

Tar Heel Soccer Team Hosts Springfield; Possible NCAA Regional Berth At Stake

By DRUMMOND BELL
DTH Sports Writer

Carolina's soccer hopes of gaining an NCAA regional berth meet the test today against northern independent Springfield College on Fetzter Field at 3 o'clock.

Presently, the bootmen are riding a winning streak of three consecutive shutouts at the hands of Virginia, Belmont Abbey and East Carolina. In their last three encounters on Fetzter field the Carolina offense has riddled their opponent's defense for twenty one goals while Allen's staunch defense has blanked the opposition.

Against East Carolina the bootmen tallied ten goals in the first half and coasted to an 11-0 victory over their hapless rivals. Virginia and Belmont Abbey also found the Carolina offensive and defensive machine overpowering and were beaten decisively 4-0 and 6-0 respectively.

SPRINGFIELD TOUGH
Springfield won't be an easy game. Each year Springfield is considered one of the best independents in the soccer filled New England area along with Bridgeport and Norwich. Carolina in all probability will face a team which performs the basics of soccer to near perfection and which counts on hustle to give them the winning advantage.

Coach Allen will start with basically the same line-up he used against East Carolina with the exceptions of possibly Jim Crane, who sustained a knee injury on Wednesday, and co-captain Jim Hammer, who pulled a muscle.

ANOTHER SHUTOUT?
Defensively, Carolina will have the same line-up. Co-captain Bob Johnson will be in the goal looking for his fourth straight shutout and fifth of the year.

At the fullbacks Coach Allen will start Jim Johnston, who scored against East Carolina, at center fullback. All-South prospect Terry Henry, whose defensive play has been outstanding this fall will fill in at left fullback. Sophomore John Gussenhoven, who replaced forward Bronson Van Wyck at right fullback will complete the defensive trio.

At the halfbacks Carolina will have co-captain Jim Hammer at center half if he has recovered from his injury. Otherwise, sophomore Jeff Perry will start. Regular season starters Dan Galves and Jamie Camfield will flank either Hammer or Perry on the left and right respectively.

HUNGRY OFFENSE

Coach Allen hopes that his team can continue their goal output and a good crowd at Fetzter field this afternoon won't hurt a team which is deserving of school support. Carolina's next game is against Pfeiffer at home and then they play Duke at Durham. So don't wait for the next game. Soccer is one of the most exciting sports in the world and may even be the most exciting at Carolina this fall.

The determination shown in this shot of Bronson Van Wyck will be in the entire Tar Heel soccer squad today as they tackle tough

Springfield in an important match on Fetzter Field at 3 o'clock.

The Peacocks rallied in the second half to defeat the Town Tuffs in intramural tag football Tuesday, 20-18.

Touchdowns by Beaver and Edwards put the Peacocks in front at the half, 12-7. Bird scored for the Tuffs. Scores by Triplett and Bartow for the Tuffs and one by Connor for the Peacocks resulted in the final score, with Moore's extra points the winning margin.

ATO White bounced KA White, 22-0. Sam Starling, Bill Estes and Dave Founce scored ATO touchdowns.

The DKE Falcons scored three second-half touchdowns to beat the Lambda Chi M-Men, 18-0. John Egbert, Ace Dawson and Walter Hussman did the damage.

Phi Kap Sig Blue triumphed over DU Blue, 8-0. Buck

Long had a touchdown and Doug Wright a safety.

The Zete Zoo edged KA Blue in overtime, 7-6. Butler scored for KA and Williams for Zete as the game ended in a tie. Zete moved the ball further than KA did in the overtime period and picked up the point for the win.

DKE Falcons dumped Kappa Sig Scarlet, 18-0. Scores by John Ward, Ken Royall and L. E. Sawyer did the trick.

Freshman Booters Remain Unbeaten, Top Guilford 5-2

By HAL STRICKLAND
DTH Sports Writer

Carolina's freshman soccer team preserved its undefeated record yesterday by downing Guilford's varsity 5-2.

In scoring their fifth victory against a tie and no defeats, the fresh met an inspired flock of Quakers and despite several defensive lapses managed to prevail.

The game was played with reckless abandon throughout. It was only Carolina's superior skill that saw them through. Against an evenly matched opponent, yesterday's performance would have been suicidal.

Bill Bouie scored first from in close. Guilford proceeded to match the goal, but less than a minute later Louis

Bush put Carolina back into the lead with a 30-yard direct kick. In the first quarter, Todd Hunt narrowly missed heading two Mark Packard crosses, and Pete Nesbit bounced a 35-yard slapshot off the goalpost.

Nesbit continued to make the afternoon unenjoyable for Guilford's goalie with seven shots in the second quarter.

Christ Carter's pass to Todd Hunt set up the third Tarheel goal shortly into the second half. After Bush made it 4-1 on a penalty kick, Guilford, in turn, chalked up a penalty-kick score. Packard rifled two shots just wide.

The fourth quarter produced very little commendable play on either side. Ball control was sloppy and frequent penalties slowed down the pace.

The final goal, however, was a beautiful play. Nesbit lofted a corner kick in front of the goal, and Carter, drawn in from his halfback position, sent a sharp head past the Quaker goalie. The goal was a fitting finale for Carter, who turned a fine performance for the day.

Coach Coles was understandably disappointed with the team's performance on the whole, as it is late in the season and another tough game remains. The freshmen were never quite able to control play in their usual manner. Against N. C. State next Tuesday, the team will have to produce a superior effort, if they plan to win.

As the game was poorly promoted, a disappointing crowd of 16,269 turned out under gray skies over Fetzter Field. Gate receipts amounted to $7,429.14. Game time was 12 days, 14 hours, 49 minutes.
