Rusty Adkins Tops ACC Hitters

GREENSBORO (AP) — Rusty Adkins, junior infielder for Clemson who won the 1965 Atlantic Coast Conference batting crown with a .444 average, is turning a late season spurt into a serious bid for a repeat championship.

Adkins, with a .375 average through 22 games, has inched his way to the top in what is the closest race in ACC history in the batting title.

The battle is so tight, the man in sixth place currently could rise to the top in a single game and this means the contest may go to the final out of the season before a decision is rendered.

The nearest thing to a certainty at this stage is that either a Clemson or North Carolina man should win the crown. The first eight men in the latest ACC Service Bureau averages perform for either the champion Tar Heels or the Tigers. However, Dan Kerns of Maryland is batting .350 and is still mathematically in the running.

Adkins, who has hit safely in 39 consecutive games stretching into last season, is trailed by three men hitting .370 or better. Teammate Keith Waters is second at .372, Charles Carr of North Carolina is third at .371 and Tar Heel Danny Talbott fourth at .370.

Tommy Pack (.364) and Eddie Dantzler (.363) of Clemson round out the first half dozen.

Averages for the ACC are running well ahead of 1965 when only ten players batted .300 or better for the full season. With the 1966 campaign almost over, 80 players are inside the .300 circle, with ten of them at .350 or better. Last season only three managed to go over .350.

Clemson players dominate the extra base races, with George Sutton, a .350 hitter, showing the way in home runs with 11 and runs batted in with 34. Adkins tops triples with six and Jack McCall leads doubles with nine. Talbott is pushing McCall in two base hits with eight and Lawton Cowart of Clemson is a close second in RBIs with 30.

Randy London of Wake Forest is first in stolen bases with 11. Mike Fair of South Carolina is second with 10.

Duke Takes Track Meet

Duke won the first State Intercollegiate Track and Field Championships Wednesday, clinching the title in the final event of the day.

The Blue Devils edged North Carolina College, 47-45. UNC finished third with 36 1-2 points, and N. C. State was fourth with 28 1-2.

Carolina copped two first places in the meet. Bill Bassett won the mile run with a time of 4:21. Mike Williams took the 880-yard run in 1:53.

Edwin Roberts of North Carolina College was named the meet's outstanding performer. Roberts won the 100 in 9.5 and the 220 in 21.4. He also anchored the winning 440-yard relay team.

Bob Lewis Named MVP Of Tar Heel Cage Team

All-America Bob Lewis, junior from Washington, D. C., has been named Carolina's "Most Valuable Player" for the 1965-66 basketball season, according to Coach Dean Smith.

Lewis, who averaged 27.4 points per game and set a school record with a 49-point performance against Florida State last December, headed the list of players selected for special honors at the annual basketball banquet.

"Bob's tremendous scoring skill and his overall team effort made him a logical choice for the award," said Smith. The trophy is presented each year by E. Carrington Smith. Other special honors went to seniors Jimmy Moore of Wilmington and Johnny Yokley of Mt. Airy.

Moore, a substitute who played in all but 11 games, provides a good example of athletic value although one is out of the limelight. He was tapped for the Foy Robertson Jr. Memorial Award as the player who "made the chief contribution to team morale and sportsmanship."

Yokley, a two-year starter, was voted the "Outstanding Senior" and earned the Educational Foundation Award, an engraved watch.

Bill Currie, Charlotte radio and television announcer, was the principal speaker at the affair.

Tech Edges Heels, 15-14

The Tar Heels closed out the regular baseball season on a ferocious, but losing, note Wednesday when they were out-slugged by Virginia Tech, 15-14.

The loss, the second in a row for Carolina, gave Walter Rabb's team a regular season record of 18-10. Wake Forest beat the Tar Heels, 5-4 in ten innings, Monday.

Even in losing, the Heels showed the never-say-die spirit that has characterized them all season. They rallied from a seven-run deficit and took a 14-12 lead into the bottom of the ninth.

Carolina couldn't hold the lead, though. Tech's Johnny Oates slammed a three-run homer to give the Gobblers the victory. Bud Cohoon took the loss for the Tar Heels.

Mike McLaughlin and Rodney Thompson homered for Carolina.

The next stop for Rabb's ACC champions in Gastonia and the NCAA District III playoffs. The Tar Heels face the Southern Conference pennant winner, East Carolina College, on June 2.

DU, Ehringhaus Win In IM Softball

By BILL HASS
DTH Asst. Sports Editor

DU Blue II and the Ehringhaus C Nubs captured the fraternity and residence hall intramural softball championships on Wednesday.

DU built up an early lead and defeated TEP for the fraternity crown, 11-9. DU did most of their damage in the second inning. Terry Henry led off with a home run. Jim Cutting walked, Pete Burgess singled, Randy Myer walked and Dennis Morgan doubled. Then Ted Edwards walked and Bob Tracy unloaded a three-run homer to cap the seven run outburst. The DU's led, 9-0.

In the third inning, Kleitman blasted a two-run homer to chop the TEP deficit to 9-5.

In the DU fifth, Burgess and Myer walked and came in on Morgan's single to increase the lead to 11-5. TEP scored four more times to finish the game.

NUBS TRIUMPH

Ehringhaus pitcher Gary Lail gave up only five hits to the Griffith House G-men from Morrison in a 4-1 victory. Jimmy Byrd led off the game with a home run to put the Nubs in front, 1-0.

In the third, Bob Knott slammed a home run and Tildern Martin followed with another one to move the Nubs up by 4-0.

TENNIS RESULTS

Lewis Blue defeated the Everett Rogah for the intramural tennis championship in residence halls and Law IV downed Med Blue for the title in the graduate division.

Jim Hough of Lewis won his singles match against Jim Hugenschmidt, 7-5. Tom Dail of Everett beat John Clemens of Lewis in number two singles, 6-0, 8-6. The Lewis doubles team of Woody Perrel and Rich Page won over Ron Michlelove and Steve Shields, 6-2, 6-3.

Phi Delt beat KA for the fraternity championship.

Law IV defeated Med Blue for that title. Members of the winning team were Charlie Shaffer, number one singles, John McMillan, number two singles, and doubles team Larry McDevitt and Rich Gwalty.

Wins And Losses

Changing Horses

One old adage tells me not to change horses in mid-stream. Another says don't get off a winner. So I'm going to do both those things. Having successfully picked Kauai King to win the Kentucky Derby, I will now get off that winning horse in the middle of the Triple Crown stream and select another as the winner of the Preakness.

My choice to win the tomorrow's 91st running of this storied race is Advocate. This son of Round Table-Delta Queen, by Bull Lea has yet to win this year, but he is an improving horse. In his last four starts he has chalked up a third and three seconds. His best race, of course, was the Derby, in which he finished only a half-length behind Kauai King. The start before that, Advocate was second to Amberoid in the Wood Memorial.

Kauai King, without doubt, is the colt to beat. He won the Derby fairly, and he did it the hard way, leading all the way. The Maryland-bred son of Native Dancer will be a solid favorite tomorrow, perhaps odds-on. I don't think, though, that the King will be able to run the same kind of race tomorrow that he ran in Louisville. The other jockeys aren't likely to let Don Brumfield get away again.

Indulto, Kauai King and Stupendous should be in the first flight early, with Advocate not too far behind. The others should be farther back. At the finish, I'll call it this way—ADVOCATOR, KAUI KING, STUPENDOUS, AMBEROID.
