Everett Captures Sports Jamboree

By BOB COLEMAN
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff
Everett and Sig Ep topped a field of 24 entries Wednesday night to capture the eleventh annual Grail-Mural Sports Jamboree.

The winners (84) edged a strong James A-DKE (79) team by taking the archery event and finishing second in table tennis and fowl shooting.

Not surprisingly, James A-DKE annexed the half-court basketball crown in addition to a runnerup finish in handball. James A played a semifinals basketball game last night in the residence hall loop, while DKE has reached the Greek finals.

The Granville B-PIKA (78) squad got no firsts or seconds but finished high enough in enough events for a strong third.

Finishing fourth overall was Lewis-Phi Gam (76), second to Avery-Zete in swimming. Stacy-Kap Psi (75) beat Ehringhaus A-ZBT and Granville B-PIKA in the relays and ended up No. 2 in half-court basketball.

Other event titlists included Carr-Phi Delt in badminton, ahead of Grimes-Sigma Nu, first place winners in table tennis. Granville H-Kap Sig shot the most fowl shots.

Old East-Beta captured the handball points and shot the second most fowl shots.

A good crowd watched the fraternities and residence halls compete together. Last year's winner was Old West-Kappa Sig.

Meanwhile, intramurals was in its busiest stage as competition continues in soccer, softball, bowling, basketball, and table tennis.

Badminton joins the fun beginning Monday.

MADRID (UPI)—Rats outnumber people in Madrid by 1.166 to 1, according to the Spanish magazine El Europeo, which said there are 3 million rats in the Spanish capital city.

Ruffin Says Rec Programs Needed

By DICK MCMAHAN
Special to The Daily Tar Heel

"The government ought to be spending money for recreation programs instead of riot defenses," said Ben Ruffin to the students of Ehringhaus Wednesday night.

Ruffin, Director of the United Organization for Community Improvement, spoke on "Explosion or Erosion in Urban Culture."

"Most of the facilities in the Negro community are substandard. There needs to be more and better recreation programs to give the Negro something to do," he said.

"The Negro is tired of being discriminated on," said Ruffin. This is why he is rioting. If only the white society would act instead of always reacting, there would not be any violence."

"The Negro only wants an opportunity to live like ordinary Americans. He is tired of being considered as 'less a person'."

"The programs devised to help the Negro are no good," said Ruffin. "They are all headed by white people. The Negro knows his own situation; he is the one to help himself."

"The American government is so wasteful. Schools should stay open during the summer to give kids somewhere to go and spend their time instead of walking the streets with discontent," he said.

"If only the whites would first show action and give the Negro equality, the whole problem would be solved," Ruffin said.

"For nearly 300 years we were in slavery. We were brought over to slave and given no right to an education. Now America tells us that we have to bear the same tests as the white man."

"The Negro is not responsible for this mess. It is the white man's thought and responsibility to accept us now and get us out of this mess," said Ruffin.

"But it will take 'feeling' to induce any kind of action. If this doesn't take place, the civil war of races will continue to get worse," he said.

Ruffin said the Negro is tired of being segregated and discriminated on. "He is not going to live the life he has lived for so long any more."

Town Oxford—it looks great with or without a collar pin.

Here's why. Gant tailoring. The flair of the collar. The way it gently slopes to eliminate fullness on the sides. The manner in which the points stay in place no matter how you turn or move—with pin or without. This is what makes a shirt look great. This is patented Gant. Huggar body. In white or blue cotton oxford. $500.
