

Rinaldi Testifies

(Continued from Page 1)

the police. He replied "I never suggested any motive." He denied making statements to police on the night of his arrest.

Rinaldi told the court the officers must be wrong because "I know I'm right." He made the statement after being asked about statements he made to police officers Howard Pendergraf and James Merrill of Chapel Hill and a State Bureau of Investigation agent F. G. Satterfield Jr.

Satterfield testified last week that police might think Rinaldi killed his wife for three reasons: Financial difficulties, money, or another woman.

Rinaldi admitted during the lengthy cross-examination that he had visited a psychiatrist 14 or 15 times in 1962.

Rinaldi testified he and his new bride came to live in Chapel Hill in September 1963 after being married in July that year in Waterbury. His wife worked only three days in Chapel Hill and quit her job. She returned to Waterbury Sept. 9.

"I'll ask you if you didn't have quite an argument and that's the reason she went back?" the solicitor inquired. "Certainly not," Rinaldi replied.

Alfred Foushee, a Negro writer, testified last week that Rinaldi tried to hire him a dozen times or more to kill Mrs. Rinaldi in 1963. He told the court:

"Each time I said no." Questioned about this, Rinaldi said, "I never asked Alfred Foushee any such thing."

"I'll ask you if you didn't try to sell everything your wife owned?" the solicitor declared. "I did not," Rinaldi answered.

During the lengthy cross-examination, Rinaldi said the shirt he wore on the shopping trip with Sipp bore some blood stains. He said his wife had a nose bleed the night before. He said he was not aware the stains were on the shirt at the time.

Cooper asked him if he didn't tell Chapel Hill Police Capt. Roy Durham when the officer came to the Rinaldi apartment on Christmas Eve that "Someone has killed and robbed my wife."

Rinaldi denied this. The defense succeeded in introducing a letter found on the coffee table in the Rinaldi apartment that had been written by Lucille Rinaldi.

The letter was addressed to Kevin Kerrane, who had roomed with Rinaldi. In the letter, she said her husband had gone on a shopping trip "to tell Santa what a nice girl I have been." Later in the letter was the sentence, "This Christmas is all we hoped it would be."

Solicitor Thomas B. Cooper Jr. probed into Rinaldi's background closely during his lengthy cross-examination. Rinaldi attended Taft Prep School in Connecticut and was graduated from Georgetown University where he majored in English.

A former employe of the Central Intelligence Agency, Rinaldi was asked by the solicitor if he wasn't "kicked out" of the CIA.

"I certainly was not," he replied. "I'll ask you if they didn't fire you because of a picture that appeared in a Waterbury newspaper that identified you as a CIA agent," Cooper asked.

Rinaldi again replied, "No," adding "I say I was not fired."

Questioned about his military service, Rinaldi said he served three years in the Army at Ft. Knox, Ky., and Ft. Benning, Ga. During that time he attended but failed to complete an officers candidate school.

"Isn't it true your fellow officers rated you as unacceptable?" Rinaldi replied.

Cooper then asked him, "You didn't flunk out of OCS because of grades?"

Rinaldi answered that he did not. "You were taught in the Army how to kill?" Cooper asked.

Defense attorneys strongly objected to this question and Judge George M. Fountain sustained the objection.

Rinaldi said he first went to Carolina in 1956 as a graduate student. The following year he began teaching at the University of Missouri, but quit because "I had a disagreement with my superior in policy making. An unfriendly situation developed."

Hoover Hints Communists Behind Demonstrations

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover hinted yesterday that a communist youth group is pulling the strings in recent nationwide demonstrations against U. S. policy in Viet Nam.

Leaders of the W. E. B. Dubois Club of America, the FBI director said, "Were prominent among communists who attended a special youth leadership school sponsored by the party last June to prepare for a stepped-up campaign of recruitment and agitation among youth."

"Already this fall, there are signs that these training sessions have begun to bear fruit — in the form of defiant protest against law and authority," he said.

Hoover described the Dubois clubs as "an illegitimate spawn conceived by the Communist Party and nurtured by a trusted band of youthful adherents to the cause of world Marxism."

The clubs, Hoover said, are "standing in the forefront of the communist campaign to confuse the minds, distort the thinking and win the support of our young people."

