Don't go through life
Without a joy.
Ask for "Perfect"—
That's Fauntleroy.

Burp—Glub—Ah-h-h-h-h. Excuse me, fans, but these banquets are killing me. Every since I pulled the clincher last week and hit all my football picks, I've been swamped with speaking engagements.

FAUNTLEROY

This "fried chicken-green pea" circuit is killing me. It's a tough life—people calling me up at all hours of the night wanting results for Saturday's games, coaches stopping me on the streets offering money for a favorable pick on Saturday.

Oh, well — back to the business at hand. It's hard to believe this is the fifth week of the season. I haven't even decided who will play in the bowl games on New Year's Day. Time's running out.

Here goes, fans:
CLEMSON vs DUKE — This is a tough one for me. I've let ol' Frank Howard lose two in a row and Bill Murray is undefeated. Let's play it cool in this one — pick Duke.
N. C. STATE vs FLORIDA — Anyone knows Gators are stronger than Wolves — pick Florida.

Ah, HA—Here's my UPSET SPECIAL—NURSES OVER NO DATE (Night Game).

SOUTH CAROLINA vs WAKE FOREST—I guess I should let this be a close one. The Deacons are at home, but they really need more advantages than that — pick South Carolina.

VIRGINIA over WEST VIRGINIA — Virginia has pulled out last-minute victories in the past two games. The West Virginia Mountaineers have quite an offense. "Go West, young man—pick the Mountaineers.

DAVIDSON vs WILLIAM & MARY — This is a pet project of mine. Davidson is undefeated and unscored on. I'll let them keep one of those — pick Davidson.

Other games:

- ALABAMA over TENNESSEE
- SYRACUSE over PENN STATE
- PURDUE over MICHIGAN
- S. CALIFORNIA over STANFORD
- MICHIGAN STATE over OHIO STATE

Art By Wortham

The DTH sports staff now has everything — even our own special mixture of culture.

Rick Wortham, a sophomore English major from Richmond, Va., will be the sports staff "artist at large."

Rick's drawings will include "Fauntleroy Disguised," post-game cartoons and head-coach impersonations.

So as ol' Fauntleroy would say:

No need to buy a cultured book.
Just give the TAR HEEL sports a look.

Tar Babies Rout Weak UVA 40-7

The UNC Tar Babies combined a near flawless defense and a merciless offensive attack to down the Virginia frosh 40-7 Friday at Charlottesville.

George Barclay have not been beaten since 1963. "Everybody was a stand-out," reported assistant coach Gene Sigmon from Charlottesville. "In a game like this everyone is bound to be.

Frosh Score Second Win

By BILL ROLLINS
DTH Sports Writer

UNC's frosh booters spotted Clemson a two-goal lead and then roared back to capture their second straight win, 3-2, on Fetzler Field yesterday.

Clemson took a 1-0 lead with 3:30 left in the second period when Mark Rubich rolled a weak shot into the Tar Baby net. Then, halfway through the third period, Rubich hit the nets again with a short shot for a 2-0 lead.

Less than a minute later, however, L and y Anderton took a head pass from Jeff Perry and kicked his team's first goal to cut the deficit in half. With 3:10 remaining in the same quarter, Perry got on the scoring end, taking a pass from Pete Young and tying the count at 2-2.

The clubs battled through 15:22 before UNC struck for the clincher.

Anderton squared off with the goalie, and running at full speed he slammed the ball into the center of the net.

"Too close!" was the word from Coach Clarke Herdic following the struggle. "The boys played a good game against Clemson's club — they don't have a varsity, so actually their "club" amounts to playing boys from all classes."

Herdic singled out Anderton, Doug Barba, Gordon MacKenzie, Jamie Canfield, and John Gussenhoven as outstanding.

Assistant Jim Muchmore declared, "The boys are looking more like a team all the time. They played a real fine match."

UNC Harriers Whip Wake By 15 Points

WINSTON-SALEM — North Carolina Harriers outran Wake Forest here yesterday, 23-8. Captain Jim Meade won for UNC.

The Tar Baby runners also won, defeating the Wake Frosh, 19-36.

DTH Sports Writer Ron Shinn was scheduled to fly to Charlottesville Friday morning but a dense fog that blanketed the area cancelled his flight. This report came by telephone.

"Halfback Bill Federal and fullback Mark Mazza both turned in outstanding performances, as did the whole offensive line. The defense just played their usual excellent game."

The Tar Babies drew first blood but Virginia evened matters up as they returned the kickoff 90 yards into the end zone. Carolina scored again and after that it was no contest.

A pair of touchdowns in the second quarter put the game out of reach but Carolina continued to pour it on in the second half.

End Billy Warren won high scoring honors for the afternoon as he caught a pair of tosses that went in for scores. Quarterback Gayle Bomar scored once on a nine-yard scamper and Peter Davis caught one of Bomar's passes for a score.

Clark Totherow came up with the Tar Heels most exciting play as he intercepted a Virginia pass and went 86 yards into the end zone.

Billy Dodson kicked his second and third field goals of the season with boots of 29 and 42 yards.

Score by quarters:

Tables Turned On Fans

Football players and coaches take their lumps from over-critical fans.

DTH sports writer Bob Orr gives them the chance to strike back.

Coach Jim Hickey — "We've got some of the best fans around. There's lots of enthusiasm. There's some criticism too, but everybody's entitled to their opinion. They paid for their ticket."

Jimmy Byrd, Sr., wingback — "When you're winning you couldn't have a better group behind you. At Virginia when we really needed their support, they sort of let us down."

David Riggs, Soph., halfback — "We need them most when we're not doing well."

Jeff Beaver, Soph., quarterback — "There are too many grandstand quarterbacks. I just hope that they'll get behind us — win, lose or draw."

Danny Talbot, Jr., quarterback — "They only remember the mistakes you make. My biggest peeve is that the fans all try to put the blame on Coach Hickey. It's not the coach's fault if we lose. He can't play the game for us."

Dave Erimias, Jr., tackle — "You can't get a pie for every game. They forget that football players and coaches are human. They all make mistakes."

Bob Powell, Jr., end — "During the '63 Duke game a lady sitting behind me kept pulling for Carolina. When we were ahead, she thought Carolina football and Coach Hickey were the greatest. After Duke's touchdown Coach Hickey and the team were 'rock-bottom'. When Max Chapman kicked the winning field goal, we were back in 'fat city'. If she's a typical fan, I don't think much of them."

"The coffee's freshly ground and the larder's fully stocked."

UNC Booters Blank State

RALEIGH — North Carolina booters dominated N. C. State to the tune of a 3-0 win here yesterday to successfully open their AC season with their fourth straight victory.

Willem Polack registered the club's first goal in the second quarter, with Jim Johnston and Larry Heath following suit in the final period.

UNC kept State bottled up throughout the match, taking 35 shots to only five for the hosts. They didn't allow the Wolfpack a single serious scoring threat.

Coach Marvin Allen singled out Johnston, Gordon Cadogan and Jackie Writer for their play. He thought some individuals performed better than before, but said the overall team play was under the usual standard.

The Old West Studs whacked Carr, 47-0. Kern Everett was the big gun with three touchdowns and two extra points. Roy Alexander scored twice and Dave Randalman and Dave Owens added touchdowns for the Studs.

Old East blanked Battle - Vance - Pettigrew, 8-0. A first-half TD and a second-half safety provided the point for Old East.

Maverick C No. 2 romped to an easy 40-0 win over Maverick A No. 1. Mike Lombardo paced Maverick C with a pair of touchdowns. Other TD's were contributed by Mike Mulcahey, George McDaniel, Larry Poe and Chris Hodges.
