

THE CAROLINA SWEETHEARTS in the "NC" formation around three members of the NC varsity basketball squad are as follows: In the "N" formation at bottom left are Judy Fleming, Maureen Shannon, Jane Dankworth, Libby Waite, and Priscilla Patterson. Down the diagonal from the top are Sue Bennett, Mary Fisher, Lisa Sherman, Sally Wiggins and Kay Cansler. The three basketball players are from bottom, Ray Hassell (Beaufort), Bob

Bennett (Pittsburgh, Pa.) and Johnny Yokely (Mt. Airy). In the "C" formation at the bottom and going clockwise are Susan Barron, Nancy Morris, Rosemary Teague, Winborne Shaffer, Patricia Rumley, Pam Hooper, Judy Howerton, Ginger Prince, Carole Sandlin, Zacki Murphy, Alice Graham and Audrey Wall. Not pictured are Beverly Baily and Liz Scott.

Coeds Show Southern Hospitality

BY MARY E. STROTHER

When they arrive in Chapel Hill, visiting football and basketball teams must wonder where UNC gets so many pretty girls.

"The answer is simple," says Rick Kramer, organizer of the 24 girls who meet the teams. "The Carolina Sweethearts, as they're called, were organized last year to act as a welcoming committee for the teams coming to the Tar Heel campus," the president of the Carolina Athletic Association continued.

"They will be back on the job again after the Thanksgiving break to welcome the William and Mary basketball team for the first home game in our new Carmichael Gymnasium, Dec. 4.

"Every coach really appreciates it," Kramer added. "They ask questions about organizing similar systems at their own schools. We feel our unique system maintains very good relationships for us with visiting schools."

The Sweethearts are composed of representatives of each woman's dormitory, sorority and the female members of the cheerleading squad.

Meeting The Teams
The procedure for meeting the teams begins with one girl presenting a gift representative of UNC. Then the girls form a receiving line and introduce themselves to every team member.

Most of the Sweethearts feel the program is "great" and in the tradition of "southern hospitality for which UNC is known."

Audrey Wall, elementary education major from Raleigh, feels that "southern hospitality which the Sweethearts display" is the most essential and effective part of the program.

The Alderman Dormitory representative had a list of beauty honors before she came to Carolina as Broughton High School Queen of Hearts and St. Mary's Junior College May Queen. She is a member of the Student Government Communications committee and the YWCA Hospital Committee at UNC.

Alice Graham, a Raleigh history student, enjoys the Sweetheart program because "it promotes school spirit and gives us a chance to meet visiting players."

The Spencer Dormitory representative is a member of Women's Honor Council and the Publications Board.

Pam Hooper, math education, Winston Salem, thinks the "program is a good idea and well worthwhile, but could be handled more effectively."

She is a varsity cheerleader and has been in the Yack Court and Beat Duke Court.

Good Image
Susan Barron, physical therapy, Chapel Hill, likes the "warm and friendly image of Carolina the Sweethearts present to other colleges and universities."

She was secretary of the Freshman Class, a member of the orientation committee, a member of the Attorney General's Staff and is Sweetheart representative from McIver Dorm.

Winborne Shaffer, math, Chapel Hill, likes "speculating on our chances for observing the size of the boys."

Winborne is also a varsity cheerleader.

Anne (Zacki) Murphy, a r t education, Hillsborough, feels "it's a warm way in which to welcome visiting teams to the Tar Heel campus. I think they enjoy meeting the girls and getting a sample of what Carolina life is really like."

The 1964 Homecoming queen has a list of many beauty honors including Miss Triangle Pointer (1965), Yack Court, Beat Duke Court, Miss Consolidated University Court, Miss Maverick House (1966) and Miss WKIX (1965).

She spent this past summer in New York working as a professional model. She is a varsity cheerleader.

Welcome
Priscilla Patterson, history, New Bern, enjoys "welcoming the visiting teams to Carolina and making them feel a little more at home."

The senior dean's list student is a member of the Carolina Symposium, a varsity cheerleader and on the Student Government Honors Committee. She was in the 1964 Homecoming Court.

Carole Sandlin, math, Jacksonville, enjoys "having a chance to learn about other schools and their ideas" and feels "our unique system is very effective."

The former Teen-ager of the Year in high school is a UNC varsity cheerleader and dean's list student.

Sally Wiggins, elementary education, Charlotte, feels "getting to meet opposing players and to know the other Sweethearts" makes the program worthwhile.

The Phi Beta Phi sorority representative was a junior and senior beauty, homecoming queen and head cheerleader in high school.

Lisa Sherman, dramatic arts and international studies, North Caldwell, N. J., thinks the Sweetheart program "emphasizes the 'southern hospitality' expected to find when I came South to School. I'm sure that the Yankees on the visiting teams are pleased in much the same way I was!"

The Smith Dorm representative is a member of The Carolina Playmakers and in the sophomore honors program.

Maureen Shannon, physical therapy, Westfield, N. J., enjoys "introducing the players to the 'Southern Part of Heaven'."

