Intramural All-Stars Tackle Frosh Tonight

By BOB COLEMAN of The Daily Tar Heel Staff

The Intramural All Stars will realize every Woollen jock's dream of playing big potatoes basketball when they meet the Carolina freshman at 9 p.m. tonight.

Coach (and intramural director) Ron Hyatt and his staff has selected a squad of fraternity, residence hall, graduate, and independent athletes-almost all of them currently participating in intramurals.

"We're playing to win. We feel sure that Coach Guthridge and his fine team expect us to come at 'em real hard," decreed Hyatt. "We will compete!"

Starting for the All Stars tonight, and "waring sky-Blue uniforms with Victory written all over them," will be Danny Talbott and Dave Coriss at guards, Jim Hudock at center, and forwards Ron Stone and Dixon Gribble.

Talbott, Carolina's contribution to ACC football and baseball, appeared briefly with the Tar Heel cagers in 1965. He is presently completing his degree and is an infielder in the Baltimore Orioles' organization.

Hudock was a recent Tar Heel varsity standout and is playing along with Ron Stone, former Davidson star, on the Dental entry in the graduate loop.

Gribble has cemented the DKE's reign as top dog in the fraternity division after making the Tar Heel varsity as a sophomore two years

Other varsity alumnae are Jim Smithwick, who now provides a Med School five his rebounding strength, and Bill Brown, currently on Law's powerhouse team.

Hustling Billy Travis (KA), Paul Camnitz, TEP's sharpshooter from the corner, Harold Pollard, Phi Delt's new scoring leader, and Willie Cooper all played frosh ball.

Cooper and Steve Balcom sparked the Independent Nads to their Grail Mural championship last semester.

Coriss and husky Charlie Ash are Peacock standouts, while Ehringhaus A also placed two All-Stars. Doug Saunders was all-state from Wayne, Pa., and presently paces the Ehringhaus A Panzies, whose only loss in the last two years came in the Grail Mural finals. Sophomore John Rudisill plays for the Ehringhaus A Bruins.

, Other All Stars include the Stacy Stud's flashy Charlie (Choo Choo) Evans, long range artist John Wagg, and Pete Craticus.

Craticus, whose dad starred for Carolina, is the only freshman on the 18 man squad that ranges to third year grad.

Hyatt admits that "boards are the big question" and is sending forth his best to battle the frosh for rebounds.

"We definitely are not going to run," he grinned, in obvious reference to the speed of the fast-breaking Tar Babies.

Hyatt coyly refused to divulge his defensive plans other than to say he was "experimenting." Offensively, the All Stars will go for "ball control and the good shots."

Hyatt and his astute student assistant, Ashley Thrift, have had three practices for the big game.

"We know we missed some good athletes picking our team," said Hyatt, but we feel that we have good depth.

Two years ago former frosh mentor Larry Brown played in an "intramural" contest, but tonight will be the first time in Carolina's history that unorganized undergraduates will be able to share the big time spotlight.

How much work has been done on the Frank Porter Graham Memorial Student Union rather depends on from what viewpoint Viewpoint you see it. Looking up from the floor, for instance, you get the impression that the roof isn't finished. But if you're walking across the planks on top, as this workman is, it seems that there's an awful lot below that's finished.

Rap Brown Arrested In California

NEW YORK-H. Rap Brown, who advises Negroes to "burn, baby, burn", was arrested Tuesday on a federal warrant charging him with disobeying a court order to make a trip to a black power rally in California.

Federal marshals and city detectives converged on the militant racist's West Side Manhattan apartment within hours after his return from Los Angeles, Calif., where he made an appearance Sunday. Arraignment was postponed for several hours until his attorney, William Kunstler, could fly in from California.

Brown visited Washington recently with the permission of the Justice Department, but he never asked for or received permission to travel to Los Angeles, a Department spokesman in Washington said.