Hoover, in a speech prepared for the Supreme Council of 33rd Degree Masons for the Southern Jurisdiction, did not specifically link the Dubois clubs to the recent rash of anti-draft and anti-Viet Nam demonstrations that have erupted across the nation. But these have been paramount among the gatherings in the period to which he referred as "this fall."

The 70-year-old Hoover — himself a Mason for 45 years — also chose the masonic forum to renew his criticism of some of the nation's courts.

"The jousting in legal mumbo-jumbo resorted to by too many of our judges makes a farce of our judicial system," he said.

"Tragically, the atmosphere of many of our courtrooms is still polluted by some jurors who deliberately close their minds to the evidence before them."

"Too many of our judges seek out technicalities rather than guilt or innocence. A trial should truly represent an enlightened search for truth so that deception, surprise, technicalities and delay will be obliterated."

TWELVE MORRISON RESIDENTS AND A peared mysteriously Saturday morning in the TERP: That was last weekend's toll in soggy area behind the new Morrison dorm. Schroeder Swamp. The 13 grave markers ap-

Klansman Faces Congress

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congressional investigators sought to show yesterday that Ku Klux Klan Grand Dragon Robert M. Shelton finagled the Klan's bank account by using disguised signatures on its checks.

The expert, Philip Schmitz, testified that signatures of James J. Hendrix on Klan checks actually were written by Shelton's wife, Betty L. Shelton.

He said another signature of T. M. Montgomery on a Klan check actually was the writing of Mrs. Carol Long, alleged to be a secretary employed by the group at its Tuscaloosa, Ala., headquarters.

Shelton, his wife and Mrs. Long pleaded the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer all questions. They also invoked the First, Fourth and 14th Amendments in a long ritual which they repeated after each question.

Shelton, a slender 36-year-old in a conservative grey suit and flashing a diamond ring on his left hand, refused to answer 73 times. He seemed calm and self-possessed as he did so and as he refused to produce Klan documents subpoenaed by the committee.

As the hearing opened this morning, committee investigators said they had located 381 Klan units in a 10-month search, but were hampered by the terror they said the Klan inspires in many parts of the South.

"These people fear harassment, threatening letters, telephone calls, cross burnings on their property, beatings, bombings, and, yes, even death," said Donald T. Appell chief committee investigator.

The big House caucus room was crowded with spectators, newsmen, and photographers. Extra policemen were stationed in the room and outside.

A plainclothesman in the audience in the enter aisle watching for any disturbance, but there was none.

The morning session was devoted to an elaborate presentation by committee staffers of the history of the Klan since it was founded after the Civil War, its long record of violence, and its spread in the South and a few northern states in the past two years.

Maps of each southern state were flashed on a large screen, with dots representing the various Klaverns or local Klan clubs. At the end the investigators told newsmen that of the 381 Klaverns they found, 260 are affiliated with Shelton's United Klans, and others belong to a dozen splinter groups.

There was a murmur of laughter in the room when Appell flashed the mystic titles

Klan officials use in their Klaverns, such as Exalted Cyclops (president), Klaliff (vice president), Klorkard (lecturer), Kludd (Chaplain), Kligrapp (secretary), Klabebe (treasurer), Kladd (conductor), Klargogo (inner guard), and Klaxter (outer guard).

With Shelton refusing to answer any questions, committee staffers read into the record evidence that he is president, or Grand Dragon, of Imperial Wizard, of the United Klans of America, the largest of the Klan groups.

They said this group operates out of Tuscaloosa, Ala., and uses the name Alabama rescue service for its bank account.

After a series of unanswered questions about signatures on Alabama rescue service checks and on bank signature cards, the committee wheeled up its big gun — handwriting expert Schmitz.

He testified he was trained in his profession by the FBI, and since then has worked for the Veterans Administration. Schmitz said he has testified as an expert in many trials, besides the famous Hiss case.

Hiss, a former State Department aide, was convicted of lying when he denied passing secrets to a Russian spy ring.

Using a slide projector with samples of the handwriting involved, Schmitz gave a detailed lecture on similarities he said proved the check signatures were written by the two women.

Committee chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., told Shelton in the case of the subpoenaed documents that invoking of the Fifth Amendment was not a proper grounds for refusal to produce them. He warned Shelton his refusal could lead to a contempt of congress citation.

Shelton had his response — citing the First, Fourth, Fifth and 14th Amendments — written out and he read it off each time. He finally was persuaded by Willis not to go through this ritual each time, but to cite the grounds as previously stated. But soon Shelton reverted to the long form.

