singer and not a folk singer because the work 'folk' implies passage of the song from past generations while I like to do songs that either Maggie or I write," he said. "Ninny is the only word I've found to describe the type of person I am. I suppose you might say that I'm a little absent-minded," he said. "It sometimes takes me thirty minutes to get across campus because I'm always stopping to take pictures of something that catches my attention.

look at my picture," Jock said.

"My camera outfit, accumulated over the years, would probably be worth about two thousand dollars but the price is well worth it because I just love taking pictures.

"I rent the room beside my apartment as a darkroom for $5 per month so that I can develop my own pictures," he said.

Jock will publish some of his many photographs of Chapel Hill in the fall in a book called Only in Chapel Hill. With explanations of the pictures by Journalism Dean Danielson, the book will sell for about two dollars.

By the way, besides sharing his apartment with two roommates, Jock also has two turtles. The two turtles are called Blind Lemon Jefferson (after an old Negro "blues" singer) and Nehemiah Hezekiah B. J. Butler (also after an old Negro man).

His love for animals is why he calls himself an "animal people."

Hallowed tradition of "pinning" a girl is up-dated by Sprite bottle caps.
According to an independent survey (we took it ourselves), a startling new practice is becoming widespread on some college campuses. Suddenly, fraternity men are no longer "pinning" the lovely young things that catch their eye. Instead, they reach for a bottle of tart, tingling Sprite—and proceed to "cap" the object of their affections. Why has this come about? Perhaps because of what happens when you through the ceremony of opening a bottle of Sprite. It fizzes! Roars! Buzzes! Tingles! Bubbles! All of which makes for a much more moving moment than to simply "pin" a girl. Then, too, the intimacy of two people engaged in the act of opening a bottle of Sprite in itself leads to strong emotional involvement. Capped off, of course, by the sharing of a few moments of delicious abandon. (Tasting the tingling tartness of Sprite, that is.) The beauty of the idea is that if the course of true love does not run smooth, you don't have to go to the trouble of getting back your pin. You just buy another bottle of Sprite.
