

Frosh Fall, 93-82

By BILL ROLLINS
DTH Sports Writer

The Varsity came back to Carmichael Auditorium to play Wednesday night, and this time they put the talented freshmen in their place, 93-82. Improved play on the part of both units earmarked the second pre-season skirmish, and in the aftermath both coaches seemed pleased with the progress made since last Saturday's "opener."

Head man Dean Smith said "It's surprising how much can be done in just three days. I think both our teams improved on their play last Saturday. Our (varsity) shooting percentage is still down and we have to improve our rebounding. But the team play was good and several of our boys played their best ball so far this year."

Actually, the varsity owned a slight advantage in rebounding, 44-43, but the Frosh shooting percentage panned out to 51% besting the upperclassmen's 42.5.

Although the frosh committed 31 fouls, Larry Brown said "We made an improvement overall. It was tough to lose Clark and Bunting on fouls so early, and then Grubar went out (on fouls) too."

Rusty Clark, the 6-11 pivotman, fouled out of the game with 12:51 left and the varsity ahead 57-56. He had stormed the nets for 16 points (10 in seven minutes of the second half), getting some excellent assist passes from his team mates.

Bill Bunting, a 6-8 front courtman, had swished in 18 points before drawing his fifth foul at 10:30 with the Frosh behind, 63-60.

When 6-3 guard Dick Grubar picked up his fifth one, the varsity held an 80-74 lead and were not out of the woods yet. Oddly, each of the three went out just after scoring a clutch basket.

Said Brown: "I think we might have won if we could have gone all the way with those three boys in, but I still feel we played a better game. Our defense didn't do its job well, but that won't happen again."

Last Saturday, one of the biggest components of the frosh win was that Bunting was fouled 10 times and hit 14 straight free throws. This time the frosh did the fouling, and that actually provided the margin of victory.

The frosh outscored the varsity from the field, 66-62, but were topped at the line, 31-16. Bob Lewis hit two hot streaks, scoring eight straight points in the first half and 12 straight in the finale, leading his squad with 30 points.

"Bobalu" was virtually unstoppable, as was soph Larry Miller, who bagged 25 and led all rebounders with 16.

Jimmy Smithwick started the game at guard for the varsity, and scored six points in the early going, keeping his club in the lead. It was 35-35 before Dean Smith's boys hit the final eight points, climaxed by Miller's three-pointer, to take a 43-35 midway advantage.

Also outstanding for the varsity was guard John Yokeley, who rated with Lewis and Miller on Smith's player performance evaluation chart. Yokeley scored seven points and did a good directing of the attack and setting up goals.

Two of the more outstanding players in the game were frosh forwards Joe Brown and Jim Bostick.

Bostick hit 18 points and Brown got 13. Both led the offensive and defensive play for the freshmen after the loss of Clark and Bunting.

Another scrimmage game is on tap for next Thursday night.

Booters Bow 3-1

Coach Marvin Allen's soccer team continued in its losing ways yesterday as they dropped their third straight match, this time to Trenton State 3-1.

After a reeling off seven straight wins Allen's team has been completely stymied during their last three matches. Allen has 99 wins to his credit as soccer coach at Carolina and will be seeking his 100th in next week's game with Duke.

The third quarter was the big one for Trenton as they scored all of their points.

Outside left Wayne Houston drew first blood and put Trenton State ahead when he nudged one in during a scramble in front of the goal. Only 1:23 had elapsed in the third period.

Less than a minute later the same Houston took a head from right halfback Jack Bell and headed another one into the left top corner.

Not satisfied with their lead, Trenton brought the ball downfield again and outside right Ed Zimbick kicked the point in over Carolina goalie Bob Johnson's head.

The first half was a defensive battle all the way as neither team could seriously threaten. Both squads took several shots at the net but could not come close. Carolina's lone score came late in the final stanza on a solid kick by Jimmy Johnston into the far right corner.

"We got beat by a better team," remarked Allen after the loss. "Trenton played very well and they are a fine team. We fell down on our defense after they scored."

When asked about next week's encounter with Duke, he simply remarked, "Duke is going to be a tough team, but I think the boys will be ready." Trenton's Houston has 23 goals to his credit during the 12 games this season.

Soccer Coach Marvin Allen must have a monkey on his back.

Three week ago he scored his 99th win as head soccer coach at UNC, but that magical number 100 is proving to be the hardest to get.

Allen is known as Mr. Soccer at North Carolina. He was a member of the University's first soccer team and he boot-ed the first goal against Duke in 1938. He started soccer as a varsity sport nine years later, in 1947. He has coached the team ever since, except for a two year stretch during the Korean conflict.