Michigan Congressman Paul H. Todd Jr. will review the history of the federal government's role in population policy at a seminar here this month.

The two-day seminar will be held by the University Population Program Oct. 27-29.

The major concern of the meeting will be discussion of a general population policy for the United States.

The League of Women Voters will hold an orientation meeting tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. John Schwab, 1030 Highland Woods.

League policies and the coming year's program will be discussed. The featured speaker will be Mrs. Donald

Center are invited to meet with the Murdoch Committee members in front of the Y at 2 p.m. Wednesday. There will be a meeting of the Communications committee of SG at 5 p.m. in Roland Park II on the second floor of GM. All members are urged to attend as this will be an organizational meeting. For information contact Hurley Thompson at 929-5475.

Elections Board meeting at 3 p.m. in the Grail Room. Wear a coat and tie.

The International Relations committee of the YWCA will meet at 5 p.m. upstairs in the Y.

VIGAH, Program Development only at 7 p.m. in the Grail Room of GM.

Treasurers of all SG committees will meet in Roland Park II and III from 7-8:30 p.m.

A debate of the Philanthropic Society "Should the U. S. Oppose a Unilateral declaration of Freedom by Southern Rhodesia?" at 7:30 p.m. in Phi Hall, fourth floor of New East. Also the inaugural ceremony of Press. G. Wright Doyle.

Ways and Means Committee at 3:30 p.m. in Roland Park II. This is a regular meeting and Yack pictures will be taken.

Around Carolina

TODAY
Amateur Radio Club at 7:30 in Caldwell Y.

The Religious Interfaith Council will meet at 5 p.m. upstairs in Lenoir Hall.

The treasurers of all SG committees and the Budget committee meet at 7:8:30 p.m. in Roland Parker II and III in GM.

State Affairs Committee will meet in Woodhouse at 4:30 p.m. Project assignments will be made. Attendance is mandatory.

The Tar Heel Invitational Debate Tournament needs students to keep time for championship intercollegiate debates Thursday-Saturday. Sign up at GM Information desk or call 933-2155.

There will be a compulsory meeting of all the nominees for class officers in Gerrard Hall at 7 p.m.

Residence Hall Ad Hoc committee will meet with Dean Long and Brit Gordon in Roland Parker III at 4 p.m.

Student Audit Board will meet promptly at 5 p.m. in the lobby of GM. Please wear a coat and tie as the Yack Photo will be taken.

Stray Greeks will have a supper meeting at Brady's at 6:30 p.m.

All students interested in working with the mentally retarded children at Murdoch

UNC students are wanted to work with mentally retarded patients in John Umstead Hospital at Butner, N. C.

Robert E. Boone, chairman of the YM-YWCA, said yesterday that students are needed to work mornings or afternoons Monday through Friday and on weekends on programs of case aid, recreation, occupational therapy, and education.

Selection will be based on the volunteer's friendliness, dependability, and desire to work, he said.

An organizational meeting will be held Thursday at 7 p.m. in Gerrard Hall for all interested persons.

Michigan Congressman Paul H. Todd Jr. will review the history of the federal government's role in population policy at a seminar here this month.

The two-day seminar will be held by the University Population Program Oct. 27-29.

The major concern of the meeting will be discussion of a general population policy for the United States.

The League of Women Voters will hold an orientation meeting tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. John Schwab, 1030 Highland Woods.

League policies and the coming year's program will be discussed. The featured speaker will be Mrs. Donald

Campus Briefs

Interviews for positions on the UNCC delegation to this year's State Student Legislature will continue today through Friday from 2 to 5 p.m. in Roland Parker Lounge I of Graham Memorial.

SSL, which will meet in February, is a mock state legislature with representatives from nearly all North Carolina colleges and universities.

Resolutions and bills concerning student welfare and state needs are introduced and voted on by the body.

All interested students are invited to apply.

Dr. Amnon Rapoport of the UNC Psychology Department has won first prize of $1,000 in the Creative Talent Awards program.

The program is sponsored by the American Institute for Research in the Behavioral Sciences. Dr. Rapoport won for his dissertation entitled "Comparison of Four Models for Word - Frequency Distributions from Normal and Aphasic Speakers." There were 70 other candidates nominated for the award.

N. C. FIRST
The first school of forestry in the United States was established at Biltmore, N. C., in 1898 by a German forester, C. H. Schenck.

