

Gene Rector

ASSISTANT DTH SPORTS EDITOR

"Let's forget Ohio State and get to work" is UNC coach Jim Hickey's plan for his shocking Tar Heels.

"We played probably our greatest game last Saturday against Ohio State," said Hickey at his Tuesday press conference, "but that is over and forgotten."

The Virginia Cavaliers who visit Kenan Stadium this Saturday are the problem at hand.

"We're terribly concerned with Virginia," said Hickey. "They've lost two close games to Duke and Clemson, but they are the same team that was rated so highly in the pre-season polls."

"Actually," he said, "those first two losses are deceiving. They have been flying up and down the field. They just haven't scored as much as they should."

"They'll be hard to stop," he continued. "Against Ohio State it was a matter of getting your hat on tight. But with Virginia, you can never be sure."

Hickey had praise for Virginia's triple-threat quarterback Bob Davis.

"Davis beat the daylight out of us last year," he said. "He hasn't played as well this year as he has in the past, but he still goes off the corners better than any quarterback I have seen."

Virginia is the big one for the Tar Heels but Hickey could not completely quench the fire from last Saturday's dumping of Ohio State.

"It was one of the few times that I have felt we played a great game and then had my feelings confirmed by the game movies."

"We thought we played well against Michigan," he said,

"but the game films pointed out some mistakes we hadn't seen."

Quality was the big difference between the Michigan and Ohio State games.

"We had good efforts in both games," said Hickey, "but we eliminated quite a few mistakes against Ohio State."

The entire team played a fine game according to Hickey. "It's hard to single out any one individual," he said. "The line did an outstanding job — so did the linebackers. They passed on us a little but they never could shake loose for that long gain. Technically, it was the best game we have played in a long time."

"But I can't help but feel that we are behind in the conference race," he said. "We haven't lost a conference game of course, but we haven't won one either."

Chief scout Emmett Cheek confirmed Hickey's concern over Virginia.

"Virginia has looked impressive," said Cheek, "even though they have lost both of their games."

"They were in the Duke game until the last quarter and they completely dominated the Clemson game for the entire first half."

"Their quarterback Bob Davis is one of the finest athletes I have ever seen," said Cheek. "He can scramble with the best of them."

"While Davis scrambles," continued Cheek, "he can jump and throw, run and throw and stop and throw."

"Of course Davis isn't the only good quarterback Virginia has," said Cheek. "This boy Hodges looked better than Davis. He would probably start for several clubs in."

Top Ten

The Texas Longhorns nosed out Purdue and Nebraska for the top spot in this week's AP collegiate football poll.

Texas collected 15 first-place votes, Purdue 14, and Nebraska 13. UNC, Duke and Maryland were the only ACC clubs receiving votes.

"The hardest way to win a national championship," said Texas coach Darrell Royal, "is to get the top spot early in the season."

"You have to play under the pressure all year," he said.

"It's just too early to start talking about polls."

1. Texas	15	2-0	389
2. Purdue	14	2-0	381
3. Nebraska	13	2-0	363
4. Arkansas	3	2-0	264
5. Louisiana State	2	0	248
6. Kentucky	1	2-0	168
7. Michigan	1	2-0	166
8. Notre Dame	1	1-1	144
9. Michigan State	2	0-2	73
10. Georgia	2	0-2	69

"BONES" MCKINNEY

Bones Quits From Illness

WINSTON-SALEM — Horace "Bones" McKinney announced his resignation today as head basketball coach at Wake Forest, saying that "my health at this time simply makes it impossible for me to continue as coach."

Dr. Gene Hooks, athletic director, said that McKinney's assistant, Jack Murdock, would be named acting coach.

The 46-year-old McKinney had been head coach at Wake Forest for eight years. During that time, Wake won 122 games and lost 94. In the last six years, the Deacons have won 106 and lost only 47.

McKinney's teams went to the finals of the ACC basketball tournament five straight years between 1960 and 1964. The Deacons won the conference title in 1961 and 1962. The 1962 team, led by All-American Len Chappell, went to the semi-finals of the NCAA tournament before losing to Ohio State.

Murdock ranks as one of Wake Forest's all-time basketball greats. The Raleigh native was a three-year varsity regular, graduating in 1957. A guard, he started in 83 consecutive games at Wake Forest and had a varsity scoring average of 14.9 points per game.

Murdock will be only Wake Forest's third head coach in 31 years. Murray Greason served 23 years as head coach prior to McKinney.

FOURTH R

As school children settle down to the three Rs again, parents and teachers are concerned about the "fourth R" — rheumatic fever.

A Letter To The Team

Dear Carolina football players:

You fellows were born as a team that hot day against Michigan and then last week against Ohio State you showed 'em all just how good you could be.

The game was Big Time — a "prestige and currency" affair — and you proved that you belonged. Right there in the middle of Big Time.

Your offense clicked for 14 points and your defense met Buckeye rush after determined rush and refused to break. Time after time Ohio State headed goalward but you met their backs with tackles that jarred the very foundations of their football tradition.

A lot of people have wondered why.

Didn't you read the papers? Didn't you listen to people talk? Didn't you remember the licking you took in 1962? Or was it that you did remember...

John Kilgo, Charlotte News' columnist, has gone out on a limb and said Saturday's win wasn't an upset. We are inclined to join on that limb.

Except for one thing. We heard a player — and let us tell you, he played one hell of a ball game Saturday — say half in jest. "Well, it's back to the little league. We play Virginia next, don't we?"

