Varsity, Frosh Scrimmage Again

By BILL ROLLINS
DTH Sports Writer

The varsity Tar Heels came up short in the first scrimmage game against the freshmen last Saturday, but they are getting a quick chance for revenge.

The two clubs meet again in an open-to-the-public clash Wednesday night. The time has not yet been set, but will be posted here tomorrow.

Said varsity Coach Dean Smith: "Working against the freshmen is the best way to improve our play against big men. When you are going against someone with a height advantage, you just naturally have to stick closer and work harder. In the first scrimmage Bob (Bennett) and Larry (Miller) got into toul trouble early, and we've got to keep this from happening. We'll work on it against the freshmen."

Larry Bown was understandably pleased with the winning effort of his freshmen, but declared there were many mistakes to be corrected.

Students snapped up about 2,750 Duke tickets yesterday at Woolen Gym. Only 350 tickets remain from the original allotment.

They will be on sale this morning starting at 8:30. Student tickets are $2.50.

An effort is now being made to secure more student tickets. At no time in the last decade has the demand for student tickets to Duke games away been so great.

Timeless good taste is waiting for you in every fine sweater at THE HUB. V-Neck classics in a wide variety of colors, including navy, tan, autumn gold, cinnamon, and heather tones all featuring saddle shoulders — and full fashion cardigans with the same classic shoulders and ample patch pockets. Wool blends, 100% lambswool, and cashmeres — all hand washable and guaranteed mothproof.
