

Those Ticket Lines Will Be Longer

By DALE GIBSON
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff

Yesterday's announcement that regular season home basketball tickets will be available only to students, faculty and members of the Rams Club this year means that those long, long lines of last winter will be longer.

Students again must wait in line and there is no guarantee that they won't go away empty handed.

The figure varied, but approximately 300 to 700 tickets were sold to the general public last year for each home game. This will be the amount of increase in tickets for students and faculty this season.

"We did the best we could when we built Carmichael Auditorium," said Athletic Director C. P. (Chuck) Erickson. "But, our funds were limited and we ended up with an inadequate facility."

Carmichael (cap. 8,800) was built primarily as an auditorium with the stage as the focal point according to Erickson. "It was built as an addition to Woollen Gym which had become overcrowded."

"Carmichael has twice as much seating capacity as Woollen," said Erickson. "But, at the same time, the student body and faculty has undergone a tremendous increase."

"Our first obligation is to the students and the many people associated with the University. We are simply letting the people who are closer to the University have the tickets."

The basic system of rules of distribution will not be changed. Tickets will continue to be distributed on a first come basis. "We do hope to take care of the demand as quickly as possible," said Erickson.

"We are going to have more people distributing tickets at more windows. We want to get rid of the lines as soon as possible," said the Athletic Director.

The main concern of the Athletic Association is to let people who are associated with the University see the games. The increased amount of student and faculty ticket distribution is one solution to the problem.

The Athletic Association has scheduled five regular season games in Greensboro and Charlotte. "We have a tremendous amount of alumni in these areas so we try to take care of these people who are essentially 'older students,'" said Erickson.

The games in Greensboro are against Kentucky on Dec. 12 and Princeton on Dec. 16. In Charlotte, the Heels will play Georgia Tech on Jan. 27 and Clemson and South Carolina on Feb. 16 and 17 in the North-South Doubleheader.

The Athletic Association has also scheduled three of the Heels' most heated rivalries on regional television. These will be the Wake Forest game on Jan. 3, the Duke game on Jan. 6 and the N.C. State game on Feb. 13. These will be played in Carmichael.

"The games are scheduled for television to allow as many people as possible in the ACC area see the Tar Heels play," Erickson said.

Blue-White Game Set For Saturday

All-America Larry Miller and Sr. Ralph Fletcher will be opposing captains Saturday when the University of North Carolina stages its Blue-White basketball scrimmage in Carmichael Auditorium.

The game, co-sponsored by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the University Monogram Club, will get under way at 4:30 p.m. following Carolina's football game against Clemson in Kenan Stadium. There will be an admission charge of $1.00 and a limited total of 6,500 tickets will be on sale.

Coach Dean Smith said that all of Carolina's varsity players and four freshman will take part in the scrimmage game. The freshmen are scholarship players Lee Dedmon, Dave Chadwick and Richard Tuttle and Morehead Scholar Don Eggleston.

"It probably is too early to hold a scrimmage of this type," Smith said, "but I do feel it will give our staff an opportunity to see what our young players can do before a crowd."

Assistant Coach John Lotz will direct the Blue squad while Coach Bill Guthridge will lead the White team. The assistant coaches selected their squads in a special draft.

Miller will captain the Blue squad and will have as his teammates Joe Brown, Eddie Fogler, Jim Frye, Charlie Scott, Ricky Webb and freshman Chadwick, Dedmon and Dave Riggs.

Fletcher captains a White team which also is comprised of Rusty Clark, Dick Grubar, Jim Delany, Gerald Tuttle, Bill Bunting, Gra Whitehead, Al Armour and freshman Richard Tuttle.

Officers of the sponsoring University Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes are football star Jeff Beaver, Gayle Bomar and Dave Riggs.

Lacrosse Call Issued

U.N.C. Lacrosse coach Jim Bischoff announced Monday that anyone interested in playing freshman or varsity lacrosse should report to 304 Woollen Gym on Thursday at 8 p.m.

Wake To Give USC Trouble?

COLUMBIA, S. C. (UPI) — South Carolina coach Paul Dietzel had a premonition before this year's football season about Wake Forest, and what the Deacons did last week to North Carolina has served merely to reinforce his feelings.

Dietzel's Gamecocks invade Bowman Gray stadium Saturday with a 5-2 record and a 4-0 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference competition. The surprising Birds are tied with N.C. State for the conference lead.