Tar Heels, if you ever start to take that sort of idea seriously, you are going to be in trouble. Most of the 80,000 who saw you play last week considered you "little league." But you showed them, didn't you. "Just a mild scrimmage for the Buckeyes," they said. But you exposed that "Little League" idea for what it was — a myth.

Now the shoe is on Virginia's foot, or N. C. State's the following Saturday, or Maryland, or Wake Forest, and so on. You proved you weren't little league. Virginia will be out to do the same.

You showed us courage against Michigan. Tar Heels. You showed us a great ball club against Ohio State. Now show us class.

Show us a team Saturday with enough pride to go all out.

only one of its kind
FOLKWEAVE® SUITS

Folkweave® woollens are completely exclusive. Woven by an honored Scottish mill, they are found only in Folkweave® Suits!

Smart Young Styling!

For an appointment for a personal interview, call 942-7226 between hours of 1:00 and 5:00 P.M. Wednesday, September 29

There Full-Fashioned 100% Lambswool Pullover

Thane styles this classic pullover with a youthful dash of action and smartness. The soft, luxurious lambswool is superbly comfortable. Hand washable. Guaranteed mothproof. Sizes S-M-L-XL. You'll want more than one when you see the great colors!

THE HUB of CHAPEL HILL

The Daily Tar Heel

SPORTS

Intramural Results

By BILL HASS, DTH Sports Writer

Intramural tag football got off to a rousing start in the residence hall and fraternity leagues on Monday and Tuesday.

On Monday the Mangum Mugs rolled over the Ruffin Rascals 61-0. J. R. Simpson led the touchdown parade with two scores and one each was added by F.C. Pierce, R. E. Nesbitt, W. A. Holland, Joe Dunn, Sam Harrison, R. L. Carter and C.L. Corner.

Another Ruffin team, the Rebels, fared better as they whipped the Manly Riverrats, 41-0. Charles Markland and Howard Hudson paced the Rebels with two touchdowns each, while Norman Leaf and Charles Rouzer each scored one.

In an intra-dorm battle, the Parker Pack edged the Parker Fugitives, 24-18. Joe Rhyne, Sam Howe and Charles Warren scored TD's for the Pack and Alan Thursby, John Shaw and Wayne Killian tallied for the Fugitives. The winning margin for the Pack came on two points after touchdown and two safeties.

The Morrison C club trimmed the Morrison Marauders, 24-14. Bill Tate, Rod Jurash and Scott Peterson scored for the winners as Bill Austin scored twice for the losers. The Parker Pretzels downed Avery No. 2, 22-2. Mark Graham scored for the Pretzels, along with Tom McInnis and Kent Summers, who also added two PAT's.

Rounding out the residence hall action, the Joyner Jokes blanked the Conner Craniums, 19-0. Bill Mees scored twice and Bill McCoure added another TD to lead Joyner.

There was one forfeit, Morrison No. 1 over the Morrison Steelers.

State Tickets

Students and staff who want tickets at half price for the N. C. State football game at Raleigh on Oct. 9 must get them this week.

Tickets may be purchased at the Athletic Office Athletic pass cards are required.

Just Arrived
JAMES BOND 007
ADULT GAMES
Complete selection of other adult games.

BILLY ARTHUR
Eastgate

DOGS! DOGS! DOGS!

The Oauji Board As An Aid to Celestial Navigation (Naval Science 1941)

I Was a Bush League Hypnotist (Psychology 1935)

Fanny Farmer's Cookbook (Marriage and Family 1900)

Problems of Integration (Math 1955 and Sociology 1964)

These and many other used texts we've gotten stuck with over the years on sale cheap at The Booketeria Thursday.

Waste cans will be placed beside the door for those who buy too hastily.

P.S.—There will be a lot of real gems you'll want to keep.

CHASE DINING HALL

OPEN DAILY

Breakfast 7:00-11:00 Lunch 11:00-2:00
Dinner 5:00-7:15

FAST, PROMPT, COURTEOUS SERVICE

● STUDENT SPECIAL ●

Choice of Meat, Two Vegetables,
Rolls and Butter, Tea or Coffee... 50c

FRESH SALADS, HOMEMADE PIES,
ROLLS and DESSERTS MADE DAILY

NEAR

Morrison, Ehringhaus, and Craig

YOU ARE INVITED TO OUR SPECIAL SHOE REVIEW

Today, Wednesday, September 29

THE HUB OF CHAPEL HILL

WELCOME BACK STUDENTS

(For those of you who arrived late)

Bryon's Open
CAROLINA 'til 11
COFFEE SHOP

THE NEW YORK LIFE Agent on your campus is a good man to know.

Write... Phone... Visit

GEORGE L. COXHEAD, C.L.U.

203 1/2 East Franklin

(Over Dairy Bar) Ph. 942-4358

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Classic Understatement

100% Imported WOOL PULLOVER by PRINGLE

Everything about this soft, warm pullover speaks with full confidence. So it speaks quietly. Its fine gauge imported wool is sheer luxury to the touch. Classically styled with the V-neck in today's narrow rib. $14.95

Harvity

Men's Wear
147 E. Franklin

Campus revolution! Slacks that never need ironing—never! Galey and Lord permanent press fabrics of polyester and cotton. Stay neat—however washed!

Galey & Lord

1407 Broadway, N.Y. 18. A Division of Burlington Industries.