FOOTBALL AFTERMATH — This was the scene in Kenan Stadium yesterday as workmen went about cleaning up the last remains of the UNC-Maryland grid battle. Seemingly endless lines of soft drink cups, interspersed by occasional bottles stretched off into the distance, waiting to be gathered up and hauled away.

UNC To Hold Debates, 40 Schools Invited

Some of the nation's top collegiate debaters will be here tomorrow through Saturday for the Tar Heel Invitational Debate Tournament.

Participants from 40 schools will engage in eight rounds of debate on the topic — "Resolved: That law enforcement agencies should be given greater freedom in the investigation and prosecution of crime."

Bob Powell, president of the host UNC Debate Team, said yesterday debaters will come from a wide crosssection of colleges and universities — from Wayne State University and the University of Illinois over to Brooklyn College and West Point down to the University of Alabama and Emory University.

Debating will begin at 9 a.m. Friday in Gerrard Hall. All sessions will be open to the public.

Participants, including last year's top three teams in the nation, were selected from more than 150 schools.

"This should be one of the tournaments in the South this year. It will be a great opportunity for the student body to witness collegiate debating at its best." Powell said.

He also said timekeepers are needed for every round. Students interested in participating in as well as hearing the debates may sign up for these positions at the GM Information Desk.

Merit Finalists

The National Merit Scholarship Committee of the Student Government has invited 321 National Merit semifinalists in the state to visit the campus Nov. 68.

The group will be guests of Student Government during the three day period.

They will attend the UNC Clemson football game, a banquet, tours of the campus and convocations with faculty and student leaders, according to committee chairman Wyatt McCallie.

Move Cars

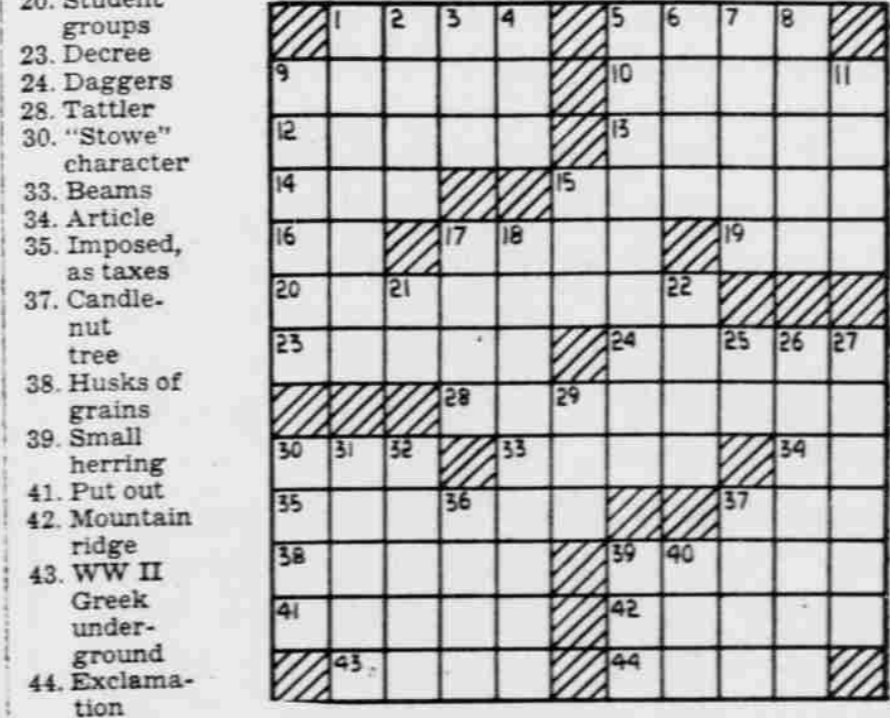

Better move your car from the parking lot near the Cobb tennis court if it's parked there.

A crew will be installing lighting fixtures to permit nighttime tennis games, and Chief Beaumont said yesterday the autos would interfere with the work, which begins early Thursday morning.

