fense; it is a builder of team morale." That was University of California Coach Pete Newell speaking (Sports Illustrated, 11-6-65) in general about the hardest-hitting renovation in college basketball since they threw away the peach basket goals.

But he just may have been talking pointedly about North Carolina's amazing Tar Heels, who have rebounded in the aftermath of an opening-game setback with a pressing defense that has practically blown three straight opponents off the court.

Here is the way UNC coach Dean Smith cautiously describes his new "baby":

"Ours is not a UCLA-type press because, for one thing, we don't have their personnel.

Mainly, it's more on the lines of the press that Phog Allen used out at Kansas when he won the national championship in 1952 and placed second in 1953. It's not really a zone press and not exactly a man-for-man either. We really aren't too good at it yet, but we're coming around."

The five-night blitz of William and Mary, Ohio State and Richmond has seen the emphasis on two individuals on offense. But this is not the contradiction of Newell's statement it seems.

Let Bobby Lewis, who forms Carolina's lethal scoring duo with Larry Miller, tell you about this "new look" Tar Heel team.

"The biggest different this year is in the spirit we have as a team. Everybody's equal, and when we come downcourt with the ball, we just look for a jersey to pass to."

Then Wednesday night, after Carolina has shattered the school's single-game scoring record, Lewis stood in the hell-raising locker room and talked about the pressure defense.

"It has worked real good so far. We have gotten a lot of steals in the last few games and turned them into easy baskets. I know that most of the scoring Larry and I have done has been on layups or close shots, and that is due to the way everybody has been working the ball. The way we've been passing, there's not much to do but just lay it in."

Law IV, DU's Take Crowns

By BILL HASS
DTH Sports Writer

Law IV and DU Blue 11 won the graduate and fraternity tag football championships on Thursday by shutting out their opponents.

The Law boys slipped past the Town Tuffs in overtime, 1-0. The teams battled away for an entire game and proved nothing, except that both have outstanding defenses. In the overtime period, Charlie Shaffer of Law ripped off two sizeable gains and Law moved the ball further down the field than the Tuffs did, clinching the victory.

The DU's won their title by smashing Zete 1, 25-0. Touchdowns by Bob Cordell, Dan Howe and Mel Wright staked DU to an 18-0 halftime lead and they coasted home from there. Wright added another touchdown in the second half to put the icing on the DU cake. On Wednesday four residence hall teams advanced to the semi-finals of their tournament.