She is a varsity cheerleader.

Mary Suzanne (Sue) Bennett, nursing, Asheville, "likes being personally involved with the teams that we play. By shaking hands with the boys and talking with them briefly, I feel like we give them a 'human' introduction to Chapel Hill and maybe lower their defenses a little."

Sue represents the Nurses Dorm.

Friendly School
Judy Fleming, education Durham, enjoys "meeting the visiting teams and coaches. I feel that they are quite impressed and they often say so — after all, Carolina's reputation is partly based on friendliness."

Judy is a varsity cheerleader, 1964-65 Sigma Chi Sweetheart at Duke and was in the homecoming court and DeMolay Sweetheart in high school.

Rosemary Teague, journalism, Statesville, feels the program is "extremely effective because it shows UNC the friendly place it is and really makes the arriving teams feel at home."

The East Cobb representative is a member of the UNC

Press Club and the Graham Memorial Publicity Committee.

Judy Howerton, nursing, Gibsonville, feels the effectiveness of the program could be improved but is satisfied with the warm welcome it gives the teams.

The Alpha Delta Pi representative has been on honor council, an orientation counselor, on Campus Chest, in the Yack Court and is a member of the Order of the Old Lampshades.

She was also May Queen of her high school.

Virginia Caroline Prince, sociology, Fuquay Springs, likes most "being able to meet the girls in the program and the boys on the visiting teams."

The Phi Mu sorority representative is a member of a co-rec carnival committee and was homecoming maid of honor in high school.

Libby Waite, special education (mental retardation), Mt. Airy, is the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority representative. She was in the homecoming court, on the student council and a dean's list student in high school.

Mary Fisher, social studies, Fayetteville, is the West Cobb representative. She is a dorm officer at UNC.

Cheerleader
Jane Dankworth, nursing, Arlington, enjoys "meeting the teams and welcoming them to Carolina." She is a varsity cheerleader.

Patricia McMullan Rumley, studio art, Washington, is the Sweetheart representative from Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is a member of the Order of the Old Bearbirds.

Kay Cansler, special education, Winston Salem, is social chairman of Whitehead Dorm and was homecoming sponsor in high school. She is the representative from Whitehead.

Nancy Morris, English education, Raleigh, is a UNC dean's list student and a member of The Carolina Forum. She was a member of the student council and homecoming sponsor in high school.

She is the Kappa Delta representative for the Sweethearts.

Beverly Bailey, English education, Wilmington, likes the program most because "it's friendly, fun and shows the spirit of the Carolina students."

The Chi Omega representative is chairman of the Graham Memorial Drama Committee and treasurer of Panhellenic Council.

Liz Scott, elementary education, Nashville, Tenn., feels "it is a good example of southern hospitality."

The Winston Dorm representative is secretary of the junior class and a member of the Y Hospital Committee. She was Homecoming queen for Montgomery Bell Academy in high school, and in the May Court at Pine Manor Junior College.

The Carolina Sweetheart alternates are Kappa Delta, Susan Ferebee, New Bern; Chi Omega, Shirley Ryland, Memphis, Tenn.; Delta Delta Delta, Hannah Vaughn, Woodland, N.C.; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Jackie Jennings, Chapel Hill; Alderman, Judy Dudley, Washington, D. C.; East Cobb, Toni Greenwood, Los Angeles, Calif.; West Cobb, Margaret Price, Elkin; McIver, Sally Buie, Biscoe; and Nurses, Mary Anne Smithers, Burlington.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

Also, Smith, Carolyn Gresham, Warsaw; Spencer, Sharon Rose, Charlotte; Whitehead, Lynne Brownell, Brevard; Winston, Sue Nottingham, Norfolk, Va.; Frances Dayvault, Lenoir; and Sharon Derrick, Jacksonville.

University Orchestra Will Present Concert Tuesday

By SUSAN ZARR

The University Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Earl Slocum, will present its 1965 winter concert Tuesday, Dec. 7, at 8 p.m. in Hill Hall.

The featured work of the evening will be Rachmaninoff's Second Piano Concerto, the three movements of which will be played by three advanced piano students in the UNC Department of Music: Nell Jones of Rockingham, Michael Kelly of Martinsville, Va., and William Robinson of Whitmore, S. C.

These three undergraduates, all pupils of faculty member William Newman, bring impressive credentials to their performance of this demanding and grandly beautiful work.

Nell Jones, a sophomore who holds the "Miss Richmond County" title, attended the Governor's School in Winston-Salem in 1963 and was chosen to participate in the American Pre-College Program in Paris during 1964. She has appeared several times on WUNC-TV's program, "Performance."

As a freshman, Michael Kelly held the Eric B. Schwartz Scholarship. Now in his junior year, he is the first recipient of the Sidney M. Dowd Scholarship. Kelly has performed for the University's Annual Piano Clinic and appeared last summer on a Hill Hall evening recital.