DAILY CROSSWORD

- ACROSS
- 1. Sesame
- 5. Domestic pets
- 9. Plant tendrils
- 10. Correct
- 12. Think
- 13. Biblical mount
- 14. Western Indian
- 15. Transfer: Law
- 16. Recto: abbr.
- 17. Pineapple
- 19. Roman money
- 20. Student groups
- 23. Decree
- 24. Daggers
- 28. Tattler
- 30. "Stowe" character
- 33. Beams
- 34. Article
- 35. Imposed, as taxes
- 37. Candelnut tree
- 38. Husks of grains
- 39. Small herring
- 41. Put out
- 42. Mountain ridge
- 43. WW II Creek underground
- 44. Exclamation

- DOWN
- 1. Walked through the tulips
- 2. Canal
- 3. Sea eagle
- 4. Fib
- 5. Cowardly
- 6. Leave out
- 7. Italian port-city
- 8. Trap
- 9. Golf or race can precede it
- 11. Loud noises
- 15. Mother of Irish gods
- 17. Early Britisher
- 18. Concerns
- 21. Diatonic note
- 22. Perches
- 25. Sun god
- 26. Oregon river
- 27. Where to find Bass, Moss, Cotton, etc.
- 29. Youth
- 30. German river
- 31. Liveliness
- 32. Benefit
- 36. King Ahaulpa
- 37. Elder son of Zeus
- 39. Droop
- 40. For

Yesterday's Answer:
1. Sesame
2. Canal
3. Sea eagle
4. Fib
5. Cowardly
6. Leave out
7. Italian port-city
8. Trap
9. Golf or race can precede it
11. Loud noises
15. Mother of Irish gods
17. Early Britisher
18. Concerns
21. Diatonic note
22. Perches
25. Sun god
26. Oregon river
27. Where to find Bass, Moss, Cotton, etc.
29. Youth
30. German river
31. Liveliness
32. Benefit
36. King Ahaulpa
37. Elder son of Zeus
39. Droop
40. For

All-State hairstyling champion Mrs. Georgia Rogers takes position with Aesthetic Hairstyling. Her model is Miss Peach Pearce, current Miss Gastonia and first runner-up in the Miss North Carolina Contest.

- ALL-STATE CHAMPION -

AESTHETIC HAIRSTYLIST SALON of Chapel Hill

is proud to announce the addition of 1964 All-State Hairstylist Champion, Mrs. Georgia Rogers, to their already outstanding staff. Mrs. Rogers was also North Carolina State Champion in 1961.

With her in the picture above are Miss Peach Pearce, a contestant in the Homecoming Queen Contest, which will begin tonight, and several of Mrs. Rogers' many trophies.

LITTLE BUT MIGHTY WANT ADS

JEROME NEEDS A HOME. A monkey with cage and training equipment. Reasonable price. 942-3365.

TRAILER FOR SALE OR RENT. 1952 model 8 x 30 Robins with electric range. Fully furnished. Sale $675, rent $50.00 per month. Telephone 929-2605 after 5:00 p.m.

WANTED: ONE OR TWO males to share comfortable, well furnished two bedroom apartment near campus. Air conditioned. All utilities for $115 - mo. Call evenings 942-3690.

FOR SALE: '61 METROPOLITAN. Good condition, has given many miles of dependable service. $400. All offers considered. Call 929-5279.

FOR SALE: '65 TEMPEST 2-dr ht, 3 months old, 7,000 miles. Radio, heater, straight drive. Owner leaving country. Call 967-1028.

SMALL USE
Of some quarter million species of higher plants, only a hundred are used by man.

WRITE TO ENGLAND

If you would like a neat heraldic shield bearing the arms or badge of your university or college. These 7" x 6" wall plaques cost no more than $9.00 each ppd. Dignified, life-long souvenirs, from top British craftsmen and most flattering of personal gifts. Each plaque you desire is immaculately emblazoned for you by hand for interior decor. Send check direct to England with your instructions.

Wholesale enquiries welcomed
York Insignia Limited
YORK, ENGLAND

October 31st is the day of Halloween when all the witches can be seen at the PARTY SHOP picking out their Halloween needs.

DECORATIONS - FAVORS

AN ACTUAL PERFORMANCE!
Through breathtaking new techniques in film making and highest fidelity sound.

THE LA SCALA PRODUCTION OF PUCCINI'S LA BOHEME FROM WARNER BROS.

TECHNICOLOR* TODAY & THURSDAY 3:00 & 5:00 P.M.

Artistic Director and Conductor, Herbert von Karajan
Production Designed and Directed by Franco Zeffirelli

ADMISSION
Afternoon $1.25
Night $2.00

TICKETS NOW ON SALE AT OUR BOX OFFICE

Varsity