"I told my team before the season started which teams would give us the most trouble," Dietzel told newsmen Tuesday. "One of the teams I picked was Wake Forest. I thought it was probably our hardest game to prepare for."

Last weekend against the Tar Heels, Wake finally put it all together on the same football field and romped 20-10 for their first win of the campaign in seven starts.

State Moves Up To Fourth In Poll

Unbeaten North Carolina State climbed to fourth and within sniffing distance of third in this week's ratings of the nation's top ten football teams by United Press International.

The Wolfpack, which won its seventh straight Saturday 28-7 over Duke, was fifth last week. Southern California, 7-0 also, remained ahead of UCLA by a 29-point margin. Tennessee moved up to third, only 15 votes ahead of the Wolfpack, replacing Colorado which fell to ninth. Tennessee was fourth last week. Moving into the top ten was unbeaten Indiana. It is up from eleventh to eighth, while Purdue and Wyoming each jumped a notch to sixth and seventh respectively. Houston fell from ninth completely out of the top 20.

Wake's Sophs 'Came Of Age'

WINSTON-SALEM—"Our sophomores came of age." That was the way Wake Forest Coach Bill Tate sized up the situation following the Deacs' 20-10 victory over North Carolina at Chapel Hill Saturday for their first win of the season. "I couldn't be more proud of a group of youngsters," said Tate after the game. "These sophs have been learning the hard way all season, and now they appear to be ready to do the job the rest of the way."

Tate had special praise for soph Jack Dolbin, Buz Leavitt and Ron Jewewicz. "These three played stickout roles, but a couple of others including guard Tom Jones and linebacker Carlyle Pate also contributed a great deal to the victory," he said.

Dolbin got the Deacs away to a flying start by returning the opening kickoff 39 yards, and in the first play from scrimmage romped 51 yards for the game's first touchdown.

"Jack nearly broke it on the kickoff," said Tate. "We have known all along that he was capable of getting off a long scoring run. Now that he has gotten the first one we should be hearing a great deal more from him in the remaining three games."

Booters Defeat Cavs 3-2

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va.—Kip Ward's scoring kick from three feet in front of the goal gave North Carolina a last minute 3-2 soccer victory over surprising Virginia here Tuesday.

The Cavaliers, heavy underdogs to the Atlantic Coast Conference co leader, trailed 2-0 going into the fourth period. Scores by Kleinman with 5:05 gone and Percy, 12 minutes, 35 seconds later tied the score.

Carolina star Louis Bush contained all afternoon. It was Larry Heath who gave the Tar Heels a 1-0 first quarter lead with an unassisted boot from 20 yards out.

Late in the third period Jimmy Carne's first goal ever on an assist from Mark Packard upped the margin to 2-0.

"Wake Forest played a fine ball game Saturday," Dooley said. "They finally put together four quarters of real sound football. The key to the game was their touchdown drive when the score was 14-10. We were still in the game until they got that score but that put it a little out of reach."

Dooley had praise for the Deacons' two fine backs Freddie Summers and Jack Dolbin. "They ran extremely well and are hard to stop."

The Tar Heel Coach thought the Heels played a good game defensively except for two plays. The Deacs ran two long plays for touchdowns—one 51 yards and the other 26.

"If we could take these two plays out, I would say we played a good overall defensive game," said Dooley. "But, we can't take them out."

The Tar Heels' next game is with the Clemson Tigers. "Clemson has a big, strong, quick team," Dooley said. "In fact, it's hard to imagine that a team with their ability has only a 2-4 record."

Dooley respects the Tigers' backfield. "Buddy Gore and Jackie Jackson are two of the strongest runners around and quarterback Jimmy Addison is hard to stop in tough situations."

"I can't say whether or not we'll beat Clemson Saturday, but I know the coaches and the whole team will go onto the field planning to beat them," Dooley said.

We have the new Volvo 142.

You may have heard that Volvos last an average of 11 years in Sweden. We can't say that this Volvo—or its four-door version, the 144—will last that long. They're both new cars, and it's still too early to tell. What we can say is that they're built like Volvos. And while there's no guarantee how long a Volvo will last in America, it is known that over 95% of all those registered here in the past 11 years are still on the road. Come in and test-drive a new Volvo 142 or 144. But do it soon. Because the one place Volvos never last very long is in our showroom.
