

23-6 Win Ends Perfect Year

Frosh Dump Deacs

By BILL HASS
DTH Sports Writer
North Carolina's Tar Babies put the finishing touches on a perfect 5-0 season with a 23-6 victory over the Wake Forest freshmen in Kenan Stadium yesterday.

It marked the second straight year that Coach George Barclay's freshmen forces have gone unbeaten.

Most of the scoring was done in the first half, as halfback Dick Wesolowski rambled for 101 yards.

The second half was a defensive battle, with the only score coming on quarterback Jeff Carter's 64-yard run.

Neither team moved the ball in the first quarter until Wake's Digit Laughridge returned a punt to the Carolina 33. On the first play Quarterback Ken Erickson found end Bob Brenner five yards behind the secondary and hurled a strike for the score. The extra point was missed and the Deaclets led, 6-0.

After an exchange of punts the Tar Babies finally got rolling from their own 42. Wesolowski ripped off ten yards and Gayle Bomar hit end Peter Davis for 26 yards to the Wake 20.

Wesolowski then took a hand-off, shook off a tackler, and other Wake defenders. Billy Dodson's extra point put UNC ahead 7-6.

Midway through the second period John Harris stole a Wake pass and returned it 23 yards to the Wake 20. On the first play Wesolowski crashed through the line and went to within a foot of the goal. Another attempt by the Canadian failed and Bomar took the ball in on the next play.

Dodson's conversion was a wide and Carolina led, 13-6. A short punt set up a field goal by Dodson near the end of the first half to put UNC up, 16-6.

With Wake on the UNC 22 at the beginning of the fourth quarter, Landy Blank made an interception on the three by batting the ball up, catching it, and getting out to the nine.

Carter then ripped off 26 yards to the 34, but fumbled. Wake moved to the 10, where a fourth down pass was broken up by Ronnie Lowry.

Wake got it back on another fumble, but Johnny Blair swiped a pass at the Carolina 24 and returned it to the 35.

From the 36 Carter faked to Wesolowski, rolled to his right, and sprinted 64 yards to paydirt to ice the game. Carter had replaced starting quarterback Gayle Bomar, who broke a finger in the third quarter.

Wesolowski, bottled up in the second half, had 135 yards in 27 carries. Carter netted 119 in just eight attempts. Jimmy Johnson led Wake Forest with 74 yards in 22 tries.

It's enough to drive you off your rocker.

And it should.

Fauntleroy

The autumn leaves have turned and fell — The season's stealing on. Just two more weeks to show his wares. And Fauntleroy is gone.

Yes, football fans, just two more weeks after this one and ol' Fauntleroy will hang 'em up for the year.

It's been fun, though. I had some interesting times. I remember the day I went up to Y-Court disguised as a guided missile. Anyway, a bunch of bearded guys began to nose around.

I was about to laugh. They brushed their beards against my "metal skin" and I almost burst out laughing. (I'm ticklish you see.)

FAUNTLEROY DISGUISED

I guess I had better get on with the business at hand. here are the picks:

UPSET SPECIAL: Ed Freakley to beat the BAND.

WAKE FOREST vs FLORIDA STATE — Well the Deacs have had more ups than downs this season. That makes such a pretty pattern, let's keep it up. Pick Florida State.

MARYLAND vs NAVY — I never liked those Navy guys, anyway, pick the Terps in a slow one.

Oh, did you hear about the deaf mute who fell in a well and broke two fingers hollaring for help? —ah-h-h—you did.

DUKE vs N. C. STATE — This should be a close one. The Blue Devils are falling down after I let them win a few at the start of the year. State on the other hand has won two in a row. Pick Duke.

VIRGINIA vs SOUTH CAROLINA — This should be another close one. Pick Virginia.

OTHER GAMES:
MICHIGAN STATE over IOWA
V.M.I. over RICHMOND
NOTRE DAME over PITTSBURGH
NEBRASKA over KANSAS
ARKANSAS over RICE
TEXAS over BAYLOR

Tar Heel Cagers Meet Tall Frosh

By BILL ROLLINS

North Carolina's basketball program throws all its talent onto one stage this afternoon and draws the free-admission curtain for everyone to observe. The varsity and freshman teams square off in Carmichael Auditorium at 4 p.m.

Here are some opinions as to what the varsity players think of the game.

BOB BENNETT: "This game will be more important than most freshman - varsity games, because we don't scrimmage any other schools before the season starts. They've got some good boys and height. It should be a good game."

TOM GAUNTLETT: "We've gotta win. We have everything to lose. We'll go after it with everything we've got. We really want to make a good impression on the students."

BOB LEWIS: "We're confident that we're gonna beat them. We've got experience on them, and that should make the biggest difference. The main thing is that is should show pretty well how we'll be able to do against a team with all boys. We want to win 'em all, and we want to start right here!"

JIM MOORE: "I think the people will be more impressed with the team's spirit. It's 100 per cent better."

LARRY MILLER: "It'll be a good game, though on the boards. I think our overall experience will be the difference."

Some of the freshmen commented also:

JIM BOSTICK: "Their experience will be the big thing. They've got some great players, and we'll have to be about perfect to beat them."

RUSTY CLARK: "We're gonna play 'em a good game. They should win if they're 'right,' but we've got a good chance to beat 'em if we can keep from making mistakes."

GERALD TUTTLE: "It will be important in showing how much progress has been made and where the most work must be placed before the season starts."

BILL BUNTING: "We need to control the boards to make a good game of it. I think the biggest things will be rebounding and speed. It will also show how well the new defense is going to work."

Frosh Booters Take Fifth Straight Match

Clarke Herdic's frosh booters jammed two goals into as many minutes of the third period yesterday on Fetzter Field, and made them stand up for a 2-0 win over Appalachian.

Landy Anderton and Warren Helman with an assist Bill Paulsen tallied the goals which gave the unbeaten team its fifth straight win.

Herdic singled out goalie Bob Matheson for outstanding play.