Senior William Robinson is a particularly experienced performer-scholar. Winner of National Merit and General Motors Scholarships, he is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and is in competition for Woodrow Wilson and Danforth Graduate Fellowships.

Robinson won the 1964 N. C. Federation of Music Clubs auditions and has played here at the University on several occasions.

Providing such an opportunity for budding performers to sink their teeth in the concerto literature is one of the most important functions of a University orchestra, according to conductor Slocum; throughout its 20 seasons under his direction, the UNC group has performed over 25 different concertos in addition to a large repertory of symphonies, overtures, suites and other orchestral compositions.

The University Symphony Orchestra is unusually well-equipped to work with a wide range of fine symphonic literature. Made up of students, faculty and townspeople, the organization can depend on a good-sized resident community of amateur musicians.

In addition to its annual winter and spring concerts, the University Orchestra provides accompaniments for the Chapel Hill Choral Club and the Opera Workshop.

A bandman as well as an orchestral conductor, Earl Slocum has served as president of the American Bandmasters Association and as State Chairman of the College Band Directors National Association.

Among the many other honors which have accrued to him throughout an active career are listings in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in Music and the Biographical Dictionary of American Scholars. As a flutist, Dr. Slocum has played in recital all over the South and in his home state of Michigan.

He is also a skilled arranger with several publications to his credit. Four of the short works to be played after intermission on Dec. 7 are transcriptions made by Dr. Slocum.

The University Symphony Orchestra concert is being sponsored by UNC's Tuesday Evening Series and is open to the public without charge.

Pop Art Posters

A new shipment has just come through, and we think they'll make you the favorite Santa of the year with that au fait teenager.

$2.98

The Intimate Bookshop

119 East Franklin St. Open Till 10 P.M.

Oh, Christmas is such a jolly time at the Intimate! Come and join in the fun!

There's so much more to choose from at

The Intimate Bookshop

119 East Franklin Street Chapel Hill

Open until 10 o'clock every night

USE CHRISTMAS SEALS

FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS and other Respiratory Diseases

She'll Love Gifts

from

Sharyn Lynn

RAIN COATS

Wash 'n' Wear — With or without zip-in lining. In Navy, Oyster, Light Blue, Yellow.

CHESTERFIELD COATS

SKIRTS & SWEATERS

In Patterns and Dyed-to-Match. by Bobbie Brooks, Tami, Garland, and Billie Jo.

BLOUSES

Half-Sleeve, Long Sleeve, Roll Sleeve and Bibs, by New Era, Tracy, Langtry.

LINGERIE

Bras, Slips, Panties.

SLAX

Bell Bottom and Straight.

HOSE

BAGS

Leather and Leather Trim.

KNEE SOCKS

and Over The Knee Socks.

BELTS

CAROLINA NITESHIRTS

In Red and Carolina Blue.

CAROLINA SWEATSHIRTS

Pennants and Mugs.

BOOTS

FOLDING SLIPPERS

KERCHIEFS

CAROLINA UMBRELLAS

PAJAMAS & GOWNS

OPEN FRIDAY NIGHT UNTIL 8:30

Sharyn Lynn Shoppe

Next to North Carolina National Bank

135 East Franklin

Phone 942-2516

Applications Being Taken For Scandinavian Study

The Scandinavian Seminar study program in Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden is now accepting applications for the academic year 1966-67. This opportunity to combine living with learning attracts graduates and other adults but has special appeal for the mature college student who wishes to broaden and intensify his study experience in the Scandinavian country of his choice.

The student stays with a Scandinavian family at the outset, speaking the language daily, and sharing its activities in the community. For the major part of the year he lives and studies at a folkhögskola — a residential school for young adults.

Except during the general Seminar and language courses, he is entirely separated from his fellow American students. At the folkhögskole particular attention is given to the value of the Scandinavian cultural heritage in today's changing world.

After the student has acquired a working knowledge of the language, he is able to devote considerable time to independent study and research in the field of his major interest, which culminates in the presentation of a project paper.

For further information, write to Scandinavian Seminar, 140 West 57th Street, New York, N. Y. 10019.

Society Will Hear

Dr. John Graham

Dr. John B. Graham, of the UNC Medical School's Department of Pathology, will be the speaker at the Tuesday, Dec. 14, meeting of the Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society. The meeting will be held in Room 05, Mitchell Hall, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Graham will speak on "Does High Blood Cholesterol Matter?" He has specialized in blood diseases and disorders and has been interested in genetic factors which may influence blood composition and its physiology.

TAKE CARE

When you plan a hunting trip, take as good care of your heart as you do of your gun. See your doctor first, reminds the North Carolina Heart Association.

Varsity

THURS., FRI., SAT.

THE MOST MARVELOUS MOVIE EVER MADE!

FROM THE PLAY THAT KEPT PLAYING FOREVER!

ROBERT PRESTON - SHIRLEY JONES - BUDDY HACKETT

HERMIONE GINGOLD - PAUL FORD - TECHNIRAMA

TECHNICOLOR - PRESENTED BY WARNER BROS.