Carolina Heart Association.

Gridiron Queen

Nita Wilkinson, the pert Carolina majorette from Durham, will be in the final stages of a football contest of her own when the Tar Heels face Virginia here Oct. 2.

It'll be Band Day but Nita won't be kicking up her heels out front, helping to lead the way. She'll be in Norman, Okla., instead, competing in the final stages of the Miss Football, USA contest.

Nita, who was Miss Durham in 1964, was chosen to represent North Carolina at the contest to try to bring the title, won last year by a South Carolina Miss, to Chapel Hill.

Nita, who is 5-2 and weighs 100 even, is short for a beauty. She was the shortest girl in the Miss North Carolina pageant year before last.

The Miss Football contest is run much like the state beauty contest. Judging will be based not only on beauty and bearing but talent as well.

Nita, who has been dancing since she was three and has had four years of voice, will perform a song and dance routine. It will be "The Secret Service Makes Me Nervous" from the Broadway play Mr. President.

She will leave here Sept. 26, fly to Dallas, Tex., where she will meet a plane that will carry all the contestants to Oklahoma City. The competition will last an entire week.

"It is the very next week after rush and it is going to be hectic," Nita said, "but of course, I'm looking forward to it very much."

Still Too Early To Tell About Frosh Footballers

By RON SHINN
DTH Sports Writer

North Carolina's freshman football team is still an unknown quality.

"It's hard to tell if this group will be as strong as last year's because we haven't had a lot of practice time to ourselves," Coach George Barclay said.

The team has been used extensively against the varsity to help them prepare for their game with Michigan tomorrow. So far I haven't had a chance to see what they can do."

Barclay enjoyed his best year at the helm of the freshmen last season. This year's Tar Babies may have a rough time equaling its perfect 5-0 mark.

That team produced some top varsity prospects. Charlie Carr, (6-3, 201 pounds) end from Virginia Beach, Va., will start tomorrow against Michigan.

Mike Horvat and Bill Spain, both linebackers, and Lloyd Fisher, Jim Masino, Jack Daventport and John Esher are all good prospects.

Coach Barclay is working with a 52-man squad, bigger than last year's team, physically and numerically. He rates fullback, center and tackle as the strongest positions.

The team is blessed with big linemen. Terry Rowe from York, Pa., weighs in at 255. Stephen Forrest from Greensboro is at 260 and Tommy Gardner from Plymouth weighs 262. Five other players are 225 pounds or bigger.

Two of Barclay's charges were Shrine Bowlers — Chip Bradley from Lee Edwards High in Asheville and Doug Thomas from Asheboro. John Harris, a quarterback and halfback at Roxboro, played in the East-West All-Star game.

Last year's frosh quarterback Tim Karrs passed 122 times last season, completing 59 for 751 yards and seven touchdowns. Karrs is the number three quarterback on the varsity this season, behind Danny Talbot and Jeff Beaver.

Barclay is confident that a greatly improved ground attack will make up for Karrs' loss. He also predicts an improved passing game as the season progresses to go along with a better running game. "The squad is in good shape physically and we have some new boys that have just come out who have looked good," Barclay said.

The Oct. 1 Tar Baby game with Wake Forest and the final game with N. C. State Oct. 29 will be broadcast over WCHL radio.

The schedule:
Sept. 25 N. C. State
*Oct. 1 Wake Forest
*Oct. 15 Virginia
*Oct. 22 Duke
*Oct. 29 N. C. State
* home games

Harriers Want ACC Crown Back

By BOB ORR
DTH Sports Writer

Tar Heel distance runners will be making an all-out effort to regain the ACC cross country title they surrendered last fall to Maryland.

Carolina had owned the crown for five consecutive years.

Leading the way for UNC will be senior captain Jim Meade. He was runner-up in last year's conference meet behind Bob Crombie of South Carolina. Joining him will be senior lettermen Bill Janowitz, Charles Lefler and Bill Graham, who returns after a year in Germany.

Juniors Eddie Daw, Trip MacPherson, Rus Putnam, Charles Worley and Stu Matthews all have a year of varsity experience behind them and could strongly influence the team's record. Joe Hilton, who starts his second season as head coach, singles out depth and the individual performance of Meade as his team's strong points.

Hilton will be assisted for the second year by Boyd Newnam a graduate student here now and a former ACC champ in the 880 yard run.

Up from last year's frosh squad, which won five of six meets, are Mike Williams, Bill Bassett, Fred McCall, Bill Wolcott and Tom Carpenter. Williams, the freshman ACC indoor mile champion, has only one year of cross country experience, but is considered a top prospect.

The schedule:
*Oct. 1 South Carolina
Oct. 8 Maryland
Oct. 11 Wake Forest
Oct. 19 N. C. State
Oct. 23 Clemson
*Oct. 27 Duke
Nov. 2 Virginia
Nov. 8 State Meet
Nov. 15 ACC Meet
* home meets
